—MR. NEWTON STRONG.—The death of Mr. Newton Strong took place at the home of his father, Mr. J. B. Strong, Summerside on Sunday last, after a short illness. He leaves to mourn his father, two sisters, Miss Sarah at home and Mrs. Frank Kunkel of Sydney, C. B. and one brother Alban of "C" Company, 105th. The funeral took place Tuesday morning at 9 o'clock from St. Pauls Church to the Catholic Cemetery. The pall-bearers were Messrs. Charles McLellan, Archibald Sharp, J. J. McInnis, Gus DesRoche, Leonard McNeill and Mark Gaudet. X.

—BURIED AT BEDEQUE.—The funeral of the late Mrs. (Rev.) F. A. Wightman was held in Bedeque Methodist Church on Sunday morning, May 7th. Notwithstanding the short notice, the church was crowded with friends of the deceased, who came to pay their last tribute to one whom everybody loved and respected. The service was conducted by Rev. George Ayers, pastor of the church, who based his remarks upon Rev. 2. 10, "Be Thou Faithful Unto Death and I will give Thee a Crown of Life." During his discourse he brought out the thought of what death cannot rob the Christian of, viz., Fellowship with Christ, the privilege of praising God, opportunities for service, for His word declares "They are before the throne, and serve Him day and night." Nor can death take from the Christian, the influence he has exerted upon others. He spoke in glowing terms of the faithfulness of the deceased, and of her influence for good over all with whom she came in contact, and urged his hearers to follow her example. He said that during his pastorate here, where the deceased had spent the greater part of her life he had never heard her spoken of but in the kindest of terms. "The hymns "Sleep in Jesus blessed sleep," and "Servant of God well done," were most appropriate, and voiced the sentiments of the entire congregation. Mrs. W. W. Jenkins sang "Some day the silver cord will break," and a selection was given by Mrs. (Rev.) Ayers, Mrs. Jenkins, Miss Louise Wright, Mr. Thos. Moyses and Mr. Colin Wright. Her benediction was pronounced, the casket was opened and the friends were given an opportunity to view the remains, and as the congregation passed up one aisle and down the other, the choir sang softly and with much feeling "Silently, Silently, we bury our dead." The writer was impressed with the evidence of universal sorrow, young and old alike were moved to tears as they looked for the last time upon the face of one who had endeared herself to all. Among the very numerous floral offerings were a beautiful pillow from the Bathurst, N. B. congregation of the Methodist Church, and wreaths from the Bedeque W. M. S. Circle and Band of which Mrs. Wightman had been a life member. The pall bearers were: Thos. Wright, Albert Crosby, Jesse Schurman, J. W. Wright, F. W. Davison and Albert Wright. Besides the sorrowing husband and his children, to whom she was a most devoted mother, there are
