Ruth Chatterton Surpasses In "The Rich Are Always With Us"

A new Ruth Chatterton flashed across the screen last night, when her latest picture, "The Rich Are Always With Us," which is her first National starring vehicle, had its premiere at the Capitol Theatre yesterday.

One cannot help being delighted and astonished that the creator of "Madame X" and Warwick Deering's "Sarah" can so vividly and accurately portray the poised and ultra-sophisticated leader of the "400" as Miss Chatterton does in this story of the reckless and idle rich of New York Paris and Palm Beach.

The story concerns one of the wealthiest women in the country, her marriage, subsequent loss of her husband to a debutante love pirate, and the ultimate happiness she finds with a handsome young author who had long been in love with her. The young author is portrayed by George Brent, a newcomer to the screen.

The background of the story is one of the smartest and wealthiest against which any screen story has been set. Gowns and settings are extremely elaborate and in the best of taste.

The large cast also includes Bette Davis, who appeared opposite George Arliss in "The Man Who Played God," Adrienne Dore, John Miljan, Mae Madison, John Wray, Robert Warwick, Virginia Hammond, Walter Walker and Burton Churchill.

help at this time. At the close of the meeting the choir held their regular practice.

Friends in Belfast and vicinity will be interested to learn that Rev. Dr. Malcolm James MacLeod formerly of Eldon and now pastor of The Collegiate Church of St. Nicholas, New York City, accompanied by Mrs. MacLeod is planning a trip to the Holy Land. Dr. MacLeod and family always spend their vacation at their summer home in Eldon and no doubt his return will be looked forward to this coming summer with more than ordinary interest and his friends will hear many interesting things about his wonderful trip.

The Ladies and Gentlemen who attended the parlor social held recently at the home of Mrs. M. A. MacLeod under the auspices of the Women's Institute all voice the opinion that the evening was "one of the best" in every way. The financial part was also highly satisfactory to those interested as the ladies report reaching their objective and over. The guests were kept constantly on the move during the evening with a variety of games so that when a dainty lunch arrived all did ample justice to same. After lunch a real good sing song was taken part in by all and home time came all too soon.

The evening service on New Year's Day in St. John's Presbyterian Church was conducted by the Young Peoples Society and a good crowd was out. The leader for the evening was Miss Catherine Buchanan. Topic New Year's Facing Life Gallantly. The President Mr. Sam Buchanan was in the chair. Mrs. MacEachern was organist in the absence of Miss MacRae. As this was a special Sunday meeting no business was done. The announcements being about the week of prayer. All hope to have the pastor day. Take to the service next Sunday.

The Week of Prayer services opened on Monday night, Jan. 2, in the United Church at Eldon. The pastor Rev. J. R. Skinner presided and gave a very stirring address on "The consecration of home life." On Tuesday night the service was held in St. John's Presbyterian Church and it was another splendid meeting. The topic on that evening was "The consecration of the Church" and powerful addresses

The regular weekly meeting of St. John's Y.P.S.C.E. was held in the church hall on Thursday, Dec. 29 with a good attendance. The President Mr. Sam Buchanan presided. The leader for the evening was Mrs. Mabel MacEachern. The topic was missionary work in Jhansi. The leader gave a splendid reading on Jhansi describing its location and also giving several items of interest about it, also a short talk taking for her theme "Go ye into all the world." There was a splendid response from the other members present. The business part was mainly financial and was all attended to in due form. The announcement about the week of prayer was given. A request from the pastor was given also that if the Y.P.S. would take one of the services on New Year's Day, Mr. Dave Griffiths would take the other. This was pleasing to all present and the people are all grateful to Mr. Dave Griffiths for his

