NOVEMBER SQUASH — The Guardian received yesterday from Miss Mary Stewart, Mt. Abion, twin squash which grew in the form of a big "V".

FUNERAL YESTERDAY — The funeral of Mr. Walter Moynis was held yesterday morning from the A. J. Hennessy Funeral Home at 9 o'clock to the Roman Catholic Cemetery where service at the grave was conducted by Capt. Rev. Father McGardie. The pallbearers were Messrs. Aloysius Dowling, John Coady, H. J. O'Connell, J. McFarlane, Reginald Cronin and Wilfred McKenna. The funeral Mass was celebrated in the Basilica at ten o'clock.

ISLANDER DEAD — Mr. David MacDonald, Cherry Hill, has received a letter announcing the death of his brother Aeneas B. MacDonald, who passed away in Albuquerque, New Mexico, and was laid to rest beside another brother, Dr. Norman MacDonald, who passed away some time ago. The only survivors of the family are Mr. David MacDonald, Cherry Hill and Mrs. Frank MacDonald, Orville Cove. Two sisters are buried in Denver, Colo., and a brother, buried in Montana.

SOLDIERS HONORED — On Monday evening, Sept. 21st a large number of friends and neighbors assembled at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Arsenault, Village Green, to honor their three sons who are leaving for military duty. Mr. Charles Duffy outlined and gathered to order and voiced the sentiment of those present in wishing Raymond, Leo and James good speed and a safe return. A nicely worded address was read by Margaret Doyle. Mr. Linus Cannon, presented them with a well filled purse for which the boys made a fitting reply. After giving them a hearty bouillabaisse and singing "For They are Jolly Good Fellows." Lunch was served by the ladies and the evening was spent in dancing, music being furnished by Dan Myers, vocal and Alphonse MacIntyre, Mill View.

FAREWELL PARTY — On Saturday evening, September 26th, the women of Bradabara Village Institute, and a few other friends and neighbors, held a farewell party at the home of Mrs. George Cousins, in honor of Mrs. Cousins and her three children, Gerald, Shirley and Eleanor, who left the following Thursday for the United States. Mrs. Bruce Somers read an address to Mrs. Cousins and Mrs. Robert MacLeod presented her with a generous gift of money. Mrs. Cousins, who was much impressed by the thoughtfulness of her friends, thanked them very sincerely for their kindness. All were pleasantly entertained and enjoyed the evening. A dainty lunch was served by a number of the ladies. Her many friends and neighbors, cordially a pleasant re-union with friends and relatives in the United States.

CAMPBELL-WAYE WEDDING — The home of Mr. and Mrs. C. Milton Wayer, St. Peter's Bay, was the scene of a pretty wedding on Tuesday, Sept. 30th, at 8 p. m. when their daughter, Miss Elizabeth Campbell, eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. Russell H. Campbell, Charlotte-town, was married to Mr. W. A. Patterson, minister of the United Church, St. Peter's Bay. The bride was much impressed by the ceremony taking place under a beautifully arranged arch. The wedding music was played by Mrs. Louise Cameron, sister of the bride. The bride wore a gown of tulle and lace, and carried a bouquet of American Beauty roses and maidenhair fern. The ceremony was performed by Rev. W. A. Patterson, minister of the United Church, St. Peter's Bay. The bride and groom were accompanied by the bride's father, who is a member of the church. The ceremony was a simple and beautiful one. OUT OUR WAY — By J. R. WILLIAMS
"PEACE VALLEY!"
"GOSH, WOULDN'T IT BE TERRIBLE TO SEE THAT ALL DEVASTATED WITH SHELL HOLES... RUINED BUILDINGS... WITH HUNGER, MISERY AND DEATH!"
"WELL, I CAN'T SAY MUCH ABOUT TH' BIG GUYS TILL I CAN CHANGE MY OWN LITTLE WAYS! I SEE A BEAUTIFUL RIPE TOMATO ON TH' GROUND—IF I'M HUNGRY I PICK IT UP! AN' IF IT'S NOBODY ELSE'S I'LL GIVE IT TO CRITICIZE!"

PERSONALS
The many friends will regret to learn of the severe illness of Mr. J. McMurrin in the City Hospital.
Master Addison MacCabe, Alexandria, is visiting his grandparents, Rev. J. W. Hayter and Mrs. Hayter, River John, N. S.

PLEASANT VALLEY Y.P.U.
On Friday evening the Pleasant Valley Y.P.U. met at the home of Miss Isabel MacKay. The meeting was presided over by Mrs. Beatrice White who was appointed organist for the evening. The meeting opened with a hymn, "Rise Up Men of God," which was sung. The Scripture lesson taken from St. Luke, chapters verses 57-62 and II Kings, chapter 5, verses 17-19 was read by four members of the group. The leader gave an explanation of the verses read after each reading, which proved to be very satisfactory to all. Mrs. Dorothy Weeks led in prayer followed by the Lord's Prayer in the union. Period closed with the singing of the hymn "What a Friend We Have in Jesus."

BRISTOL AND VICINITY
Mrs. Walter Munroe left last week for her home in Boston, after spending two months with her sisters here.
Mr. and Mrs. Wendal Coffin and Mrs. James A. O'Brien, were visitors to St. John's last week. This was the last visit of the summer. Mrs. O'Brien's first visit to St. John's in forty years the last time being when she was on her way to Boston the boat then calling at that port.

DUCK SHOOTING ON THE OPENING day here was very light and some gunners brought home with nothing but a lot of wet clothes and a sad story of a weary day and nothing to show for it.
Strange as it may seem your agent while talking to a woman last week in regard to the purchase of a new dress, she had never bought any. The few letters she wrote she got a stamp at the Post Office and as for bonds, she understood they were for business houses only, despite the fact her husband was in the army. She was of the firm belief War Savings stamps were a new kind of postage to be put on letters to be sent overseas.

Small Talk

that when the first train came her way people were afraid to ride on it for fear it would go too fast and maybe run away. Times have changed since the days when farmers used the home-made wooden plough for ploughing and a hoe for potato planting.
Another in a series of dances was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John O'Neil, Morell road, last week when a good sum was added to the growing fund.
Congratulations are extended to Mr. and Mrs. George Ferguson who have returned from their honeymoon. Mrs. Ferguson, before her marriage was Alice Tobin.
The building owned by James P. MacDonald, and used for a Post Office for some time was sold last week to Mrs. John Lapierre, and hauled to her residence to be used for a dairy.
The condition of John C. MacDonald at his home here is reported very serious. Mr. MacDonald is a veteran of the last war.
Pte. Eldon Drake arrived home by plane last week on a short visit to his home.
Cranberry pickers and growers here report a bumper crop this season and with the price reported good.
For the first time in history of this vicinity salmon are reported in St. Peter's Lake. Salmon never entered here before as the outlet to the sea is very shallow.
Mr. Stannus Lapierre, will leave this week for Comeau Bay to visit his son Charles and his wife. Mr. Lapierre will be in the Quebec District for about a month and will also visit other relatives.
Mr. Fred Mosher has purchased the new and beautiful work boat built for Placid Deveau two years ago. Mr. Deveau retired from fishing here before as the outlet is fitted with sails along with the engine and is a very trim craft.—B.

Let's all sharpen our pencils... and face the facts NOW!
Sure the war costs money. Paying for it will be tough in the months ahead. Let's accept that fact—and face it. Now is the time to sharpen our pencils and figure what our taxes actually are... how we are going to pay them... and how we can adjust our living habits to get along on what's left. This is a job for every patriotic Canadian... a job that must be done now.
