EMERALD SCHOOL CLOSING.

The closing examination of Emerald School took place on Tuesday 28th. A large number of visitors and parents were present which was a pleasing manifestation of the keen interest taken in the welfare of the little ones who acquitted themselves most admirably, notwithstanding the fact that they were much grieved at the departure of their beloved teachers who sometime previously tendered their resignation to take up work in a more lucrative field.

At the close of the examination a number of the ratifiers eloquently expressed their appreciation of the notable progress made during the past year along the flowery path of knowledge, after which the teachers presented the pupils with a number of beautiful presents.

The pupils to show in a tangible way their appreciation of the many kind deeds of their efficient teachers during their sojourn amongst them presented each with a beautiful souvenir and the following address:
To Miss Alice Reid and Miss Martina Monaghan.
Dear Teacher:—
I am appointed by the pupils of this school to present you in their name these gifts a testimonial of our gratitude for your untiring labor in our behalf.
I assure you that as patient teachers and most excellent instructors you will ever be remembered by the students of this school with feelings of the highest regard and esteem.
Within the short time you have been with us you have greatly endeared yourselves to us by your amiable character, your earnest devotion to duty and the hearty interest you have ever manifested in our welfare as pupils.
Our earnest hope is that your future life may be as happy as those few years we have spent under your wise guidance.
And now dear teachers with a keen sense of regret at your intended departure from amongst us, we bid you a kind farewell and ask to accept these small tokens not for their intrinsic value but as a memento of happy days spent with us. The pupils of Emerald School.

Canadians Want More Help

Mrs. Allan Cameron, Margate, has received the following letter from her son-in-law, in France:
Somewhere in France.
June 12, 1917.

Dear Mother and Father:—
Your letter received some two weeks ago, and I did not take the opportunity of answering till today. I am very glad to hear you and Allan are well. I am first-rate myself. Well, I am seeing all kinds of sights here and will be so glad when everything is settled and victory is ours, and the Germans are beaten.

Well, dear mother, at the success that is now on I think we will soon have Fritz beaten; as I sit writing the building is shaking with the roaring of thousands of guns. I don't see how the Germans can hear it; also there is a lot of prisoners. We are having very nice weather here, and the crops are growing good. This is a great agricultural country, the best I have seen, with beautiful forests. We are busy every day firing our big shells over each day, putting some enemy to destruction. Harry is quite well and often we have long talks of home together.

I have seen many weird sights since I came over to France, which I would like to tell you about, but cannot possibly do so under conditions, but if I get back safe soon I will. We have full and plenty, such as army food is, quite rough, but clean.

Everything is very clean, even the burying grounds, and even where all the fighting is the fiercest cleanliness is first attention. Everyone gets good care, the best under war conditions. I will be glad to get back to Margate once more; so will all the boys who are here; that is the first thought each day and the last at night. I hope you will see Eva in good cheer, always. It is the main thing to me, her happiness, though parted and of course, I am glad to have come, as one's country needs all we can do in this great struggle. Though there is plenty of slackers who will not fight for their country and homes, we must fight in France in order to help these at home and there should be more men ready to come as there are still lots available in Canada, even in P. E. I. If they could see the ruined villages in France, they would be only all the more glad to help out. As this is about all for now, I will bring my letter to a close. Will write soon again. With love and best respects to you and Allen.

As ever your son, FRANK.

German Prisoner Speaks His Mind

It is only when a German gets well out of Germany that he can speak his mind freely. A German prisoner recently spoke his mind and no doubt expressed the opinions of many thousands of Germans when he told in terms of intense indignation of the conditions in Germany he had lived in the United States without being naturalized, was in England when the war broke out. Fearing to be interned he crossed to the continent, made his way into Germany, and was called up for service at the time of the Somme offensive. Here his statement was jotted down by a British officer.

"This war is the greatest crime the world has ever seen. The crimes that made the French Revolution are nothing if you compare them with the crimes of the beasts who are running Germany to-day and keeping this war going. They were only thieves and brigands when they brought their own people to the bloodiest world ever produced. They never made anything like it before. They know perfectly well they've lost the war; they've known for months that the last chances they ever had have gone. But they are frightened of it and call a halt; and because they are frightened of it, they've might do when they learned the truth they keep the thing going, and sacrifice many thousands of Germans every single day and millions of money. For what? To shield the reputations of a handful of princes and politicians. It's the greatest crime the world has ever known. Here on this front our people are being killed like flies. Your artillery kills them in bunches. There isn't a minute of the day but legs and arms are being blown off. Our men would gladly give themselves up to end it, but you know they cannot. When it seems to be a chance there is always an officer or N.C.O. about. It is not only your guns that kill. Many Germans fall every day with German bullets in them. They are driven like dogs to the fighting. And to what end? Because our cursed Kaiser and the creatures we call statesmen are afraid of their lives they will know it'll be all up.

