COOKS for Photographs. CONFEDERATION LIFE INSURANCE. ALL HATS reduced to 50 cents at The Fashion Shoppe. TRAIN ARRIVAL - The passenger train arrived at 7:40 with 98 passengers last evening.

FAREWELL PRESENTATION - Mr. Patrick J. Bolger, has been called for military training. He has been a member of the Staff of the Provincial Bank, Summerside, and before leaving was presented with a lovely Military Set by the Manager and Staff of the Bank.

HOME BEREAVED - Mrs. Louisa Barrow, Summerside, has received the sad news of the death of her brother, Christopher Bryenton, Litchfield, Ohio, which occurred on March 12. Mrs. Barrow was formerly of Union Road, Lot 33, P. E. I., son of the late Christmas Bryenton.

FUNERAL SERVICE HELD - Funeral service for the late John Murray was held at the Island Funeral Home yesterday afternoon. The service was conducted by the Rev. G. Carlyle Webster, after which the remains were interred at Victoria West, where funeral service and interment will take place this afternoon.

RESPOND TO TWO CALLS - The firemen responded to two calls last night, but on both occasions, they were away only a few minutes when they had the fire under control. At 8:35 they were called to the Roxton Restaurant to extinguish a fire there and at 9:30 the call was to Howard MacLennan's Shoe store where an awning caught fire from a cigarette butt, it was thought. Both places are on Great George Street.

ANNUAL LUNCHEON - The annual luncheon of the Study Lovers Club was held at the Charlottetown Club, guests included, Mrs. Page, Mrs. Hill, Mrs. Miss Gill, eleven members attended. The president, Mrs. Cecil Stewart was presented with a bouquet of flowers and out flowers while Mrs. Wilkins, the secretary, also received bouquets in appreciation of her work as secretary. Regret was expressed at the absence through illness of Mrs. MacCreedy and Mrs. (Dr.) Tidmarsh.

FUNERAL YESTERDAY - The funeral of Mr. James Clinton was held yesterday morning from his late residence, 7 Bishop Street to St. Basil's where Rev. Patrick McGaughey officiated. The service was conducted by Rev. Phelan McKenna. The pallbearers were Messrs. William Hennessy, Patrick McGaughey, Watson McKinnon, Robert Waking, Augustus McCarthy and Peter McAleer. Service at the grave in the Roman Catholic cemetery was conducted by Rev. L. Dougan.

ENOYABLE BANQUET - Last night an enjoyable banquet was tendered the cast of 'Irish Justice', the popular production staged at the Charlottetown Club. The banquet was held at the Queen Hotel, was given by the Benevolent Irish Society, who sponsored the play. Mr. J. R. LeClair, the director presided and Mr. Thomas McAvlin, president of the B. I. S., and Mr. John Callahan, treasurer of the society, were present.

CAR FERRY MOVEMENTS - Yesterday the car ferry S.S. 'Prince Edward Island' completed 7 return trips before 9 P.M., making all the crossings in the province. On these trips 38 loads of mixed freight and 50 empty refrigerator cars were transported to the Island from the mainland. Loading of the ferry was 6 car loads of potatoes and turnips and 16 empty coal, box and tank cars. This left about 48 loads and 50 reefers on the New Brunswick side awaiting transportation here. It was expected that all the freight at the Borden terminal would be cleared away before midnight last night.

CIVILIAN DEFENCE COMMITTEE MEETS - Plans are underway to organize a chemical warfare class when the necessary personnel is obtained. It was announced at last night's meeting of the Charlottetown Civilian Defence Committee. Dr. J. A. MacMillan is to instruct the class. Report of the blackout held on Thursday night and the list of all offenders were read to the meeting. The Supervisor was instructed to write all guilty of offences against the A. R. P. regulations. Arrangements were made for a meeting of the department heads of the local A. R. P. to be held on Monday next. Mayor B. Roy Holman presided at last night's meeting and those present included: Dr. J. A. MacMillan, H. A. Messervey, Fire Chief Angus McEachern, Major W. H. Poole, R. B. Hurst, Dr. J. A. MacMillan, H. A. Messervey, Major W. H. Poole, R. B. Hurst, Dr. J. A. MacMillan, H. A.
