RELIGIOUS SERVICES

TRINITY UNITED CHURCH

For some years this Church published in both city papers a bulletin setting forth the meeting, social service or activity of each day. This was discontinued about a year ago but it is now proposed to renew the practice. Our friends therefore will, starting today, find this bulletin in its proper position and it is hoped that it will be found in the same place daily and that it may prove of advantage to our people.

In memoriam: The flowers on the pulpit dais were in loving memory of the late Mrs. A. E. Nelson, presented by her daughter. 'Tis not the whole of life to live, Not not to die, Beyond this vale of tears There is a life above, Unmeasured by the flight of years, And all that life is love.

The morning worship was conducted by Rev. Hugh Miller with Rev. J. W. Barbour assisting. The subject of Mr. Miller's sermon was "What shall we do with our Commandment." "Remember the Sabbath Day to keep it holy." It was a splendid contribution to the movement now taking place for a better observance of the "Lord's Day." Here are one or two examples of the facts as Christians, people whose keeping of the Sabbath and all else worth preserving. Would we not all be better off physically, mentally, morally and spiritually if the Sabbath Day was less a day of amusement and pleasure and more a day of worship and Christian fellowship. "Today as in Christ's day the Sabbath suffers from its enemies and its friends—from those who deliberately use the day for gain and those who believe in the Sabbath and fall to make the best use of it and whose example is detrimental rather than profitable." "Canada is credited in possessing the best legislation in respect to the observance of the Sabbath of any country. I find many who think that it is an attempt of a few pious, straight laced people to deprive others of a same observance of the Sabbath. Nothing could be further from the purpose and spirit. The Lord's Day Act of Canada aims to prevent the Sabbath Day being used for business, gain, or other uses that interfere with the peace and liberty of others. As Christ stood for the highest use of the Sabbath so must His Church and His followers.

At night Rev. Mr. Miller read as his scripture lesson Luke 15, verses 11 to 24, the story of the Prodigal Son. His text was "I will arise and go to my father." Tragedy stalking home, an appeal to the young to profit by the mistakes of others and to seek to please and love with the things of God in order to avoid tragedy in the disillusionment of life. The music for the day included an anthem, "O Come Everyone That Thirsteth," with Mr. Harvey McMahon as soloist, and at night Miss Dobson was soloist in the anthem, "Sweet is Thy Mercy," Mr. A. R. Gills also sang a solo which was much appreciated.

CENTRAL CHRISTIAN CHURCH

At the morning service Miss Nan MacKay sang with fine expression "Beautiful Isle of Somewhere." The subject of the sermon was "The Church Complete in Christ" and was developed as follows: "The Church is the temple of Divine Power," "The Church is the Body of Christ," "The Church is the Kingdom of God on Earth," "The Church is the Fellowship of Saints," "The Church is the Society of Disciples," "The Church is the Community of Believers," "The Church is the Household of Faith," "The Church is the Fellowship of Saints," "The Church is the Society of Disciples," "The Church is the Community of Believers," "The Church is the Household of Faith."

THE BAPTIST CHURCH

Continuing a series of sermons on the Lord's Prayer, the Rev. A. C. Vincent, spoke this morning from the words of Matthew 6:13, "But deliver us from evil." This petition has natural relation to its predecessor "lead us not into temptation." It recognizes the presence, the mystery, the power of sin and expresses in brief petition the need of seeking for deliverance from its snare. It stands its power, by the Grace of God, through Jesus Christ. The Rev. A. C. Vincent, father of the Rev. A. C. Vincent, who has for some weeks a visitor in Charlottetown, was a visitor to Summerside Saturday.

SACRED SONG SERVICE

The speaker at last evening's service for young people was Mr. James M. MacFadyen, Chairman of the Religious Committee of the local Y.M.C.A. The meeting was held in the Baptist Church following the regular worship there and after the singing of hymns the Scripture lesson was presented by the Rev. Dr. A. C. Vincent, who also led in prayer.

The Young People's Association Choir provided two special numbers, a solo by Miss Bessie Campbell and a chorus number, "Sweetener as the Year Go By." Mr. Henry was acted as chairman for the meeting and announced that the Sacred Song Service will be held at 8.30 on next Sunday evening in the Central Christian Church.

