After You've Called the Doctor and he has diagnosed your case, what do you do with his written prescription?

Do you act in the "hit or miss" style and take any drug where to be filled, or do you take it to a druggist in which you have absolute faith, in his honesty, his skill, and the purity of his drugs?

Our Prescription Department is constantly being stocked with the finest full-strength drugs possible to obtain. Here our prescriptions are carefully checked and rechecked, so that there will not be the possibility of a mistake.

We do not pay any doctor a commission to write prescriptions for our store, nor do we pay in any way. We solicit your prescription business on the basis of honesty, skill and the purest drugs obtainable.

It does not matter who writes your prescriptions, we can fill them. Appointed by the S. C. R. Department to fill the Doctors' prescriptions for returned soldiers in this vicinity.

WHEATLEY RIVER SCHOOL EXAMINATION

The semi-annual examination of Wheatley River School were attended by a large number of ratepayers and visitors. The pupils were examined in the different subjects by their teacher, Miss Margaret Ling, assisted by the principal, Harold Chandler, and the principal, Harold Chandler, and the principal, Harold Chandler.

Miss Irene Rackham on behalf of the school presented the teacher with a sum of money. Miss Holmes though surprised thanked the children gratefully for their gift.

Brief speeches were made by Mr. Norman Ling, Mr. Chester Rackham and other congratulating the teacher and pupils upon a successful examination and the progress made by the school.

The singing of the national anthem brought the examination to a close.

"COWS GET DRUNK IN PASTURE" DURHAM, N. C., July 17. John King, a farmer living near his city, last night found two of his cows lying on the ground in their pasture in a stupor, apparently suffering from some strange malady. A veterinary was called and after a lengthy examination pronounced both animals as merely "drunk." A search for the cause led to the discovery of a big "moonshine" still in a secret corner of the pasture. The cows had eaten a quantity of the mash used by the illicit whiskey manufacturers.

"IN MEMORIAM" MRS. ELIZABETH GOFF. The death occurred in San Diego, Cal., on July 7th of Mrs. Eliza Goff, a native of Prince Edward Island. She had reached the ripe age of 96 years, 11 months and 15 days. She was the mother of the late George B. Goff who died on June 27th, just 10 days before his mother passed away. Mrs. Goff leaves to mourn the following son and daughters:—Dr. Harry N. Goff of San Diego, Cal.; with whom she had been residing; Mrs. A. W. Jenkins of Berkeley, Cal.; Mrs. J. A. McKinnon, Seattle, Wash.; Mrs. W. P. Goff, of Valier, Mont.; Mrs. Chas. Strangman, Montreal. The funeral which was private took place on the 9th at Greenwood Cemetery. Mrs. Goff was a most estimable Christian lady and although she had been absent from the Island for a number of years before her death, she will be lovingly remembered by many friends in this province.

"TERENCE POWER." There passed peacefully away at his home in Roseneath, July 7th, 1920, Terence Valentine Power aged 76 years. The late Mr. Power was born in Summerville, Feb. 14th, 1854. When a most estimable Christian lady and although she had been absent from the Island for a number of years before her death, she will be lovingly remembered by many friends in this province.

"MR. BERNARD SMITH" The death took place on July 16th inst., at his home in Emerald, of Mr. Bernard Smith, in his 62nd year, a well known and highly respected farmer of that place. The deceased had not enjoyed good health for the past year, but nothing serious was anticipated until he was of a quiet, agreeable disposition. Always took a keen interest in church and educational affairs, and was an excellent citizen. His wife and three sons and four daughters who survive him, besides his brothers, sisters and many relatives, have the sincere sympathy of the whole community in the loss of a worthy and highly esteemed man. The funeral was held on Sunday morning last and the large procession of carriages that followed the remains to St. James' Church, Summerville, attested to the popularity of their departed friend. The services in the church and adjoining cemetery were performed by his kind pastor, Rev. Father McQuaid. May his soul rest in peace.

"GEORGE SHEA." George Shea, section foreman, died at his home in Kensington on July 17, after an illness that lasted through several months. He was a son of the late William Shea and was born at Kensington in 1856. He was a section man on the Prince Edward Island Railway for thirty one years, five of which he was foreman at Wellington and the last five years was foreman on the Kensington division. In 1880 he married Charlotte Underhill, and the issue of the marriage was a family of three girls and one boy. Vis.—Mrs. Joseph L. Cameron, Grand River; Evelyn and Elleen at home and one son, Joseph, deceased, two years ago. He had been ailing for about four months, and his malady baffled all medical skill. He was attended in his last days by his pastor, Rev. Mr. D. J. Gillis, who administered to him the strengthening sacraments of the Catholic Church. He died confident in the hope of eternal salvation. His funeral was held on Monday, July 19, the pall bearers being, Thos. N. Donahoe; J. J. Burns; Ernest Clow; Daniel McKenzie; William Gray and Tom Pendreget. The discourse that paid the last respects to his remains, was large and was a fitting eulogy on the respect in which he and his family are held. The surviving members of his family are Kate Salth, Boston, Mass.; Mrs. P. Monahan, Montpelier, Mass.; the brothers are John, William and Joseph, Boston, Mass.; and Frank, Indian River.
