IN MEMORIAM
MRS. MARY BRAGG
NORTH SYDNEY, Jan. 17.—The funeral of Mrs. Mary Bragg, whose death occurred on Monday at the home of her daughter, Mrs. R. A. MacDonald, at Alba, was held Thursday afternoon from St. John's Anglican Church, where the service was conducted by Rev. John Staid, following which the cortege formed and proceeded to Lakeside cemetery, where the service was conducted by the members of the True Blue Association. Mrs. Nelson Hare delivered the oration.
The late Mrs. Bragg was 75 years of age and is survived by two daughters, Mrs. R. A. MacDonald of Alba, with whom she lived and Mrs. Netta Esser, of Providence, R. I., and four sons, J. F. Bragg of Charlottetown, P. E. I., H. S. Bragg of Ruddell, Sask., Fred Bragg of North Providence, and Roland of Providence. Three sisters, Mrs. John Hiscok and Mrs. Solomon Lomand of Channell, Newfoundland and Mrs. Elizabeth Hare, of North Sydney, one brother, Richard Cousins, of North Sydney also survives.

uary 3rd and was largely attended. The services were performed by Rev. Father Walsh of Alberta. The pallbearers were: James Byrne, John Kelly, John C. Wisner, William O'Brien, John J. Grimes and John Shea.
Requiescat in pace.

MR. JOHN MACLEOD
There passed away on January 3rd, after four days illness with pneumonia, Mr. John MacLeod, in his home at Commercial Cross, P. E. I., aged 66 years. The deceased was a man of kindly disposition, which endeared him to all who were privileged to make his acquaintance. That coupled with a sterling christian character, made his sojourn in this life radiant and helpful. As a citizen, Mr. MacLeod earned the admiration and respect of all who knew him. As a trustee in St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church, Montague, his services were held in the highest appreciation. As a friend, his presence and counsel were both an inspiration and a benediction.
This world is poorer when such a citizen passes on to his eternal reward but they leave behind an example that should be prized and valued much more than anything that life has to offer on this side the grave.
Our full sympathy goes out to the widow, brothers and sisters of the departed.
The funeral service which was conducted by Rev. Norman MacDonald and Rev. Allister Murray at the home of the deceased, was largely attended.
Mr. MacDonald based his address on the words from Psalm 97, 11, "Light is sown for the righteous." The Rev. Allister Murray took charge of the committal service in the cemetery at Caledonia.
Mr. MacLeod has left behind to mourn his loss besides his widow, his brothers, Messrs. Roderick, in Hyde Park, Mass., U. S. A.; Murdo and Alex, in Glen William, P. E. I.; and sisters, Mrs. Bear and Miss Katie McLeod in Moncton, N. B.; Mrs. Morrison in Philadelphia, U. S. A., and Mrs. Vurge, in Vancouver, B. C.
"The path of the just is as the shining light which shineth more and more until the perfect day."

ST. CATHERINES CHRISTMAS CONCERT
The pupils of St. Catherines School and the young people of the district staged a most interesting concert in St. Catherines Hall on Thursday evening, December 22nd. The hall was attractively decorated as befitted the season and in one corner of the stage stood a well-laden Christmas tree. After the programme was over Santa made his jovial appearance with a well-filled sack from which he distributed gifts and candy to the pupils. The teacher, Miss Marie Darrach, was very kindly remembered at this time by the pupils and young people.

SCOUTS HELP INDIAN CASTE PROBLEM
The important possibilities of Scouting for India were again reflected at a Hindu Scout conference in the Punjab. President Shri Ram Bajpai, referring to the 4th Scout Law—"A Scout is a friend to all and a brother to every other Scout"—declared its chief application for them was the uplift of the Untouchables. Hindu Scouts have for some years been working and mixing with low caste boys, ignoring previous rigid rules.

CROSS ROADS SCHOOL CONCERT
On Thursday evening, Dec. 22nd the pupils of Cross Roads School staged an unusually attractive concert in their prettily decorated school room. They were assisted by Mrs. M. W. Wood, Miss Hester Wood and Mr. Preston Wood, who, with Miss Helen Wood, contributed excellent orchestral music. The accompanist was Mrs. Earle Ballam and the chairman, Mr. F. S. Reeves. A special feature of the entertainment was the singing of Jolly Old St. Nicholas without an error and in a clear musical voice by Ralphie MacCallum, aged four years.

WHEATLEY RIVER, 2; MILTON, 1
The Wheatley River Stars went into the lead in the northern section of the Bethune League when they defeated the Milton Hornets 2 to 1 at Wheatley River rink on Saturday night. The game was keenly contested throughout. The Stars scored in the first and second periods while the Hornets scored their goal late in the third period.

Did Santa Laugh At This One?
Numerous letters to Santa Claus were this season addressed to Boy Scout toy repair shops. Many were written in touching terms from families in dire need. One to Regina struck the humorous note. It began: "Dear Satan."

Another Scoutmaster Bishop
The first bishop of the new Anglican diocese of Northern Saskatchewan, Bishop W. Burd, adds another trained Boy Scout leader to the roll of prominent churchmen. The Rt. Rev. John Lyons, Bishop of Ontario, was for some years an active Scoutmaster at Belleville, Ont.