Mr. MacFadyen in the course of his address dealt with present social and economic conditions, and in referring to the various reconstruction measures which have been attempted by legislation and other means, pointed out that the present generation are responsible what has been sown. The speaker took as his text the command given to the prophet Joshua: "Be of good courage, be courageous." The meeting closed with the Benediction by Rev. Dr. Vincent.

POTATO MARKETING REGULATIONS TO BE STRICTLY ENFORCED

The following circular, emphasizing the need on the part of all concerned of fully complying with the provisions and orders and regulations of the Potato Marketing Agency, has been forwarded to all representatives by Mr. J. J. Trainor, Provincial agent of the Eastern Potato Marketing Board. "The Eastern Canada Potato Marketing Board was set up for the purpose of regulating the marketing of potatoes, chiefly in the interests of the producer. From time to time circulars have been issued embodying orders, rules and regulations, which it deemed necessary for the above purpose. Most representatives have been honestly endeavoring to comply with these instructions. A few, however, have been either careless or antagonistic. The Agency has endeavored to co-operate with all, so that the objective might be attained harmoniously. On several occasions departures from regulations have been made whereby the representative adhering strictly to the spirit of the regulation, suffered considerable inconvenience. "Whether through ignorance, indifference, or otherwise, some representatives have not given the necessary, or expected, co-operation. The Agency now feels that the time has arrived for full enforcement of orders and regulations. It is in the interests of each representative to read and comply with the instructions of the Agency. It is not the desire of the Agency to make its regulations either numerous or burdensome, but it is absolutely essential in the interests of the industry that those issued be strictly adhered to. "To avoid unnecessary unpleasantness, read carefully ALL CIRCULARS and ORDERS issued to date. Failure to comply will render the representative liable to either cancellation of license and authority or to both cancellation and penalties as provided for in the Natural Products Marketing Act."

Greig's Works Featured At Music Club

A very successful meeting of the Women's Music Club was held on Saturday, March 9th. Credit for the suggestion of the subject of the program—that of music inspired by great literature—goes to Mrs. K. S. Rogers, who was also responsible for the skilful arrangement of the numbers on the program. The first interesting and beautifully written paper on Ibsen's lyrical, dramatic satire, "Peer Gynt."

To begin the program, Mrs. Lawson sang two of Greig's songs, typical representations of Greig's best and most fantastic work. The first, "In a Boat" is a light and airy tune, a song of the fjords of Norway. The second, "A Swan," with Ibsen's words is one of the grandest songs Greig has ever written. It was sung by Mrs. Lawson, with true feeling and a dramatic interpretation of the climax—the realization that with death came glorious song.

Mrs. Rogers then began her paper giving a concise and lucid synopsis of the first part of the drama "Peer Gynt" and explaining the scene which was to follow, and the epistolical character of the irresponsible Peer Gynt. In the subsequent scene Mrs. Arthur Roper played the part of Peer Gynt and Mrs. James MacMillan the part of Ase, Peer's mother, both in costume. These characterizations were a revelation, showing much talent and a thorough understanding of the play, and must have occasioned a great deal of hard work and intensive study.

Mrs. Rogers and Miss Shaw played a beautiful two-voice duet, "Morning Mood," from Suite I of Greig's Peer Gynt Suite. Mrs. Rogers and Mrs. James MacMillan acted the scene of Ase's death. Mrs. Rogers and Miss Shaw played "Ase's Death" and "Anitra's Dance" from Suite I and after Mrs. Rogers read extracts from the last part of "Peer Gynt," Mrs. Lawson sang Solweig's Song from Suite II, Solweig, the lovely one, the embodiment of the nobleness and unselfishness of womankind, the antithesis of Peer, and also his final salvation.

Mrs. Lawson's last song "Solweig's Slumber Song" also from Suite II, provided a fitting finale to a most enjoyable and instructive entertainment. At the next meeting of the Club, on March 30th, the theme will be "Modern French and Modern Russian Music."—F.R.H.
