Essery and McDonald, City, have given up the farm at Upton, which they have had leased for the past four years. They intend calling a monster sale to dispose of their horses, cattle and farming machinery. The sale will take place at Geo McDonald's, Southport on Nov 15th.

Do not send communications to individual members of staff. Everything should be addressed "The Charlottetown Guardian, Charlottetown, P. E. I." and on the left hand corner at the bottom of the envelope should be "Advertising," "Subscription," "Editorial," or "News" according to the contents.

Edward and Mrs Bayfield and family of this City are still enjoying the luxury of cultivated raspberries picked from day to day in their garden. Yesterday The Guardian received the most liberal sample of the raspberries which needless to say were much enjoyed as they were most luscious, and a rare treat at this season of the year.

F. P. Hayden, Supervisor of Agents of the Great-West Life in the Maritime Provinces, is paying a short visit in the City and is registered at the Victoria Hotel. Mr Hayden recently returned from Western Canada, and reports great prosperity out there. The Great-West Life, Mr Hayden states, is forging ahead in all parts of the Dominion. Hyndman & Co. have charge of the Company's business in this Province and T. Edgar McNutt is the Special Agent.

Although somewhat belated the news of the marriage of W. E. Callbeck, formerly of Summerside, one of High River, Alberta's popular young men, to Miss Blanche Way, of Hunter River, P. E. I., will prove interesting to many Guardian readers. The interesting event took place at the parsonage, the ceremony being performed by the Rev J. P. Berry, on September 25th. After the ceremony the happy couple boarded the morning train for Calgary and Banff, where they spent a short honeymoon. The Guardian extends hearty felicitations to Mr and Mrs Callbeck.

Mrs B. Palliser Wilson has been spending a most delightful summer in Vancouver, at the home of her brother, Russell Palmer, and has enjoyed frequent visits from her sister, Miss Gertrude Palmer and from Arthur and Mrs Palmer, all of whom are residents of that city. Mrs Wilson terminated her four months holidays by a trip to Victoria and Seattle Fair. She has now rejoined her husband at their home in Winnipeg and is already planning a visit for next summer to her old home "The Reccass," Victoria, where they hope to meet the Misses M. and E. Palmer. Who are also contemplating a trip from England, and with the return of several other Islanders a grand reunion of P. E. Islanders is anticipated.

Lamp light will not be satisfactory if the burner be old, burnt out or dirty, if the wick be clogged, or if you use inferior oil. With your lamp in good order and MAYFLOWER OIL which is especially prepared for household use, you will have the best light for the eyes known to man. 10-23dtf.

Owing to the big Saturday Guardian, and the large number of advertisements therefore, it is necessary that all "changes" of matter reach this office not later than ten a. m. Friday, to insure insertion in first following issue.

One of the best football games of the season will be played tomorrow (Saturday) afternoon on the C. A. A. grounds when the Victorias and St Dunstan's will meet in their final match. The race for the championship this year is very interesting and much depends on tomorrow's game.

The following is taken from a Brockton Mass, paper: "In honor of Reuben Barrett of Charlottetown, P. E. I., their guest, Herbert and Mrs Barrett of 224 Howard St entertained friends last evening at an informal musicale. Piano solos were given by Mrs Harry Laybott, vocal selections by Reuben Barrett, who is a singer of exceptional ability, violin solos by Miss Ethel Ward, and piano and violin selections by David Irving. Chorus singing and graphophone selections were also enjoyed.

Miss Jane Atkins, City, who has been needlessly annoyed by a number of small girls around King street, recently laid information against them and yesterday morning the culprits appeared before the City Police Court. Considerable evidence of a conflicting nature was adduced and the case was dismissed. Edward Egan and Colin McDonald, two prohibition offenders, the former a first offence and the latter a fourth, appeared before His Honor and were both convicted. Sentences of $100 or three months, and six months, respectively, were imposed. Daniel McFarley's adjourned case for third offence was once more adjourned on account of a missing witness. It will come up again next Thursday.