The unusually large audience that greeted Mr. O. Radke in Flat River hall on Wednesday evening, Jan. 4th when he attempted to give an address "The cause and cure of present world conditions" is a splendid evidence that the people in this part of our beloved Dominion of Canada are truly British to the core, loyal to His Majesty, King George, and are prepared to protect the grand old Union Jack any time the occasion demands it. The hall was packed and stand-up room was at a premium and the perfect order that prevailed, the good hearing given the speaker is another sign of British fair play. There was no chairman. In his opening remarks Mr. Radke expressed surprise at seeing so many present. In the course of the evening he gave a couple of rather amusing raps at Rt. Hon. R. B. were given by both Rev. D. L. Griffiths and Rev. J. R. Skinner. Wednesday evening service was in the United Church with the pastor in charge. He read a message from Mr. Griffiths containing regrets at not being able to be present as he is still not in the best of health and the service on the previous evening was a great strain on him. Mr. Skinner gave a very instructive and interesting address on "The consecration of our business and industries" a joint choir was in attendance and gave pleasing results. A solo "The bird with the broken wing" sung by Mrs. Angus Murchison was another addition to the service. The closing service of the week of prayer was held in St. John's Presbyterian Church on Thursday evening and was a fitting climax to a very wonderful week. There was a good crowd present but had the roads been frozen earlier in the evening no doubt the audience would have been much larger. Rev. D. L. Griffiths in splendid shape after his recent indisposition presided and delivered a wonderful address on the evening topic "The consecration of our community life." He was assisted by Rev. J. R. Skinner who also dealt ably with the topic. A splendid choir was in attendance and added greatly to the spirit of worship through song. The meetings of the week were certainly blessed with wonderful weather and as a result of these beautiful services we trust the Home Church business and industrial and community life will have received something that will stay by each and help spiritually and materially through 1933.

The weather during Christmas week was almost ideal. The weather forecast for December being carried out almost to the letter. We all hope that January will continue in the good work and as Mr. Sun begins to get stronger from now on we will have Spring before we know it.

The schools are all reopening this week after the Christmas holidays all hope teachers and pupils are ready for good work and good results at the end of the term.

Good reports come from Mrs. Malcolm MacKenzie, Vancouver, who has been seriously ill and will be pleasant news for her family and many friends in Belfast and vicinity.

Friends of Mr. Donald Neil Murchison, son of Mrs. Mary Murchison, Pinette will be pleased to learn that he is rapidly recovering from his recent operation for appendicitis in the U.S.A.

Mr. and Mrs. J. J. MacDonald, Pinette arrived home after spending Christmas in Moncton. On the way back Mrs. MacDonald visited her niece Mrs. F. S. Reeves, Cross Roads.

ally assisted by referring to a large bundle of issues of our local contemporary. At the close he thanked the audience and instantly the National Anthem was started led by Mr. Hugh MacPherson and it is safe to say that never before was it ever sung in Flat River hall with more feeling and enthusiasm—H

O'Leary and Vicinity

A number of people are still using their cars, and report the O'Leary Road in excellent condition.

An interesting school concert was held in Milo Hall on Dec. 21 which reflects much credit on the teacher, Miss Roberta McWilliams and pupils of Milo School District. An excellent programme was presented after which Santa Clause appeared and unloaded the large Christmas tree of its numerous gifts for children and teacher, and after wishing everyone a Merry Christmas proceeded on his way.

Mr. W. N. McWilliams, West Cape, was disappointed recently to find that his wild geese had strayed from the "bird sanctuary" on his property there, where a large number of ducks and geese congregate and are fed by the owner. Mr. McWilliams was fortunate in finding the geese later on.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilbert Waite (nee Ruby Currie) are being showered with congratulations upon the occasion of their marriage, which was solemnized at the Springfield Parsonage on Dec. 20 by the Rev. John Stirling.

The semi-annual examination of Dunblane School was held there on Dec. 22. An interesting programme was presented by the pupils in connection with the examination of the different classes, which showed the untiring efforts of the teacher, Mr. Elwood McPherson on behalf of the pupils in which he has the hearty co-operation and appreciation of both pupils and parents. Mr. Percy McPherson ably presided as chairman. At the close "Santa" appeared and relieved a gorgeous Christmas tree of its many presents for teacher and pupils, after which everyone was treated to sweets. Following is the programme: Recitation, Welcome by Doris McPherson and drill, Christmas Hymns by eight girls; Recitation, A Puzzle in Names, by Ada McIsaac; Recitation The Legend of Babousai by Bessie Boulter; Recitation The Turtle by Calvin Hart; Recitation, The School Girl's Trouble, by Louise Livingstone; Recitation Louise Must be Tied To Night, by Florence Hart; Recitation, My strong white teeth, by Florence Hart; Recitation The Christmas Birthday, by Jessie McPherson; Recitation, The Dream, by Mary Bulger; Recitation, To Night by Lorna McIsaac; A Health Play "Santa's Helpers" by members of Junior Red Cross; Christmas Remembrances by Santa Clause.

The many friends of Miss Beatrice Campbell of Milo are pleased to see her home again after undergoing a successful operation in Prince County Hospital.

Miss Olive Adams teacher of Springfield, is spending her Christmas holidays with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Adams, Lot 16.

Mrs. E. H. Strong Summerside was a guest over Christmas of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Wilkinson, Springfield West.

Miss Roberta McWilliams teacher in Milo is spending her holidays at her home in West Cape.

