OAKLAND, Cal., Aug. 30.—President Calvin Coolidge referred to as "C. C." was always worth hearing when in college, according to a biographical sketch in the annual published in connection with the twenty-fifth reunion of the class of '95 at New York in 1920 a copy of which is owned here by Nelson Kingsland, Newspaperman and classmate of the new president. The book contains the following sketch on Coolidge: "Other folks may think Calvin Coolidge is famous because he has been a member of the city council of Northampton, city solicitor for Northampton, clerk of the courts of Hampshire county, member of Massachusetts senate, Lieutenant Governor of Massachusetts, governor of Massachusetts. "We of '95 know that he is famous just because he is Calvin Coolidge. That is why we used to listen so eagerly to him when he was in college and why we made him Grove Orator in senior year. Whether on the Hyde Fifteen or at a boarding house table, or anywhere else, when 'C. C.' spoke he always said something worth hearing. In senior year he won the medal offered by the Sons of the Revolution for the best essay on the 'Principles of the War for American Independence,' competing with undergraduates in all American colleges. "After leaving Amherst he studied law in the offices of Hammond and Field of Northampton and was admitted to the bar in 1897. In 1899 he entered upon his career in public life when he became city councillor of Northampton. "Coolidge has made a great number of brilliant epigrammatical speeches in which he has hit the hills and classrooms of Amherst. The best of these remarkable addresses are published under the title of 'Have Faith in Massachusetts. "He is a member of the Union and University Clubs of Boston. "The fact that he has risen high in public office and that he was at the 1920 convention, demanded by many for the position of president of the United States, do not rest at all upon self-seeking ambition for he does not seek offices offices seek him. His courage in mastering the police strike in Boston is only a part of his rockribbed integrity of character that we all recognized when he was in Amherst twenty-five years ago. "We in '95 do not honor him for his high office; we honor him just as all people do—because he is Calvin Coolidge. Like Abraham Lincoln, a unique personality, a real man in an age when the world needs real men. "Grove Orator" distributes the prizes of humorous character to popular students and "Hyde Fifteen" refers to the fifteen men selected by the professors to try for a position on the team of six who complete in oratory for an annual prize.

BUSINESS SLUMPS IN JAPAN AS STRIKES HALT INDUSTRY TOKIO, Aug. 30.—Each month since January has shown an increasing business depression in Japan, although early in the year it seemed business was improving. As a result there has been a marked increase in unemployment and labor troubles. During June Approximately 25,000 men were involved in strikes. These strikes were due in a large measure to the discharge of workmen by the larger factories, the men retained striking as a protest against the discharge—allowances given their fellow workmen whose services had been dispensed with.
