ANNANDALE. — Some of the farmers has done some thrashing and find the grain turning out very well. There is quite a quantity of new grain coming to Howlett's mill. — Mr. J. W. Campbell, Popular Point, is getting quite a lot more timber cut at Howlett's mill to complete his new barn. — The hall at the village is progressing and the outside of it is nearly finished. — Mr. Charles Stead of Sailors Hope was at the Village on Saturday. — Mr. Henry Norton's folks who were with him for the summer from Boston returned home on Friday last. — Mr. Murphy, school teacher at the Village, has opened school after a few days vacation. — Mrs. Wm. Morrow and her daughter Alice were in the Village on Saturday last. — O.

WEDDING BELLS. — The marriage of Mr. Joseph McDonald, Priest Pond, and Miss Annie Laurita Fisher of South Lake, took place in St. Columba church, East Point, on Wednesday morning, Sept. 10th. The nuptial Mass and ceremony were performed by Rev. R. J. McDonald, pastor. The groom was supported by Mr. William McDonald, of Bear River. The bride was becomingly attired in white georgette over white satin and wore a white picture hat with white plumes. She was attended by her sister Miss Molly Fisher, who wore blue georgette with hat to match. After the ceremony the bridal party motored to the home of the groom where a dainty wedding breakfast was served. They then took a sight-seeing trip through the country, arriving at the home of the bride's parents where upwards of one hundred invited guests gave the party a hearty reception. A sumptuous dinner was then served in the hospitable manner of the family, the remainder of the day being most pleasantly spent in music and dancing. They returned in the evening to their future home in Priest Pond where 140 invited guests awaited them. Supper was served in Mrs. McDonald's best style, and music and dancing was enjoyed until morning. The many and costly gifts which they received including silverware, china, substantial cheques, etc., as well as numerous other valuable articles testify to the popularity of the young couple and the esteem with which they are held by their many friends and acquaintances. Their friends wish Mr. and Mrs. McDonald abundant success and happiness throughout the coming years of their wedded life.
