SCHOOL EXAMINATION AND XMAS TREE

On the evening of December 24th a large number of the ratepayers and others interested attended the semi-annual examination in Summerville School. The school room was very tastefully decorated and a beautiful Xmas tree laden with presents stood in one corner.

of Summerville's youngest teachers. An excellent program of dialogues, recitations and readings then followed. A step dance by Master Seymour Dunn was heartily encouraged; also some choice phonograph selections. Santa Claus then arrived in his usual hasty manner and proceeded at once to strip the tree of its load and make the children's hearts happy.

CHINESE COOLIES IN HALIFAX

(Special to The Guardian.)
HALIFAX, N. S., Jan. 13.—After a trip of 14 days from Liverpool via Havre, the steamer Winifred arrived here today.

When the mother detects from the writhings and fretting of a child that worms are troubling it, she can procure no better remedy than the late John Powders, which are guaranteed to totally expel worms from the system.

McDonald, student of Toronto University. The intelligent and ready answers of the pupils showed the careful training they had received and the thoroughness of their work.

The death occurred in San Francisco on Dec. 20, of Allan J. MacDonald, son of the late James A. and Ellen MacDonald, of Glenfield, man, aged 54 years. He leaves to mourn three sisters, Mrs. Norman McIntyre, Milcovie, Mrs. Alex. McDonald and Catherine, of Glenfield. His three brothers predeceased him, viz., Rev. Damisen J. A. James and D. J. MacDonald. He resided in San Francisco for the last twenty-five years. His funeral took place on December 23rd, at 9 o'clock, from 1618 Garry street, to St. Dominic's church, where a Requiem High Mass was celebrated for his soul. Interment was in St. Mary's cemetery, Oakland.

MRS. M. D. MATHESON.
There passed away on December 3rd, 1919 Mrs. M. D. Matheson wife of M. D. Matheson, Rose Valley, Mrs. Matheson was the daughter of the late John Matheson, who was born at Montague Head, 74 years ago. She was the last of a family of nine. Mrs. Matheson was a woman of rare qualities of heart and mind. Her face shone with kindness and cheerfulness that made her a welcome to her hospitable home and there were many who received tangible proofs of her generosity. A devout member of church and a christian wife and mother her memory will long be held in fond remembrance. She leaves to mourn, her husband, one son Donald E., at home, and two daughters in the United States, Mrs. Donald McPherson of Cambridge and Mrs. Rachael McPhee of West Newton. The funeral service which was largely attended was conducted by her pastor the Rev. John Stirling. Interment was in Hartsville Cemetery.

MRS. CHARLES RICHARDS
There passed away at the home of her son, Mr. Benjamin Richards, Murray Harbor North, on Saturday December 20, one of the best and most favorably known of the older ladies of the community, the person of Mrs. Charles Richards. For some months she had been in failing health, but her fine strong constitution enabled her to go about until within a few days of her death, and when the end came she passed to her heavenly home as peacefully as a child falls asleep. Mrs. Richards was seventy eight years of age and leaves to mourn three daughters and two sons, Mrs. E. Irving, Mrs. J. Irving, Mrs. S. Leeco, John Thomas and Benjamin. Two sisters also survive, Mrs. Butler and Mrs. MacLeod. Mr. Richards, husband of the deceased, died on April 5, 1905. Mrs. Richards' funeral was conducted by the Rev. Mr. Sutherland on Monday afternoon to the Murray Harbor North Cemetery, and attended by a good number of her neighbors and friends of the community.

MR. JOSEPH SAULNIER.
There passed peacefully away at North Rustico, on Dec. 8th, Joseph Saulnier, at the early age of 42 years. The deceased had been in failing health for some years. During the past six months he had taken a number of bad turns, and a few weeks before his death he began to fail quite rapidly until, on the above mentioned date, his spirit took its flight. He was a dutiful and efficient member of the Catholic church. Rev. Chaisson transmitted to him the last rites of the church, and prepared him for a happy death, which he always ard-

FINLEY MCKINNON.
On the early morning of Thursday, Dec. 18, there passed to his eternal rest, Finley McKinnon, an aged and respected resident of Brookfield. Born there seventy-five years ago, he was a life-long citizen of that place. He was a faithful member of the Church of Scotland, and a man of many good qualities. His kind, hearty, sociable manner made for him many friends. He leaves to mourn his loss and cherish the memory of a kind and loving husband and father, a sorrowing widow and three sons and three daughters; Malcolm, Jessie and John of Winnipeg; Mrs. John A. McLeod, of Dartington, and the homestead; also two sisters, Mrs. Katherine and Finley, of the homestead; also two sisters, Mrs. Matheson of Dorchester, Mass., and Mrs. A. N. McLeod, of Brookfield. The funeral service, which was very largely attended, was conducted by Rev. T. W. Goodwill. The pall bearers were D. J. McInnis, F. C. Dollar, J. H. Paul, Myles McDonald, J. B. Dollar, and Nelson Bell. All that was mortal of an upright man and good neighbor was laid to rest in Brookfield cemetery.
