RETURN FROM HONEYMOON—Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Johnstone, Long Rivr, and Mr. and Mrs. George Rowatt, French Rivr, have returned home after spending their honeymoon in Massachusetts. While there they were guests of Mrs. Howatt's cousins, Col. and Mrs. W. H. Mobbs at their cottage, "The Abegweit," Ipswich. On the eve of their departure they were invited to the home of Col. and Mrs. Mobbs, where they were tendered a surprise shower. The dining room was beautifully decorated in yellow and white and two beautiful wedding cakes adorned the table. The guests of honor were seated on cushions on the floor where each couple opened and read the verses on their gifts. After all had been unwrapped and the many humorous verses read the recipients thanked the donors and assured a warm welcome awaited them on P. E. I. A dainty luncheon was served by the hostess assisted by several of the ladies present and the guests departed leaving many good wishes and Bon voyage.

Peters Road And Vicinity

Mrs. Edith McAulay of West Newbury, Mass., after a brief visit at the home of her son Mr. Raymond McAulay and her aunt Miss Grace Macdonald and other relatives and friends at Peters Road has returned to the U. S. On her return she was accompanied by Mrs. L. P. Butler, Peters Road, who will spend the winter months with her daughters and relatives in Massachusetts and other parts of the eastern States.

Mr. and Mrs. P. Buxton of Worcester, Mass., who have been located at their summer home, Murray River, for some time have recently returned to their home in Worcester. Mrs. Joan L. Macdonald, Peters Road, accompanied them on the return and will spend a short vacation with the Buxton family and other relatives and friends there.

The Schr. "Francis Cook," Capt. W. White, Murray Harbor having recently completed loading produce at Calhoun's wharf cleared for Canso, N. S.

The Schr. "Nedra L" purchased this season by Jenkins Gillis, Murray River, sailed from that port with a load of produce for New Glasgow, N. S., and having discharged there is again loading for that port, at this time of writing it may be interesting for residents of this locality and other parts of the province to learn that Mr. John Jenkins is in charge and though considerably on the advance side of 70 years has a steady hand and head. Mr. Jenkins followed the sea in his younger days, but has very little practice on the "wild and stormy sea" for many years. "So we feel like congratulating Capt. Jenkins for his pluck and seamanship.

Messrs. James and Charles Crawford, Mrs. A. G. Crawford, Roseneath, and Miss Gladys McKinnon, Brooklyn, motored to Peters Road where they spent a brief week-end visit at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Johnston and family and Mr. and Mrs. Willard McLean, Peters Road.

Mr. J. L. McKinnon, general merchant, Peters Road, has this season purchased two car loads of lambs from the farmers of this and the adjoining communities.

His many friends with The Guardian extend congratulations to Mr. William E. Thompson of Alliston, who attained his fortieth (40th) birthday on Sunday Oct. 31st. Mr. Thompson was born at Montague 1857 and is still going strong.

His friends are pleased to note that Mr. Joseph G. Jenkins Greek River, is around again as usual after his recent illness.

Mr. Gerald McCarron, city, paid a short business trip to Peters Road recently.