The Rev Mr Greatorex who, has been conducting the service for past few weeks, in St Paul's Church, Charlottetown, leaves early next week for the mainland. Mr Greatorex ministry has been helpful to many and his earnest and practical words, both in the church, and Sunday School, will not be quickly forgotten. By many outside of St Paul's congregation, Mr Greatorex is esteemed for his sympathy in the union prayer meetings now being held, and for his earnest prayers that the approaching Evangelistic Mission might be abundantly blessed to the people of Charlottetown and Province. Rev Mr Greatorex will take the chair and give an address at St Paul's school room tonight, at the union prayer service at 8 p. m.

Moore & McLeod
The Busiest Store on Ch'town's Busiest Street.

Thank you for the Great Response to our Rummage Sale Announcement yesterday. It delights us.

Before the door of the furnishings department rolled open yesterday a crowd of people had gathered in the store waiting for the stroke of nine o'clock. When the hour struck, the fun began—a regular carnival of bargains of every sort. Of course the goods shown were not fresh and new but as a compensation they were marked ridiculously cheap—and hundreds of people profited by the snaps.

We Continue The Sale To-day

At nine o'clock this morning the room opens up for another day of it—and while all the various sorts of goods heavily sold still there is a good assortment of all the lines that were offered yesterday—and in many cases very special price reductions. Some of the things that you will find—

Frillings, Laces, Trimmings, Braids, Coats Skirts, Corsets, Collars, Hat Pins, Yarns, Underwear, Ribbons, Braces, Cushion Cords all colours, Belts, Gingham, Ends of Dress Goods, Men's Underwear, all of them marked half, one third, one quarter, sometimes a tenth of the regular value.

Some Unequalled Values in Elastic Belts for Autumn Wear

SOME WEEKS AGO we got into connection with a house turning out a notably fine line of Elastic Belts—so good that although our buyer had picked all he thought was needed for present use the values of these appealed to him so strongly that he contracted for a large supply. On arrival they look even better than in the samples, and ever since we have been comparing all the rival lines available—but have seen nothing to equal the special we introduce to you in this ad.

One very handsome line of silk elastic belts, pretty dull gilt or black buckle, good 50 cent value, black, sky, navy, green, wistaria, amethyst and brown.....39c

Another splendid value is of very superior, heavy silk elastic, hand some flat buckle with medalion centre, black, greens, rose, navy, wistaria, amethyst and brown, equal to any dollar line.....69c

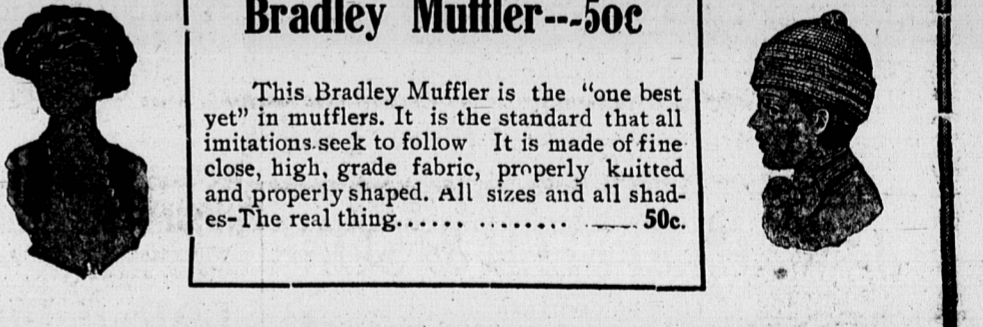

A very handsome line of chiffon elastic belts the sort that we have always had to sell previously for 75c here for 50c
A notably handsome black elastic belt with jet studding better than many dollar lines that we have had ourselves and that means the best dollar lines going, special 75c

Silver or Gold Belt, Medallion Buckle only 25c

This one is certainly a splendid value—the silver or gold braid used is of very heavy superior quality, brilliant and the makers say it will not tarnish. The buckle is a medallion in Gainsboro style, and our price is 25c

Bradley Muffler---50c

This Bradley Muffler is the "one best yet" in mufflers. It is the standard that all imitations seek to follow. It is made of fine close, high, grade fabric, properly knitted and properly shaped. All sizes and all shades—The real thing..... 50c.

"Cadburys"
are the best chocolates made. Their boxes contain the largest assortment of cream s, rts hard centres, etc.
We have just received a fresh lot direct from England—Price 20 to 75 cents.

Mattress Making
I have the only power machine in the Province for picking and dusting old hair, wool, flock and other mattresses. Any kind made over equal to new moderate cost.
