Handy Andy Says—

This is the day when the Hardware Man may well congratulate the host of friends who are celebrating. For Labor Day is the observance of better workmanship, a day set apart to give every man who has trained his hands to labor well—one big day. Well because he is on a holiday—every other one of us must take the day off too. For when he stops, everything stops with him. Here's to the laboring man, and to every one of us who enjoy his holidays, stop to remember the men who's unceasing labor give us the biggest good of all, the one real thing of which our prosperity is built.

We Close All Day Labor Day, September 3rd.

EIGHT HUNDRED YEARS OF HISTORY IN PAGEANT FORM.

At Arundel Castle, the home of the fifteen-year old Duke of Norfolk, a pageant was held this month showing the history of the castle for the past eight centuries. To each of the surrounding villages was assigned some incident to be reproduced in the pageant. The picture shows the Castle and its fort for the young owner, the premier Duke of Norfolk, and inset is of England.

STATES TO CO-OPERATE

NEW YORK, Aug. 31—Ignoring a plan sponsored by bituminous coal operators, Governors and representatives of eleven eastern states adopted a resolution today pledging co-operation to Francis R. Wadleigh, Federal Coal Distributor, in any plan he may devise for meeting the fuel shortage that would result from the calling of a strike anthracite miners.

The resolution was offered by Governor Channing Cox, of Massachusetts, at the close of a conference attended by about one hundred persons. It was adopted after state representatives had gone into secret session apart from representatives of other interests and after failure to agree in open conference.

CHEVROLET MILEAGE CONTEST

This Car is Capable of Going Over 50 Miles on a Gallon of Gas

For some time past Chevrolet Motor Company of Canada, Limited and Chevrolet owners generally have been making the claim that the Chevrolet car was the most economical car in the world in cost of operation and that the gasoline mileage to be obtained from it was higher than that of any other car in the world.

Naturally there were skeptics among non-owners, so the company decided to hold a contest amongst its owners and let the owners themselves decide the question. Any owner of any Chevrolet was eligible for the contest so long as he lived in Canada and drove a Canadian-built Chevrolet car and was not connected in any way with the company or any of its dealers.

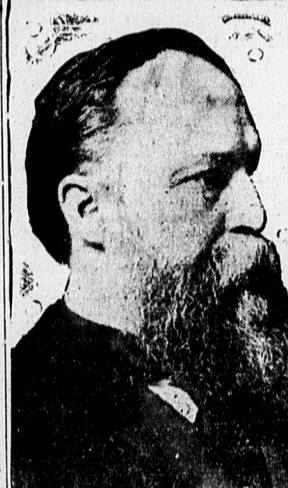

Very strict regulations were drawn up to ensure that the competing cars would be strictly stock cars with no special attachments whatever to motor or carburetor. Mr. J. L. Stewart, Manager Canadian Automotive Trade and Mr. Warren Hastings, Editor of Canadian Motorist consented to act as judges.

To ensure a run long enough to make it necessary to cover all kinds of roads, contestants were required, after thoroughly draining their gas tank and vacuum feed, to put in three gallons of gasoline and drive till the three gallons were used up. In addition, each contestant was required to have two witnesses with him from the time he started to drain his tank till the run was completed.

These witnesses signed the sworn affidavit which the contestant was also required to sign, giving all particulars of the run and the condition of his car.

The results obtained have been most gratifying to the company and to owners and have more than substantiated the claims made as to the car's economy of operation. Four prizes were given for each province with a grand prize for the highest mileage in the whole Dominion. This was done on account of the great difference in road and climatic conditions in the different provinces.

The winner of the great prize was Mr. J. B. Starkey, 11541-87th Street, Edmonton with a mileage of 166.4 or an average of 55.4 miles to the gallon. Mr. Starkey is the manager of the Penn Coal Mine Co. Ltd. and was one of the ten contestants from Edmonton. Previous to this remarkable record Mr. Starkey had made 49.9 miles on one gallon of gas but many people being skeptical the Chevrolet dealers in Edmonton, the Northwest Motors Limited, asked Mr. Starkey to enter the contest and to allow them to advertise the

IN MEMORIAM

THE LATE GUNNER NOAH GARNHUM

The death occurred in the city this morning, after a year's illness of Gunner Noah Garnhum, son of the late John Garnhum.

Gunner Garnhum, who was 33 years of age, enlisted in 1915 in the Prince Edward Island Artillery for service at Halifax. In 1916 he went overseas with the 11th Howitzer Brigade Ammunition Column, under Captain (now Colonel) D. A. MacKinnon.

In the same year he went to France where he saw active service, and where he was badly gassed in 1917 and was invalided to England.

He returned home in 1919, but never recovered from the effects of his gassing in the trenches. Before enlisting he was for a time chief steward on the S. S. Minio and on his return from the war was employed on the railway until failing health compelled him to quit work.

Gunner Garnhum was a young man of excellent character and popular with his associates. He leaves to mourn besides his aged mother, a widow, nee Annie McLean, daughter of Mr. Murdoch McLean, Georgetown, and three children Evelyn, John and George also the following brothers: Charles in the United States, Daniel in Amherst, George, Brent and Jack in Charlottetown.

To the bereaved relatives the Guardian extends sincere sympathy. The funeral which will be conducted with military honours, will be held on Sunday next.

Globe Laundry Opens For Business On Monday, Sept. 3rd.

Citizens will be interested to learn that Mr. J. W. Robblee has embarked in another enterprise that will, no doubt, be a great benefit to the busy housewife. The Blue Bird Laundry, which lately was sold, has been secured by Mr. Robblee and will in future be conducted under the name of "The Globe Laundry."

Mr. Robblee has secured the services of a competent and experienced foreman who with a complete staff of workmen, will be in a position to turn out work quickly and satisfactorily. As most housewives are aware the family wash generally consists of a variety of clothing of different fabrics, each requiring an entirely different treatment in the cleansing process.

The man in charge thoroughly understands this feature and when the family wash is sent here patrons are assured the articles are thoroughly washed, sterilized, rinsed and hydro-extracted before being sent home, ready to "hang out."

The Globe Laundry will call for the family wash, twenty-five pounds will be finished for $1.00, and returned when finished doing away with all the "fuss and muss" of wash-day at the home. Mr. Robblee who is now on his third year in the men's and boys wear and has made a decided success of this line, will no doubt be as successful in his new venture. The Guardian bespeaks for him a deserved share of patronage.

Good the more communicated more abundant grows.

HEMORRHOIDS

Do not suffer another day with itching, bleeding, or protruding Piles or Hemorrhoids. No surgical operation required. Dr. Chase's Ointment will relieve you at once and afford lasting benefit. 60c a box; all dealers, or Edmondson, Bates & Co., Limited, Toronto. Sample box free.
