Prince Edward

Franchot Tone— Loretta Young At Prince Edward

Loretta Young and Franchot Tone form a delightful new romantic screen team in "The Unguarded Hour," now showing at the Prince Edward Theatre.

The new picture, filled with romance, drama and mystery, gives both players an excellent opportunity for their talents.

Moving with lightning speed, the Lawrence Weingarten production concerns a prosecuting attorney who sends men to their doom by his brilliant use of circumstantial evidence. When he is caught by circumstances for a crime he has not committed his wife comes to his aid to save his life.

Both Tone and Miss Young are outstanding in their respective roles as the attorney and the wife.

Roland Young, as the friend of the family, is exceedingly funny while Lewis Stone is sterling as the head of Scotland Yard.

Others who score in the mystery thriller, directed by Sam Wood, are Robert Greig, Dudley Digges, Jessie Ralph, Aileen Pringle and Henry Daniell.

For real screen entertainment you can't miss on "The Unguarded Hour."

Ann Shirley In "M'liss" At Capitol

The atmosphere of California's gold-mining towns in the Seventies envelops a story of a young girl's stormy first meeting with romance, in the Anne Shirley-John Beal co-starring picture, "M'liss."

An adaptation of Bret Harte's widely read short story, this picture gives Miss Shirley an assignment similar in key to her "Anne of Green Gables" and "Chatterbox," presenting her as a naive seventeen-year-old girl who is suddenly and excitingly swept into womanhood by the love of a young school teacher, the John Beal role.

While in the underlying mood of the film is serious, and the nature of the era it re-creates is pregnant with tragedy and excitement, it is nevertheless colored with homely comedy—chiefly contributed by Guy Kibbee in the role of M'liss' constantly and melodiously inebriated father.

Moroni Olsen, Douglas Dumbrille, and Frank M. Thomas are seen respectively as a vast saloon keeper, a professional gambler, and a barber acting as unofficial but very effective protectors and guardians of the young girl, whose wild independence keeps her in constant hot water, while her loveliness stirs trouble.

PRAYER WEEK SERVICES OPEN LAST EVENING

Overflow Congregation Attends Meeting At Central Christian Church — Address By Rev. H. D. Raymond.

Last evening an overflow congregation met in Central Christian Church at the first of the services being held under the auspices of the World Evangelical Alliance. These services are held throughout the world at this season of the year and in the past have always attracted large numbers with a marked quickening in the spiritual life of those attending ensuing. It is confidently anticipated that this year will prove no exception, especially after the splendid beginning that was made last evening.

Those on the platform and taking part in the service were: Rev. S. C. Cooper, pastor of Central Christian Church, who was Chairman; Rev. Hugh Miller, who gave the Invocation; Rev. H. L. Denton led the Responsive Reading; Rev. A. E. MacKenzie led in prayer; Dr. Legate read the Scripture Lesson; Adjutant Lynch also led in prayer while Rev. G. C. Webster pronounced the Benediction. Rev. George Gillespie who is to give the address on Saturday evening was also on the platform.

Following the offering a men's trio, consisting of Messrs. Sterns, Quigley and Dingwell beautifully and effectively sang "Sunset and Evening Star."

The address of the evening was delivered by Rev. H. D. Raymond, Rector of St. Paul's Anglican Church. His subject was "The Call of the Gospel" and he began by telling the story of the origin of the word "Gospel"—How in the early days of our English language spell was the name for story—there were a great variety of stories but some were about Jesus Christ and about God. These were called "Godspells", and after the habit of things that are handed on from generation to generation, this was changed by dropping the "d" so that we have the word "Gospel", story of God.

This Gospel of God is very simple but it is also very dear. The "Call of the Gospel" indicates that it had a voice and that there are ears to hear. It has a voice and this voice brings definite messages:—First of all, that God loves us—God loves me—and proof is furnished in that God sent His own Son that "whosover believeth in Him, should not persh, but have everlasting life." This Gospel also tells us that God forgives us. God forgives me—and how much each one of us needs forgiveness. This Gospel also makes of us all—one family. The prayer Jesus taught His disciples was not "My Father who art in heaven," but "Our Father", "Give us this day", and so on. We are members of one family with God the Father through Jesus Christ His Son. Finally it is the nature of news that it must be spread abroad—News—N-E-W-S, North, east, west, south—"Go ye into all the world and preach the Gospel to every creature." This is the call of the Gospel.

Mr. Raymond's message was great in its simplicity, yet its depth of truth and meaning and was a most fitting beginning for the series of meetings upon which we have now entered.

The next service is to be held this evening in St. Paul's Church when Rev. Hugh Miller will be the speaker, and his subject is "The Gospel of Grace and Forgiveness."

