THE CENTRAL GUARDIAN

IT PAYS to buy in this Province. THE NORTHUMBERLAND.—The S. S. Northumberland arrived in Charlottetown at 8.05 last evening.

THE EXPRESS.—The express arrived in Charlottetown last night at 11.20.

MANY GUESTS.—Between thirty and forty guests took tea at the Forester House, Pownal, on Sunday evening, 7th inst.

RETURNED HOME.—After a three weeks' pleasant visit, Mrs. Frank Fisher, her mother Mrs. Towne, and Miss Mildred Miller, have returned to their home in Boston. While here they were the guests of the "Forester House," Pownal.

PAINFUL ACCIDENT.—Mr. Michael Murphy, Elmwood, met with a painful accident while returning home from a party a few nights ago. The horse took sudden fright, throwing out the occupants and causing painful injuries.

NEW BRIDGE.—The people of Hunter River are very much pleased with the new steel bridge, which has just been finished. It is situated at the north entrance to the village. Mr. Quinn, of Charlottetown, was in charge of the work.—H.

CAR OFF THE TRACK.—Yesterday a box car containing salt, belonging to No. 5 train, on its way to Cape Traverse left the track when this side of Hunter River. A wrecking train was summoned from Charlottetown and placed the car on the track again with no further damage than a two-hours delay.

SAMPLES OF WHEAT.—Yesterday The Guardian received a large bunch of wheat, samples taken from the East Queen's second prize field, which was reported some days ago, as owned by Mr. Joseph MacDonald, Vernon River Bridge. Mr. MacDonald expresses himself as well satisfied with the award and from the samples shown Mr. MacDonald has evidently solved the problem of wheat production.

BUSINESS MEETING.—Last evening a meeting of a number of the business men of this city who are interested in the manufacture of unshrinkable underwear was held in the city court room. A short discussion took place on this industry and the meeting was adjourned till this afternoon at 4 o'clock when the details of the enterprise will be fully entered upon. It is hoped that a large attendance will be present to hear the matter discussed.

HUNTER RIVER NOTES.—Hunter River has had the pleasure of greeting one of her esteemed and respected sons, Mr. James Jewell, Mr. Jewell arrived here yesterday from Great Falls, Montana, where he holds the responsible position of head of the fire department. The last two weeks he has spent in New York attending a meeting of the various fire departments of the States. Mr. Jewell, although well known by a large circle of friends and relatives, is rather a stranger to this country, he being absent from our land for the extended period of thirty years. He is at present visiting at Hartsville and Hunter River, where his brother, Mr. Hammond Jewell, and his sister, Mrs. James Vandierstine, reside.—H.

AUTOMOBILE OUTING.—The members of the choir of St. James' Church, Charlottetown, yesterday had an enjoyable automobile outing, for which they are indebted to a number of the motorists of the city. In the cars of Dr. Alley, Messrs. W. K. Rogers, G. E. Auld and G. MacDonald, the choir, twenty in number, about three o'clock in the afternoon left the city and were taken out to Mr. Mitchell's place at Stanhope, where they were entertained to a very recherche supper, which, after the invigorating and exhilarating run, was heartily enjoyed. Afterwards the choir treated their entertainers to a number of splendid musical items and with this and dancing the time was agreeably passed. The party returned to the city about eleven o'clock, after what was unanimously voted a jolly fine time.