"But plenty of them are leaving. Many know before we know it now. They are going to join up. And perhaps I never should have been made to join if I had known less and never said a word of what I did know. I talked a little of what I knew. And that is enough. In Germany to-day the man who will tell the truth must be hustled out of the way. That is why I see no hope for Germany; because those left in the country are no spirit; can do nothing. All the strength of the country, such as it is, is in the fighting lines—helpless as slaves. The others, there in Germany, they are slaves—starving, starving, but they never dare to say a word. The few who speak soon find themselves hustled into the front line, and no more is heard of them. They go on paying the price—thousands of lives every day; every single day. The Central Powers' casualties now must all for what? The crazy dreams of a few bankers and merchants, and the cowardly fears of a few politicians and of the Hohenzollerns. They say the Hapsburgs, too; but the Austrians would be thankful to make peace tomorrow, but they cannot. They are as much sacrificed by Berlin as we poor devils are here on the front. All the bloody slaughter of this war, with its millions of money and thousands of lives going long single day—what keeps it going, long after it has been finally decided, is not the will of nations. No, it is the murderous criminality and cowardice of a little handful of men in Berlin who never have been anything but a pest in Europe.

"Is not that the greatest crime the world has ever known? And is it not strictly true? Does any sane German suppose the appointed end can be altered when the whole New World is ranged against Germany as well as the Old? They know all about the hundred million men of the States; and the millions of millions of money; the innumerable factories and ship yards. They know that America can put hundreds of thousands of fresh troops on this front next spring, and that the exhaustion of Germany long before then will be frightful. It is frightful now; it has been frightful for a year and more. They know it all, and brute devils that they are, they choose to keep the awful slaughter going, because they hope it can alter the end; but for what you call 'Walt and see!' because they fear to face today what they can put off till tomorrow, at the cost of another few thousand lives.

Hot Weather is a Joy to the man or woman who is properly nourished with a light, easily digested food. The food problem in Summer time, war time, or any old time, is a simple one for the housewife who knows Shredded Wheat Biscuit and the many delicious, nutritious dishes that can be made with it. Shredded Wheat Biscuit is 100 per cent. whole wheat fully complying with all government requirements in purity and cleanliness. Two or three Shredded Wheat Biscuits with milk will fully nourish and satisfy the average person in hot weather, and the cost is only a few cents. Made in Canada.

decent lives, another few milliards of money. Never before since the world began has a twentieth part of such suffering been allowed to continue day after day and month after month to protect a handful of exalted criminals from general recognition of their crimes. The Russian people rose and smashed the bonds that bound tyrants have been cleverer. It was only the bodies of the Russian people that were fettered. Their minds were free. No German mind, in Germany, has been free since 1870. The Berlin criminals have seen too well to that. Our people think they have been well educated. So they have—very well, very carefully—for just what they are doing now; for the blindest and most damnable kind of slavery the world has ever seen; for a slavery in which the will of the masters must be paid for daily by steadily running streams of the blood of their victims taught to bare their own throats to the knife on the word of command. If your armies could reach Germany itself the slavery might end suddenly. But Germany today is one vast prison full of starving slaves who cannot lift a hand to help themselves, and that it will remain while William the Murderer can go on buying a daily reprieve for his own miserable family in return for the blood of ten thousand of his slaves. Thank God I am out of it!"

WINNIPEG MONTREAL

CANADA'S FUEL CONTROLLER HAS ARRANGED FOR ALL THE NEEDFUL SUPPLIES FOR THE COMING WINTER.

OTTAWA.—"We are going to get all the coal we need this winter," said Hon. T. W. Crothers, when asked if he had anything to say regarding the control and licensing order placed by the United States on the export of coal to all countries even to the countries of the allies, including Great Britain and her colonies and protectorates.

Mr. Crothers said that C. A. McGrath, the fuel controller, who is at present in New York, had made complete arrangements for Canada's normal supply of fuel from the United States.

Mr. McGrath has appointed an American expert on coal and transportation to look after the coal from the mines to the Canadian consumer, and from the border to the points of distribution it will be taken care of entirely by the railway commission under Sir Henry Drayton.

Mr. Crothers has had no report regarding the coal miners strike in Southern Saskatchewan, which is said to have taken place. When asked if such a strike was a violation of the terms of the Industrial Disputes Investigation act, he said it was, but the miners generally had always ignored the legislation.

Everyone Else Has One

The stamped for flag outfits which marked the opening of the grand distribution has settled down to a steady stream of eager flag seekers. Stacks upon stacks of these excellent and timely banners have fairly melted under the ceaseless onslaught made upon them. The allotment for this city is as large as this newspaper could secure through the co-operation with the leading daily newspapers in all Canadian cities to place the Empire's emblem directly into the hands of our citizens, and though the number was great, continued inroads may soon exhaust them.

Did You Get Your Flag?

There's no need to be without a flag outfit now—the way has been made smooth, the expense almost eliminated, the quality of the flags high. Every emblem is the most procurable of its kind not to be compared with the cheaply made flag, or small flags or stamped or ink-printed flags, but a "regular" Union Jack in every sense of the word.

Easy to put up—just the work of a minute. Into the socket, securely clamped to the window sill, slip the end of the rod and let your colors snap in the breeze. The colors are dyed in—fast and brilliant, the bunting is wind-tested and weather-tough, the pole is six feet long, brass ferrule joined in the middle, complete with ball and halliard. The window socket is rust-proof metal, and the whole outfit comes compact in a stout carton case in which to preserve it for a lifetime of use. The $5.00 Outfit Complete is $2.25.