Mrs. Ruth Campbell spent her holidays with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Campbell, Milo.

CENTRAL GUARDIAN

FINE CALENDAR—The Guardian has received with thanks a Maritime Life calendar, Messrs. Williams and Bentley Ltd., being the Charlottetown agents.

MOTORED TO MURRAY HARBOR—Mr. and Mrs. Harold Beaton, of Alexandria, motored to Murray Harbor yesterday and returned the same day.

HOME FOR BURIAL—The funeral of the late Miss Annie MacKenzie who passed away in Cambridge, Mass., on Jan. 6th, will take place on Thursday, Jan. 12th from the residence of her nephew, Mr. Ralph MacKenzie, Belle River. Service at 1 o'clock p. m.

RECOVERING—The many friends of Mr. M. G. Crockett, 250 Grafton Street, will be pleased to learn that he has returned home from the P. E. I. Hospital, where he was being treated for a fractured leg.

VERGE-BROWN—Rev. Dr. Donaldson officiated at the marriage, Tuesday evening of Thomas L. Verge, employee of the C. N. R. at Charlottetown, P. E. I., and Miss Vera Madeline, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Brown of Halifax. The ceremony was performed at the residence of the parents of the bridegroom, Mr. and Mrs. H. K. Verge, 169 Windsor Street. The bride wore a hat to correspond. She carried a shower bouquet of carnations. She was given away by Miss Annie Sutherland, and was attended by Miss Bertha A. Robar, who wore green crepe with hat to match. The groom was supported by his brother, K. K. Verge, Jr. A large number of friends and relatives were present, and after the ceremony a reception was held. The couple left this morning for Charlottetown, where they will reside.—Halifax Herald.

WEDDING BELLS—A very pretty marriage was solemnized in St. Michael's Church, Boston, on December 21st, when Catherine, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. James McPhee, was united in the Holy Bonds of Matrimony to Mr. Reginald McDonald, of Souris, son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Alex. S. McDonald, of Little Pond, P. E. I. The bride was attended by Miss Nellie McDonald, of Boston, and the groom by Mr. Neil McCormack, of Little Pond, P. E. I., who came to Boston especially for the occasion. The bride was becomingly attired in a manila brown suit with accessories to match. The bridesmaid was similarly attired. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Father O'Brien, cousin of the groom. A wedding breakfast was served at the home of the bride's aunt, Mrs. Francis Keenan. Thirty guests were in attendance. The happy couple left on a trip through the New England States. Many and costly presents were received. The bride was the recipient of many useful articles at several social functions held in her honor. We understand that Mr. and Mrs. McDonald intend residing in Souris, P. E. I., where Mr. McDonald has purchased a very nice property. The Guardian joins with their many friends in wishing Mr. and Mrs. McDonald many years of wedded bliss.

Mr. Ian Stirling teacher at Elmsdale was a guest over the holidays of his parents, Rev. John Stirling and Mrs. Stirling, Springfield West.

Mr. J. Maynard Hayward, O'Leary was a guest Christmas of Mr. and Mrs. R. E. England, Springfield.

Mr. West Glanning, O'Leary has left for his home in River Herbert, where he spent his Christmas holidays.

Mr. Robert Milligan, Milo was a recent visitor to Springfield.

Miss Jennie Morehead, Springfield West, has returned home from a pleasant visit at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Brooks, O'Leary.

A number of young men from O'Leary attended the Springfield Christmas concert, and we understand that one unfortunately was too late for the "Bus" and was obliged to do a "marathon" in the "wee sma' hours."

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Lidstone spent Christmas as guests of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Barwise, Springfield West.

Mr. and Mrs. Oplin McNevin, Milo, were recent visitors to Millburn.

Mr. Oliver Howe, O'Leary Road was a guest recently of Mr. Alvin Coston, Cape Wolfe.

POLICE COURT

The defendant in a Prohibition case at the Police Court yesterday morning was fined $200 or 3 months.

STUDY GROUP MEETS—The Teachers' Study Group held its last full meeting in Queen School on Dec. 17th. In the absence of the President, the Vice-president, Mr. MacBeath presided. Supervisor Court reviewed the work of the previous meeting and took up some paragraph work that could be used in the schools. Supervisor MacPhail emphasized the value of the dictionary in school work and recommended as a dictionary for the children, the Highroads dictionary. The questions from the question box were answered satisfactorily, after which the meeting adjourned.

