MURDERER STILL AT LARGE.

WINNIPEG, Man., Oct. 9.—Solomon Rose, the Lampman storekeeper wanted by the police for the death of William McLeod of Halifax, whose skull Rose is alleged to have broken with a hammer, is still at large. When the death of McLeod seemed inevitable Rose left the district with a livery team and has not been seen since.

Today the team was recovered at Flaxton, N. D., where it had been abandoned by the fugitive. Rose who speaks with a pronounced Jewish accent, especially when excited, is of a heavy build, weighs 220 pounds, height 5 feet 10 inches, fresh complexion, dark hair and no beard.

Mrs. Rose who was married in February last, in Brandon, has returned to that city and is supposed to be staying with friends there.

1,200 AMERICAN GREEKS SAIL FOR HOME.

PROVIDENCE, R. I., Oct. 9.—Singing their native war songs nearly 1,200 Greeks sailed from here today on the steamer Madonna to fight for their country if war should be declared. The Greeks came from various parts of New England and New York. The Madonna left behind several hundred men who could not be accommodated.

SHOT HIMSELF.

FREDERICTON, Oct. 9.—Henry Myesgrall, traveller for J. L. Nicholls & Co., of Toronto, shot himself in Lemuel Brewer's boarding house here this afternoon. The bullet lodged near his heart. He was taken to the hospital, where he is now under the care of two doctors, and is out of danger. It is believed the shooting was accidental. He is a son of Frank Maryshall, Kingsclear.

Every workingman in Charlottetown will do well to see the stock of shirts, overalls, suits and and overcoats and heavy working pants at Patons

BOUNDARY PARTY BACK FROM THE WILDS.

SKAGWAY, Alaska, Oct. 8.—Thomas Riggs, chief of the United States boundary survey party, which completed this year the marking of the line, dividing Alaska and Canada, left here with his party, for Seattle yesterday.

"We left Seattle April 29th, with twenty-six men and thirty-five horses," said Riggs. "At Coffey Creek, on the Yukon River, we picked up forty-two more horses, which had wintered at the head of the White River, and on May 25th we landed at Rampart House, on the Porcupine River, sixty-five miles north of the Arctic Circle. J. B. Craig, chief of the Canadian Party, with a similar outfit, had joined us at White Horse, Yukon. By using Old Crow River as a base, supplies were carried by water to within twenty-five miles of the Arctic Ocean."

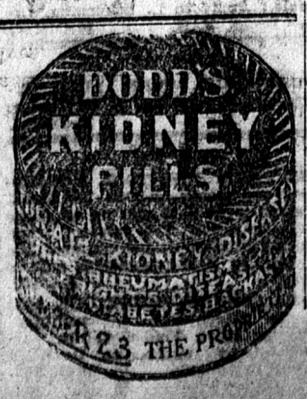
CHURCH WALL FALLS AND KILLS WORKMAN.

TORONTO, Oct. 9.—James Doble, a contractor, of 24 Saunders avenue, was killed by the collapse of a wall of the old Baptist church, Queen street and Lansdowne avenue, today. Several workmen engaged in removing the structure were caught in the fall of the wall and badly injured. Doble was caught in the wreckage and died two hours later in the Western hospital.

The upper part of the building, which was erected in 1888, was being demolished to make way for the erection of the new Parkdale assembly hall on the old foundation. An inquest will be held.



The man who wants something that is just right in a sweater coat will find it in our men's store number 119 Queen street. There are sweater coats of all sizes there for you from 85c. to $5.50
