

IMPORTANT READING MATTER SELECTED FROM THIS WEEK'S NEWS FOR THE GUARDIAN'S SATURDAY SUBSCRIBER'S

FRIDAY

Miss Marion McLean, stenographer with McLean & McKinnon, Charlottetown, left this morning on a visit to Boston.

At the Charlottetown Police Court this morning Wallace Carr for insulting and abusive language was adjourned until Sept. 24th and the case against Sam McEachern for keeping a vicious dog was dismissed.

William Browne, assistant I. C. R. station agent, Sydney, accompanied by Mrs. Browne and family, arrived in Mayfield recently where they will spend a vacation visiting Mr. Brown's old home.

Prof. E. E. Prince, chairman of the Shellfish Commission, with Richard O'Leary, of Richibucto also of the Commission, Donald Nicholson, M. P., James McIsaac, Mr. Holyrod and others visited the lobster hatchery at the harbor's mouth Wednesday afternoon.

Peter L. McInnis of this city, for the past ten years one of the most efficient motormen in the employ of the Oakland Traction Consolidated, is enjoying a well earned rest in Utah and Wyoming, where he spent several years before coming to California. Peter is an Islander (a Seven Mile Bay McInnis), is happily married to one of Wyoming's fair daughters (Miss Gertrude Demmon), and is the proud father of two lovely girls. Before departing on his vacation the local Order of Owls presented Mr. McInnis with a handsome Past President's emblem as a token of their regard and esteem and in recognition of his services as a successful presiding officer during the past term. Oakland Exc.

At East Wiltshire on Sept. 7th there entered into rest at the ripe old age of 81, William Cummings, a convinced and consistent member of the Baptist Church. He had been failing somewhat of late, but was not confined to his bed many days. Highly respected by his neighbors, intensely loved by his children and grand children, a large company gathered for the funeral on Monday, Sept. 9 at 2 p. m. The service at the house and grave was conducted by the Rev. George Orman, Methodist Minister, Cornwall in the absence of his pastor, Mr. Orman had visited him during his last illness and was pleased to note the clearness of his mind and his prepared condition. At his request the 14 and 17th chaps of John were read and commended upon at the service. There was some impressive singing, one of the hymns being that repeated by the deceased in his last hours.

Mrs. F. T. Kelly, formerly Alice Bastas, Summerside, has left on return to her home in Edmonton, J.

Capt. Lannigan of the schooner Abana finished discharging a cargo of coal in Souris yesterday.

Daniel Montgomery, a native of Valleyfield, P. E. Island, is already a resident of San Francisco for several years.

Miss Bethune of Boston who has been visiting Miss Lily Taylor, Hillboro Street, Charlottetown, left this morning on return.

Miss Ella McKenzie, Charlottetown, milliner for J. J. Hughes & Co., Souris, has returned from a two-months vacation at her home.

Stephen MacAulay Souris Line Road, has about completed his contract of building an extension to the C.M.B.A. Hall, Souris.

Mrs. Frank Heartz and her little daughter Ruth who had been spending a few weeks at Mrs. Heartz' old home at Souris have returned to Charlottetown.

Mrs. Havelock Currie, who has been visiting her sister, Mrs. George C. Gordon, Huntly, returned to her home in West Cape on Wednesday afternoon. She was accompanied by her mother, Mrs. David Hunter.

The residence of the late P. P. Gillis, which was put up at auction yesterday, did not sell. The highest bid was $4,600 and the reserve bid was $6,000. The household effects brought good prices.

Weston S. Knight, after a few weeks' visit to his home at Knightville, Souris, leaves this morning en route to Entwhistle, Alberta via Boston, where he will spend a short time with his brother, John Knight. Mr. Knight is a young man who has made good in the west, and his many friends wish him continued success.

W. L. Phillips, who is confined in the Charlottetown jail awaiting trial in the Supreme Court on a charge of theft from the warehouse of Davis & Fraser, Charlottetown, has been making trouble for his landlord. On Wednesday night he attacked the jailer and quite a lively physical discussion ensued before the prisoner was persuaded to remain in his cell. While the affair was the outcome of real or feigned insanity, the effect upon the jailer was sufficiently real to give him an interesting half hour's exercise.

TORTURED FROM BABYHOOD

MISS E. A. GOODALL

EDMONTON, ALTA., Nov. 20th. 1914 "I have been a sufferer since babyhood from that terrible complaint, Constipation. I have been treated by physicians, and have taken every medicine I heard of, but without the slightest benefit. I finally concluded that there was no remedy in the world that could cure Constipation. About this time, I heard about "Fruit-a-lives" and decided to try them. The effect was marvellous. The first box gave me great relief, and after I had used a few boxes, I found that I was entirely well. "Fruit-a-lives" is the only medicine that ever did me any good and I want to say to all who suffer as I did—"Try this fruit medicine and you will find—as I did—a perfect cure" (Miss) E. A. GOODALL

"Fruit-a-lives" is the only medicine in the world made of fruit and the only one that will positively and completely cure you of Constipation. 50c. a box, 6 for $2.50, trial size, 25c. At all dealers or sent on receipt of price by Fruit-a-lives Limited, Ottawa.

Miss Grace Beatty, formerly of Summerside, but who has been for the last sixteen years matron in the Brockton Hospital, has been appointed Matron of the Prince County Hospital. There are no patients in the hospital so far.—S.

The following registered at the Clifton House, Summerside, between 8.30 last night and 8.30 the previous evening:—Fred R. Sullivan, Boston; C. Henry Enman, Montreal; Ernest Bell, Halifax; M. McKinnon, Charlottetown; A. Loudon, Ottawa; J. W. Bates, Rockford, Ill.; Chas. and Mrs. Lee, Charlottetown.—S.

John Turner of Charlottetown picked up a bottle at Wright's Creek yesterday containing the following message: "Blown off shore April. 20th in an open dory 1908 of Anticosti Island. My dory is full of water and on my last. Finder report to my wife Annie Jones, Cape Madge. My name is Jack Jones. God have mercy on my soul."

The following note from Haverhill will interest their friends in this Province: One of the most interesting events of the season took place on Tuesday evening, Aug. 24th, when Ephraim Malone, formerly of South Melville, P. E. Isle, was united in the Holy Bonds of Matrimony to Mary Costello, formerly of Bonwell, P. E. Island, Rev. Father Cannaris officiating. The bride, who looked charmingly in a gown of white chiffon over silk, with hat to match, was attended by Miss Alice Mc Coughy, who wore a suit of white Hamburg embroidery with black picture hat set off with a large willow plume, while the groom was ably supported by his brother John P. Malone. After the ceremony the bridal party drove to the home of Louis Costello, 40 Primrose street, where a sumptuous wedding supper was served in Mrs. Costello's best style, who also presided at the table. Here a few intimate friends were present and a very enjoyable evening was whiled away after which Mr. and Mrs. Malone took their leave followed to the depot by a large number of guests, who showered them with rice and confetti as they boarded the evening train to Portland on route to P. E. Island where they will spend their honeymoon. The groom's present to the bride was a gold necklace, to the bridesmaid a beautiful signet ring and to the groomsmen a set of cufflinks. Both Mr. and Mrs. Malone were the recipients of many and costly presents attesting to their popularity. Their friends join in wishing them a long, happy and prosperous wedded life.