STUDY CLASS—The last meeting of the Mount Stewart Study Group was held in the school on Thursday, December 15, with an attendance of eight teachers. The president, Miss Irving, called the meeting to order. The minutes of the last meeting were read and adopted. Annie MacDonald was appointed on the press committee for this month. Several exercises arranged by Mr. Court were taken part in by the teachers. Paragraph arrangement was also discussed by all present. The next meeting will take place some time in the spring.

PERSONALS

Mr. J. J. Chaisson of Tignish came to the city yesterday.

The many friends of Mr. James Alder, Hillsboro Street, are pleased to see him out walking again after his recent indisposition, which kept him in the house for several months.

IN MEMORIAM

CYRIL A. MORRISON SR.

At Savage Harbor, Dec. 24th, as the hush of Christmas Eve was descending upon the land, the soul of Cyril Morrison passed to its eternal reward.

He was born at Savage Harbor seventy years ago, but while still almost a youth he went to the United States where in Maine and New Hampshire he engaged in the lumbering industry. He was employed successively with the Mason and Cushman Company, Cushman, Van Dykes, and in later years was a shareholder in the Johnston Lumber Company. After the dissolution of the latter company he still followed the same industry until about ten years ago when ill-health forced him to retire. He returned to his old home in Savage Harbor, where he regained in a measure his former good health. He was able to work about the farm until last October when he was stricken with the illness which terminated in his death.

Left to mourn his passing are three brothers: Rt. Rev. James Morrison, Bishop of Antigonish; Allan of Savage Harbor, and John of New York; his aged step-mother, three step-brothers, Rev. Vincent Morrison of Chuchow, China; Stephen of Savage Harbor, Peter of Orono, Me., and one sister, Mary, who tenderly nursed him during his last illness. Another brother, Rev. Dr. F. X. Morrison of Oakland, Calif., predeceased him several years ago.

Many relatives and friends in this city and province will deeply regret the death of Mrs. James A. Alley, who quietly passed away in Toronto on the 5th inst. at the home of her son Brenton P. Alley in the 90th year of her age.

Mrs. Alley had been in her usual good health within a few weeks of her passing, being able to read, write and sew up to two months ago, when she sustained an injury to her shoulder and arm through an accident in her home.

She had been married twice, first in 1869 to Rev. William Hunt, a Bible Christian minister, who died not long after, and later in 1880 to Mr. Alley, who also predeceased her some twelve years ago, while they were living in Saskatchewan.

For a number of years Mr. and Mrs. Alley made their home in Carleton Place, where Mr. Alley ran a saw mill, later coming to Charlottetown, where they both made many friends.

She leaves to mourn an only son as above mentioned, Mr. Brenton P. Alley, assistant general manager of the Canadian Bank of Commerce, head office, Toronto, and also an only brother, Mr. William Sells of this city, to whom sincere sympathy will be extended.

Jesus at the tender age of 7 years and 4 months on Nov. 21st, 1932. Attacked with Bright's disease, she only stood it three months and four days. But through it all and despite great suffering at times she was an ideal patient. She bore her trouble with beautiful, quiet fortitude, as if given the child direct from heaven by a gracious heavenly Father whom she implicitly trusted and passively obeyed. Her expressions of clear, direct, childlike faith in Jesus Christ as her Redeemer was inspiring to hear, reminding us of "And He took them up in His arms, put His hands upon them and blessed them... for of such is the Kingdom of God."

Known at home, at school and all around as "Elaine," she showed signs of being a very precocious child and gave promise of growing into a bright, smart scholar. At last year's Christmas examination she impressed all present as being a clever young scholar, in her own quiet, unostentatious way. Young Elaine, now "asleep in Jesus, blessed sleep," may be calling on us to think that God in His mysterious and unerring wisdom took her out of this sin laden world to escape its temptations and taints, to Himself to be in His safe keeping forever more, in the bright and better world of angels and saints, washed in the blood of the Lamb who we believe she was. Young Elaine scarcely remembered her mother, but she is mourned by her father, two brothers, Ivan and Elmer, two sisters, Helen and Anna, and a stepmother who showed her great kindness and nursed her with tender, constant and capable devotion to the very last. The bearers were Messrs James and Beaton Stewart, John McLean, J. N. McPherson, A. McPhee and W. R. McPhee. The funeral services at the home and grave were conducted by her minister, the Rev. Allister Murray. The interment was in Caledonia Cemetery. This community as a whole feels grieved for the bereaved father and his family and hereby extend to them their heartfelt sympathy and pray that the God of all consolation may comfort their hearts.

