ROSS—BRADY.—The Presbyterian Church at Mount Stewart was the scene of a pretty wedding on Wednesday last, the 11th inst when Miss Margaret Isabel Ross, daughter of Mrs. James McCarthy of that place became the wife of Mr. James Albert Brady of Turner & Co., Charlottetown. The ceremony was performed by Rev. R. L. Coffin, B. A. The bride wore white crepe de chene and georgette and carried a handsome bouquet of white roses, carnations and maiden hair fern. The bridesmaid, Miss Grace Coffin, wore a costume of pink silk and georgette and carried a beautiful bouquet of pink and red roses. The groom was supported by Mr. Ray Tinney, of the Experimental Station, Charlottetown. After the wedding, a reception was held at the home of the bride, at which a large number of invited guests were present. There were many beautiful and valuable wedding gifts.

ARMY AND NAVY W. A. MEETING.—A meeting of the Ladies Auxiliary of the Army and Navy Association was held yesterday afternoon in their rooms. Quite a large amount of business was transacted. Mrs. Ledwell reported that the sum of $205.00 had been realized by the lottery of the picture so kindly donated by Stipendiary Magistrate Martin. It was resolved to send a sum of money to assist Miss Hillcoat and the nursing sisters who are providing Christmas gifts for the soldiers to be given them from their tree on Christmas eve. It was decided to send to each of the soldiers at present in the P. E. Island and Charlottetown Hospitals individual Xmas gifts and to entertain the soldiers, and also to provide refreshments for them at the Convalescent Home on New Years Eve. A resolution was passed that the Society would organize and undertake the collecting for the Patriotic Fund and Red Cross in January.

Dr. Leo Frank, Southport. 3057-12-19m31.

JUVENILES IN DRAMA.—"The Man with two Countries" was the title of a very well acted little play put on by the Boy Scouts in St. Peter's Hall last evening. The proceeds go towards procuring new uniforms for the Scouts. The stage settings were nicely arranged. The cast of the play was as follows: Schaefer the shoemaker, W. C. Whitlock, Mma, his grand-daughter, Isabel Acorn; Weyman, a lawyer, Jack Johnson; Sgt. Slocum, H. Meek; Soldiers, Ralph Harris, Art Burn, Leo Vatcher, R. Weeks. A solo by Mr. P. Barlow was a pleasant feature. The play will be repeated this evening with more additional features when the admission fee will be only ten cents.

LAD TO REST.—The funeral of the late Gunner Damien Leonard of the 9th Siege Battery whose death from influenza occurred in St. John, N. B., took place yesterday. There was a very large attendance of people from his home in Cornwall and vicinity and when the cortege entered the city it was joined by a military escort from the Depot Battalion with six military men as pall bearers. After service at St. Dunstan's Cathedral the remains were conveyed to the Catholic cemetery where the last rites were said and a buzzer sounded "the last post." The death of this excellent young man in the very bloom of life is deeply regretted.
