IN MEMORIAM

LORNE V. INGS

A few years ago Mr. Lorne V. Ings left the shores of Orwell Cove with the harvest excursionists for the West to better his situation in life. During the stay out west prosperity was coming his way when the call came for volunteers for England's aid. He at once enlisted and proceeded overseas where he fought with his comrades until he was struck by an enemy shell and mortally wounded afterwards dying in the Hospital.

PATRIOTIC WORK

Are the children of P. E. I., doing good patriotic work? The question is easily answered by referring to what has already been done by this younger generation and it is eminently fitting that their interests have been aroused in regard to the brave boys who are fighting for the peace which they and future generations may enjoy. These children are the men and women of the future—the ones upon whom will rest the tender care of our disabled heroes in their old age. It is easier to keep alive the flame of interest awakened in youth that it is to kindle a fire built upon an indifference of some year's standing. The present is the opportune moment to in every possible way interest even the youngest of the boy and girls in doing all they possibly can to assist in caring for the brave boys—both those who are overseas, and the disabled who return. Apart from the morale its teaches is the work of these young people at present of any real value? Results already attained by their labors are the most eloquent proofs and one has only to refer to their Student's Gift Fund, which furnished two field kitchens for our soldiers and provided $242.74 for the Soldiers Disablement Fund, and added to this are their many contributions to the Army Field Service Fund Red Cross, Belgian Relief and the comforts they donate for parcels going direct to the trenches. The work of our young folks has been and always will be of great value in many ways.

The individual work is well worth while the little groups of our school-children have shown they are capable of doing much which even older persons hesitate to undertake. Out in Bradabane there is a little club of nine school children, four girls and five boys. Over a year ago they formed what they called the B. W. W. B., Club and they are doing splendid work for the boys and provide them with some comforts. Moreover, they do not depend upon their parents to provide the money for these comforts but earn all that is necessary. Not many weeks ago they held a concert and social to con- tinue their good work.

Their first letter some months ago to the now Secretary of the 105th Comfort Circle gives some idea of the spirit of this little club. Part of their letter reads as follows: "We started a Club here a while ago, we school children, and we sent $20 worth of comforts to the boys before Christmas, which they all received. We sent them in care of Mr. Taylor, and we have some more ready to send now and we would like to send the boys that are in the trenches now belonging to the 105th. There are nine of us in the Club altogether, four girls and five boys. There are not many of us but we try to do our bit in any way we can."

Needless to say the comforts which proved to be towels, soap, cigarettes, gum, writing tablets, envelopes, pencils condensed milk and golden syrup valued at $11.40 were gladly forwarded. On two occasions they contributed postage stamps valued at $1.50 to $3.00 in all to assist 105th Comfort Circle Work. On July 30th they had another instalment of parcels ready for overseas. 12 for the 105th and 12 for some friends in the 8th Siege Battery. These parcels each contained two towels cake soap, pkg gum, pkg. tobacco, writing tablet, pkg. envelopes, pencil and 1 tin salmon, all val-

ENGAGEMENT ANNOUNCED.—Mr. Wm. H. O'Brien, Georgetown, announces the engagement of his daughter, Mae E., to Mr. Jas. W. Allan of the P. E. I. R., wedding to take place the first week in September.

ALLOWANCE FOR WIDOW.—In a tabbed report of the votes and proceedings of the House of Commons under the heading of "Arts and Agriculture" the following vote is tabled: "Compassionate allowance to the widow of Patrick Quinn, an employee at the Charlottetown Experimental Station, whose death was caused by a kick from one of the horses at the station—$1,500."

THE STEAMERS.—The S. S. Aranmore made another round trip yesterday, docking in Charlottetown last evening at 10.15. She brought 60 passengers and 95 tons of freight. The steamer will continue to make daily round trips until the C.G.S. Princess gets on the Summerside-Point de Chene route. It was expected that the latter steamer would arrive in Summerside yesterday in time to take up the work, but up to a late hour last night, no word of her arrival had been received.

CHESS FIELD DAY.—A special meeting of the Charlottetown Chess Club was held last evening to arrange for their fifth annual field day. It was decided to go to Holland Cove by the eight o'clock boat next Monday morning where teams will meet the party and drive to the summer resorts, where dinner and tea will be served returning by the seven o'clock boat. Three new members were elected last evening, and all members are expected to show up Monday morning for the annual outing. The Club will meet for practice Saturday night.

SUCCESSFUL LAWN FESTIVAL.—A delightful affair to the many who attended was the lawn festival at the home of Mr. D. O'M. Reddin last evening. The lawn presented a very entrancing appearance beneath the bewitching lustre of the many intermingled Japanese lanterns and electric lights. Delicious cake and ice cream was served and greatly appreciated as was also the piano music and the vocal selection by Miss Mamie Smith. The proceeds of this affair will net a very neat and welcome addition to the funds of the St. Vincent Orphanage.

Mr. Daniel J. Steele, blacksmith, left on Tuesday morning on a trip to Toronto.

Mr. C. B. Newson of Montreal arrived in Charlottetown last evening to spend a short vacation with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W.S. Newson.

Used at $26.20. These young folks have set a splendid patriotic example which fully illustrates the value of even children's work.

In the 105th Comfort Circle, children's work has been of great value and the fact that their assistance was given unasked for speaks volumes. One morning upon opening the Circle mail, was found a letter containing $8.50 collected by Kitty Henley a little school girl in Cable Head East. Just an honest desire to do something for the brave boys in the trenches prompted this child, unasked to do what she could. Another little girl, Elsie Riley, Strathcona sent twelve cents in stamps and asked to join the Circle (as her brother was in the Regiment). She is the youngest member, saves up her money to buy postage stamps to help and the other day wrote asking if she might have fifty 105th Commemoration Buttons to sell to help the Circle.

Numerous children throughout the province are sending picture postal cards, bearing cheering messages to the wounded in hospitals overseas. Young people of Prince Edward Island keep up your good work by every possible means. Such help as you can give is of real value, and you are indeed fitting yourselves to become worthy men and women. Upon your sympathy also will dissolve the kindly care which our disabled soldiers will so justly merit in their old age.

LETTER OF SYMPATHY.

Mrs. Andrew Johnstone and family:—

We the boys of New London, write to you, in this your dark hour of sorrow, to offer you our tenderest sympathy.

Your son Arthur was "killed in action" July 8th. A flying fragment of shell hit him in the leg, severing an artery.

He was at once attended to and his wound dressed. The doctor at the Dressing Station seemed to entertain a hope that the wound would not prove fatal, but despite every effort, the flow of blood could not be stopped and Arthur passed away forever from the din of battle, three hours after he received his wound.

Everyone in the Battery felt he had sustained a personal loss; for Art, as he was familiarly known to everyone was a general favorite.

We have passed through some hard times, encountered difficulties calculated to discourage the most resolute but no one ever heard Arthur complain.

Always his face had that same smile, and it is the cheery side of his nature was what coupled his sterling worth made him so deservedly popular.

He was buried in a Military Cemetery where rests several others of our "Unreturning Brave." I cannot tell you the name now, but will whenever possible.

We, who know him all his life deeply mourn his end, and wonder why one with a future so promising should be called away so soon.

He has given his life for Liberty, he has truly laid down his life for his friends.

He responded to his Country's call among the first, and now paid the last full measure of devotion to her cause.

Again tendering you our sympathy, we remain, Very sincerely yours,

SGT. ALLAN COLE, GR. H. S. McEWEEN, GR. E. G. McKAY, GR. H. J. McKAY, GR. G. C. McKAY, France 27-7-1917.