(Patriot please copy) JAMES MCAULAY

James McAulay departed this life at his home in Lewis, Caledonia, Dec. 9, 1932, at the ripe old age of 86 years. Farming, he led a busy life. He was blessed with a strong physical constitution. In failing health for some time he became seriously ill the last 5 or 6 weeks of his life. Mr. McAulay was of a quiet, unassuming and inoffensive disposition. Intelligent and well read yet he did not seek a foward or prominent place in any matter. His words were few but well weighed and seasoned with the grace of charity and good will to everybody. But while he was a man of few words we believe not so of thoughts. He forcibly reminded us of the word of the Lord through Micah, "He hath showed thee O man, what is good, and what doth the Lord require of thee but to do justly and to love mercy and to walk humbly with thy God." We believe Mr. McAulay by the grace of God strove hard to fashion his whole life by the teaching of this scripture truth. In short Mr. McAulay impressed us as a man of sterling worth. He built on the rock and that rock is Christ, as he assured his beloved wife a week or two before he went home. "Don't worry about me. I am on the rock. I am going and you will join me by and by. His last hours were glorious to behold. This is the victory that overcometh the world, even our faith. We can't say too much about James McAulay. Would to God we had many like him, but time and space won't permit. He leaves to mourn a saintly husband and father, his wife, Kenneth in Chicago, David in Codette, Sask., Mrs. Florence McDonald, Westville,

Advertising Backbone Of Industry

London, Ontario, January 5.—Having proved that volume in business could be obtained throughout 1932, the Kellogg Company of Canada, Limited, London, has completed plans to make 1933 another satisfactory year, according to W. K. Kellogg, founder and president of the cereal manufacturing firm.

"Early in 1932," said Mr. Kellogg, "we determined upon an aggressive merchandising and advertising effort on a nation-wide scale to keep our plants in full operation. To this end we undertook the largest advertising campaign in the Company's history. As a result our plants have operated full time throughout most of the year, with employment at the highest peak ever recorded."

"We are now entering 1933 with all our plans made to carry on with our merchandising and advertising activities upon the same scope and basis. Again we hope to give the retailer every possible assistance in increasing his sales of Kellogg products. Again we hope to keep all of our people employed."

"We have proved that, in our line of business, the aggressive use of newspaper advertising is a most effective means of producing results—even in times like these.

"So for 1933, our plans are to continue with newspapers as the backbone of our promotional efforts. Newspapers not only give the intensive, aggressive coverage we need, but their flexibility, and splendid co-operation with our men in the field, enable us to take full advantage of every local possibility. This is a factor of great importance."

The year just ended marked the second anniversary of the adoption by the Kellogg Company of Battle Creek of the six-hour day working shift. The change from three shifts of eight hours each to four shifts of six hours, was made on December 1, 1930. More than 400 permanent new jobs were created. Hourly wage rates were increased to give employees the same purchasing power as in 1928.

At the present time the Kellogg six-hour system is being closely studied as an instance of what the shorter working day in industry can be expected to contribute toward the solution of the current unemployment problem.

N. S., Mrs. Annie Stewart, Lewis, Cal., Miss Margaret, Calgary Don at home, James D. Wallace, Chicago, grandson; one sister, Mrs. Kate Schurman, New Hampshire. The bearers were Messrs. Murdo Gillis, James McDonald, J. E. Purchase, J. McBeth, Charles McLean, James McLean. Mr. McAulay was a loyal member of the Presbyterian Church in Canada in full fellowship with the Caledonia congregation for many years.

His minister, Rev. Allister Murray, who visited him in his life and the days before he slept in Christ, performed the funeral services at the home and grave in Caledonia Cemetery.

Stubborn Coughs Ended by Recipe, Mixed at Home

Saves $2. No Cooking! So Easy!

Here is the famous old recipe which millions of housewives have found to be the most dependable means of breaking up stubborn coughs. It takes but a moment to prepare, and costs very little, but it positively has no equal for quick, lasting relief.

From any drugstore, get 2 1/2 ounces of Pinex. Pour this into a 16 oz. bottle and fill the bottle with granulated sugar syrup, made with 2 cups of sugar and one cup of water, stirred a few moments until dissolved. No cooking needed—it's so easy! Thus you make 16 ounces of better remedy than you could buy ready-made for three times the cost. It never spoils and children love its taste.

This simple mixture soothes and heals the inflamed throat membranes with surprising ease. It loosens the germ-laden phlegm and eases chest soreness in a way that is really astonishing. Pinex is a highly concentrated compound of Norway Pine, the most reliable healing agent for severe coughs. It is guaranteed to give prompt relief as money refunded.