LEAVES FOR HOSPITAL TRAINING — Miss Katherine Hyndman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Hyndman, leaves this morning for Montreal to enter the Royal Victoria Hospital for training. She is being accompanied to Montreal by her brother, Charles, who is returning to resume his studies at Queen's University, Kingston.

ESCAPES DROWNING—Bernard O'Brien, 10, was reported last night, as "improving" following a ducking in the waters of St. Peter's Lake when he broke through thin ice New Year's Day. He is a son of Mr. John R. O'Brien, Bristol, P. E. I. His cries for help were heard by Mr. Lester McVarish, mail driver, who threw him a rope and fastened it to the shore while he went almost half a mile to the house of Horace McEwen for help. Taken from the icy water and removed to the home of McEwen, the boy was unable to speak for almost two hours.

POLICE COURT—At the police court yesterday four young men, charged with taking a motor vehicle without the owner's consent, were remanded until today. The men were arrested following the theft of Mr. Elmer Sharbell's car last week. Two arrests were made the night the car disappeared and two the next day. The car was recovered by city police less than two hours after it had been taken from where it was parked on Kent street.

SCHOOL BOARD MEETS — At the regular meeting of the City School Board yesterday the resignation of Miss Ruth Cairns from the teaching staff of Rochford Square School was accepted and the vacancy filled by the appointment of Miss Mary Mullally. The Board received a report telling that stairways, providing an additional exit from the assembly halls of Prince Street and West Kent schools, had been completed. Routine business was transacted at the meeting, presided over by the Board chairman, Dr. I. J. Yeo.

CHRISTMAS AT THE SANATORIUM—The Provincial Sanatorium was gayly attired on Christmas eve as patients and staff awaited the annual visitation of Santa Claus. Draped in holiday red and green with the glow of the fireplace reflected in the glittering tinsel the beautiful main reception room made a brilliant picture. Multi-colored lights shone from every branch of the imposing Christmas tree. Parcels and gift boxes piled high alongside indicated that no one was forgotten by the jolly old Saint. Dr. Creelman presided and Santa Claus, whose role was cleverly enacted by Dr. Keeping, arrived at the appointed time and distributed the gifts. Christmas carols were sung by Miss Berna Heustis, with piano accompaniment by Miss Rena Wood, a part of the evening's entertainment much enjoyed by the patients.

Y.M.C.A. Directors Discuss Problems Of Association

Mr. E.L. Miles was made a member of the board of directors of the Y. M. C. A. at the regular board meeting last night. Mr. Miles' appointment fills a vacancy created by the resignation last month of Mr. C. M. Williams, who was forced through the press of business to retire from the board.

Mr. J. W. Boulter was appointed representative of the local Association on the Canadian Y. M. C. A. National Council for 1937.

The treasurer, Mr. W. M. Rowe, announced that $550 have been raised as part of a fund to provide for emergency repairs to the building. The objective is $750 he said. Dealing with the general financial condition of the organization he announced it was about the same as it was in January last year.

Projects for the raising of funds at the present time are to provide for the amount, $600, the Association was below the objective in the last financial campaign. An expanding program is calling for an increased expenditure which makes the extra funds necessary, it was stated.

Mr. G. Claude Smith, president of the Y's Men's Club outlined plans for an auction sale which his club plans to hold shortly in behalf of the Association. Individual members of the board of directors pledged their support.

Preliminary plans in connection with the annual financial campaign in April were discussed.

An entertainment, under the auspices of the ladies advisory committee, will be held the third week in February the board was told. The committee, under the chairmanship of Miss Ina Gillan, has under its supervision the work Miss Worthy is doing with women and girls.

In place of the amateur dramatics presented by the board for the past few years a picture at the Prince Edward Theatre will be sponsored on January 25-27, it was decided.

Dr. J. A. Clark, J. W. Boulter and J. M. MacFadyen were appointed to attend a conference with the Ministerial Association and representatives of the Students' Christian Movement to discuss the Sunday evening song services. The services are held jointly by the churches, the Y.M.C.A. and the S. C. M.

FUNERAL SERVICES—The funeral of Mr. Wm. Henderson was held on Saturday afternoon from the N. D. McLean Funeral Home to the People's Cemetery, service at the Home and grave being conducted by Rev. Dr. Moorhead Legate. The pall bearers were: Prof. Patterson, Messrs M. Welsh, Geo. Smith, John Connors, Maurice O'Halloran and S. A. McLeod. Mr. J. S. Sutherland, Ottawa, a nephew and Mrs. Robinson, Iowa, a niece, were present at the funeral.

AT GYRO—The weekly dinner meeting of the Gyro Club last night was devoted to business with the president, Dr. B. C. Keeping, in the chair. The returns from the Christmas tuberculosis seals sale although incomplete indicate that sales exceeded any previous year. The committee in charge of the Christmas trees at the two orphanages brought in a report. Routine reports were submitted by committee chairmen.
