In Memoriam

MR. LAWRENCE HENNESSY

The death occurred Sunday night in the City Hospital of Mr. Lawrence Hennessey, well-known coal merchant of this city.

The late Mr. Hennessey who was in his 51st year, had not enjoyed good health for the past three years, but he had been attending to his business until Wednesday of last week.

The deceased was a member of the Charlottetown Council of the Knights of Columbus and the Holy Redeemer Holy Name Society. He was a charter member of the Maritime Credit Union Ltd., having served on the first loan committee of that organization back in 1936. The late Mr. Hennessey was an ardent follower of horse racing, having at one time owned the speedy "Hush" which performed so well on local tracks.

He is survived by his wife formerly Katherine Cosiello, and ten children. The children are Mary, Katherine (Mrs. Anthony Dolron), Margaret (Mrs. Maurice Hughes), Anna, Shirley, Bernadine, Rowlie, Maurice, Lorne and Ray, three brothers, Walter, William and . . .

School Committee, Mrs. Emery Linkletter (re-elected for 1 month), Programme Committee, Mrs. Albert Linkletter, Mrs. Emery Linkletter (re-elected for 1 month). Mrs. Walter Schurman kindly invited the members to her home for the December meeting. Meeting closed with the National Anthem. A delicious lunch was served by the hostess and committee in charge.

NEW DELHI — (CP) — A scheme for municipal self-government, whereby each village will have an assembly with every adult, man and woman, in its membership, has been announced by Dr. K. N. Katju minister for development in the United Provinces.

Do You Eat Too Much Rich Food?

Most People Do and Pay the Penalty! Authorities that would feel better and be healthier if we ate far less, particularly rich, fatty foods. Overeating, plus lack of exercise, often leads to an overloaded system—a dull, always tired feeling, and eventual "middle-age spread."

By taking gentle, all-vegetable Bile Beans nightly, many keep in trim despite a love for rich food. Bile Beans are so helpful to people who want to be youthful and active that over 7 million boxes were used last year. Ask your druggist for BILE BEANS—the British remedy that "Wakes Up Nature."

LORNE ADOLPHUS KEAYS

"In the midst of Life we are in Death."

Such was the case of the above, who passed away at his home on Souris Line Road on September 30, after a brief illness, at the early age of fifteen years.

The deceased had been enjoying good health, when he was stricken with the dread disease of Polio and despite the best local care and tender nursing could do, he passed away on the above date.

"Lorne" was a boy of a very lovable disposition, always alert, deeply interested in all his work and will be sadly missed by his sorrowing parents, brothers and sisters.

During his sickness he was visited by Rev. P. A. Murnaghan, who administered to him the last rites of the Holy Catholic Church, of which he was a devout member.

There are left to mourn the sad loss of a loving son and brother, his parents, also six brothers, namely: Allan, Wendell, Byron, James, Elmer and Gerald, and five sisters: Mary, Dorothy, Anne, Henrietta and Katherine.

His funeral under the direction of Mr. Sterling Dingwell, to St. Mary's Cemetery, Souris, was well attended, services at the grave being conducted by Rev. P. A. Murnaghan assisted by Rev. Leonard MacKenna.

His pall bearers were: Hugh MacAulay, Joseph A. MacAulay, Donald MacDonald, Peter MacAulay. May his soul rest in peace.

"BLOOD ON THE SUN" UNMASKS JAP INFAMY

Violence, bloodshed, and infamy — Jap variety — ran riot on the Capitol screen last night, as an enthralled and at times enraged audience viewed the tense drama "Blood on the Sun," latest of James Cagney's starling releases by United Artists. This is only the fourth, and by far the most arresting, film with a Japanese background to come out of Hollywood since Pearl Harbor.

More than sincere propaganda, more than revealing history, more than absorbing drama, Producer William Cagney's sensational film story of an American newspaperman's discovery of the evil Tanaka Memorial — 1928 Nip plan for world conquest — is a memorable screen document.

Its further unveiling of Jap per-

They will make you fighting mad at the Nips, but you'll be cheating yourself if this prevents you from seeing it. The action is keyed by an inspired cast, headed by Jimmy Cagney as Nick Condon, the American editor, and Sylvia Sydney as Iris Hillard, beautiful Eurasian secret agent. They are superbly aided by Porter Hall in the role of Condon's publisher; John Emery, as a deceitful Baron Tanaka; and Robert Armstrong, who plays Colonel Toja, double-dealing Jap Army officer, later to become a murderous war time premier.

Serious Illness May Follow A Common Cold
A common cold is something that should never be disregarded. Unless treated, it may develop into a serious ailment of the respiratory organs such as bronchitis.
At the first symptom of a cold, use Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup. Pleasant-tasting and quick-acting, this favourite Canadian remedy helps to cut out the mucus and phlegm, clear the congested air passages and soothe the irritated membranes.

ELECTRIC POWER RATIONING
4 P.M. -- 9.30 P.M. EACH DAY
THANKS FOR YOUR HELP
Our thanks are extended to householders, store operators, and business houses who by their sincere efforts to VOLUNTARILY RATION their use of electricity are aiding us in maintaining continuous service. Your community-minded efforts are most appreciated.
HOWEVER MANY CUSTOMERS ARE FAILING TO RESPOND
There is every indication that a large number of customers are failing to reduce their use of power between 4 P. M. and 9.30 P. M. as requested or are making small or negligible reductions.
In order to make a fair distribution of available supply the effort should be made by everyone, not by a few.
FAIR — OR UNFAIR?
Those who continue to make no restriction of their use of electricity will in all likelihood cause further blackouts which will involve customers who are trying to avert this happening. Each must decide whether to be fair to his neighbour in this respect.
REMEMBER
That all may be served—Share fairly with your neighbour.
ACT NOW—THIS IS AN EMERGENCY
