Milligan-Newcombe Wedding

Of special interest to many in Summerside as well as Port Hill and district was the wedding solemnized in St. James Church, Port Hill, on Wednesday afternoon, Sept. 24th at 3 o'clock, between the members of two well known families of Port Hill and Tyne Valley, when Marjorie Elaine, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Newcombe became the bride of Harold Lorne, son of Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Milligan, Tyne Valley. The interior of the beautiful church was enriched for the occasion by a profusion of lovely autumn flowers, sweet peas and maidenhair fern banked on either side of the chancel, while placed above the altar were gladioli in vases. The guest pews were marked by white satin bows and tiny buds. Mrs. Percy Birch, aunt of the bride, played the nuptial music. Heralded by Lohengrin's Bridal Chorus, escorted by her father, the bride entered the church. She was a graceful and lovely figure in her wedding gown of white satin, fashioned with tight fitting bodice fastened at the back by a row of tiny satin buttons, long sleeves tapering over the wrist, and full skirt with lace pleatum. Her beautiful veil billowed in soft folds to the skirt hem from a coronet of white roses. She wore the bridegroom's gift, triple strand of pearls, and carried an arm bouquet of Tallman roses.

Her bridesmaid, Miss Faronna England, chose an attractive gown of ice blue tulle, flower head dress and matching shoulder veil. Her arm bouquet was of pink roses.

The ushers were Roy Newcombe, brother of the bride and Reginald Harding, Summerside. The groom was supported by Mr. Lloyd R. McArthur, Charlottetown.

The Rev. W. G. Meadus, Rector, performed the wedding ceremony, assisted by Archdeacon Harrison, St. Mary's, Summerside. During the service, "The Voice That Breathed O'er Eden" was sung by the choir, while Mrs. Cecil Birch rendered "O Perfect Love" during the signing of the register. To the strains of Mendelssohn's Wedding March the happy couple left the church.

A reception was held at the bride's home, where, assisting the young couple in receiving, was the bride's mother and the mother of the groom. Mrs. Newcombe was charmingly gowned in dove gray crepe, smart black chapeau showing white satin bow, black shoes and gloves, with corsage of pink carnations. Mrs. Milligan being attractively attired in a gray crepe, smart black chapeau showing white satin bow, black shoes and gloves, with corsage of pink carnations.

The rooms were prettily decorated in a colour scheme of yellow and white. Centering a daintily appointed table was a three-tier wedding cake which was cut by Mrs. Ernest Birch. Mrs. Wm. Maynard and Mrs. Angus McLennan presided over the tea-cups. Archdeacon Harrison proposed the toast to the bride to which the groom ably responded.

For travelling the bride chose a two-piece ensemble of pale blue and navy crepe with black accessories. Mr. and Mrs. Milligan left by car for the United States amid a shower of confetti and good wishes.

Mr. Milligan, a veteran of World War II, is employed in Summerside where the young couple will reside. Previous to her marriage the bride was on the staff of the Summerside branch of the Bank of Nova Scotia.

Mr. George Brown (uncle of the groom) with Mrs. Brown, travelled from Mass. to attend the wedding.

Many handsome gifts were received, including a number of substantial cheques.

Previous to her marriage the bride was tendered a miscellaneous shower by the Port Hill district at the home of her parents at which she was the recipient of many lovely, handsome and practical gifts. Mrs. Laurie Birch opened the parcels, Miss Eleanor Birch reading the accompanying wishes, while Mrs. Wm. Maynard placed them on a table where
