—A FORMER ISLANDER.—A very quiet wedding took place a week ago in Cove Allen, Idaho, when Mr. James E. Martin, of Iowa, P. E. I., was united in marriage to Miss Katie A. Doucet, daughter of Armand Doucet, retired business man of Montreal. Miss Doucet was born in Rustico, P. E. I., but some years ago she and her sister went to live with their father in Montreal. During this Summer Miss Doucet visited her sister, Mrs. Andrew Mooney, of Dorchester, Mass., where she enjoyed a pleasant three weeks, then left for Idaho, her present home. Her friends wish them both every happiness.

—RECEPTION.—A grand reception was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Agnew, Alberton, on Thursday evening, Oct. 8, in honor of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Agnew. Many invitations had been sent out and a very large number of young and old gathered to felicitate the newly married couple and to wish them a happy journey through life. Both the groom and bride are well acquainted in Alberton, the latter having taught in the High School here recently, and the numerous and costly presents received testified to their extreme popularity. The reception was a dual one, the first from seven till nine for the older people, and the other from half-past nine till twelve, attended chiefly though not exclusively by the young people. Those who attended the first were entertained by some excellent vocal and instrumental music, the chief performers being Mrs. John Wells, Mrs. Emerson McNeill and Miss Mary Keefe. These selections were also interspersed by some very nice graphophone music. The last, but certainly not least, an excellent and costly dinner was served, the most expert in the culinary art might well be proud of. After this had been done full justice to, the company sang "God Save the King" and dispersed to their homes to make room for the young people. These began to arrive about half-past nine and soon about fifty or more had gathered. After tendering their felicitations and good wishes to Mr. and Mrs. Agnew, they all repaired to the spacious dining room where dancing was indulged in to the enjoyment of all. The dances included cancers, quadrilles, waltzes, and two steps. The enthusiasm displayed by the older guests present, must certainly have served as an incentive to younger people if they required any. After about three pleasant hours spent in this way the guests were arranged in a rather unique manner and many dainties were served which could not but satisfy the tastes of the most fastidious. The singing of "Auld Lang Syne," "For He's a Jolly Good Fellow" and the National Anthem brought to an end a very enjoyable evening. The company then separated, after repeating their good wishes to the bride and groom and thanking the host and hostess for their lavish hospitality.—A.

—BUTTER FACTORY.—The Butter Factory in Wellington is preparing for a busy autumn. The surrounding cheese factories will close this month and arrangements are being made to deliver cream from these sections to the Wellington creamery. The capable butter-maker, Mr. Peter A. Burke, has made this creamery very popular. At the Prince County Exhibition it's butter won first place against very strong competition. The factory and it's manager are to be congratulated upon their success.

—WEDDING BELLS.—A quiet but pretty wedding took place at the home of the bride's cousin, Mrs. Alfred Glover, Kensington, on Tuesday, Oct. 6th at 4 o'clock, p.m., when Miss Edna Earle Delaney, youngest daughter of Mrs. W. H. Profit, was united in marriage to Mr. Edward D. Stewart, of French River. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Y. W. Irvine, of Clifton, in the presence of the immediate relatives of the contracting parties. The bride was tastefully gowned in a travelling suit of navy blue, trimmed with fur, and hat to match. The groom's present to the bride was a beautiful gold watch and fob. After the ceremony the guests partook of a sumptuous supper served by the hostess. The happy couple left the following morning on a tour to Boston and other cities in the United States. Their many friends wish Mr. and Mrs. Stewart many happy years of wedded life.

—RESPECTED CITIZEN PASSES AWAY.—Many will learn with deep regret of the death of Mr. James Howard, carriage builder and painter of Kensington, P.E.I. The deceased had not been very well for some time. There are left to mourn their sad loss, besides a widow, three daughters and four sons as follows:—Mrs. Wm. Cohen, Mass.; Miss Addie, Exchange manager of the P.E.I. Telephone Co. at Kensington, and Miss May at home; John and Lorenz of New Brunswick; Archie of Summerside and William of Margate. Mr Howard was one of those men who was loved and revered by all with whom he came in contact, and his loss will be sadly felt in the community. The funeral which was largely attended, took place on Wednesday at 2 o'clock p.m. to St. Marks Cemetery, Kensington.—Y.
