

An Improvement on Nature.

Nature gives us fruit to keep us healthy. But fruit can't bring back health after we lose it. It takes something more effective than fresh fruit to cure Stomach, Liver and Kidney Diseases.

Fruit-a-tives
or Fruit Liver Tablets

are fruit juices in tablet form. We improve on nature by our secret process. By it, we so change the medicinal action of the fruit, that "Fruit-a-tives" are rendered effective enough to cure Constipation, Biliousness, Torpid Liver, Indigestion and Sick Kidneys.

THERE IS NO DOUBT about pleasing the recipient when you give him or her a nice piece of furniture.

If it is a Lady a pretty Rattan or Cobler Seat Rocker would be sure to please.

If a Gentleman

what could possibly give him more pleasure than a nice comfortable Morris Chair to get into when he comes home in the evening?

We have a great variety of both fancy rockers and Morris Chairs—which are marked very low. Come in and look round whether you want to buy or not.

Hints for Girls.
Some one has suggested twelve things that every girl can learn before she is fifteen. Not every girl can learn to play or sing or paint well enough to give pleasure to her friends, but the following "accomplishments" are within everybody's reach: Shut the door, and shut it softly. Keep your room in tasteful order. Have an hour for rising and rise. Learn to make bread as well as cake. Never let a button stay off twenty-four hours. Always know where your things are. Never let a day pass without doing something to make some one comfortable. Never come to breakfast untidily dressed.

A Tax on Theatre Tickets.
Victoria will probably be the first British community to levy a tax on amusements for the support of local charitable institutions. Mr. Bent, the Premier, proposes a tax of a penny on every shilling spent in the purchase of theatre tickets. The Melbourne theatrical managers are alarmed at this proposal, which they say, means a levy of 8 per cent. on their gross takings. They have had a long conference with the Premier, but did not succeed in convincing him to their way of thinking.—London Chronicle.

Palpitation of the Heart—Nervous Prostration—Cured by Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills.

Mr. Ray V. Cormier had a very trying experience while at College, but thank to Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills, he has been restored to health. He tells his experience in the following letter to us:—
"Wellington Station, P.E.I., Dec. 3rd, 1908."
"Messrs. The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ontario."
"Gentlemen—Having been cured of a very troublesome disease, I find it my duty to write you a few lines. I was troubled with a very great palpitation of the heart and nervous prostration. I was attacked with it at College and could not follow up the games of the University without becoming very fatigued. I could not descend the stairs without resting half way. I have left College, and am working in a general store, where I found your famous pills. I used three boxes, and am now completely cured. I cannot thank you enough for what you have done for me. I am sending you a letter for the purpose of benefiting anyone who is suffering as I did. My home is in Seabrook, N.S., but at present am on Prince Edward Island."
Remain, dear sirs, RAY V. CORMIER.

A FORERUNNER OF CHRISTMAS

Pleasure and Profit are Combined in a Visit to Carter & Co's Beautiful Christmas Show-ing at their well Stocked Store

To combine real pleasure with an afternoon's sight seeing is not only probable but positive to the anxious Christmas shopper who takes in the attractions of Carter & Co's elegant showing of articles suitable for Christmas presents. And as it is simply impossible to enumerate them all in their wonderful beauty and many varieties, one scarcely knows where to commence, first in what must needs be, but a partial description. Dear to the feminine heart always, is the china, and surely Carter & Co. have provided an exquisite array of dainty wares for their choice. The china department is in the rear of the store, and tables with dainty goods to choose from at 10, 25, 50c, and $1.00 offer value in some instances double of what is asked. One large table of cheese and butter dishes, salad bowls, toast racks, cake plates etc., is offered at half the original price, and the bargain hunter can revel in pretty things at half value there. The Japanese ware is simply exquisite; five o'clock tea sets, bon bon dishes, single cups and saucers, cake plates, jardinières and many other things in abundance temptingly displayed and cheaply priced. But the connoisseur in china pauses in openly expressed admiration at the magnificence of the Vienna Ware and verily it beggars description. Most beautiful shades of green and crimson are finished with gold. If one may so express it, and the ware is elegant enough for a gift to a king. Cups and saucers of antique pattern, vases, bon bon dishes, dinner, cake and tea plates, jars and vases, no two pieces alike are shown in this ware, and a rare treat it is to even look at anything so lovely. Then there is Duke China in all the different pieces including berry sets, and an enormous variety of miscellaneous goods, such as chocolate jugs, porridge sets, &c. etc.

In a prominent place one sees the ever popular and quick selling Raphael Tuck's Calendars, the very name of which stands for beauty, elegance and the customer's satisfaction. Also a fine line of Christmas cards and booklets.

Passing on to the Fancy Papereries one finds many suggestions for dainty gifts, the makes being Holland Linen and in white, azure, distaff blue, pink and cream, all done up in dainty boxes, which when empty of their present contents will be an addition to any lady's toilet table.

The famous Parker Fountain Pen is there, laying big claim for patronage as a gift for a gentleman, "The Lucky Curve" roving in plain handles, and gold mounted. Also, dainty pearl handled gold pens for ladies, each and all in pretty cases.

The lover of books will find the only difficulty in the final decision as to which to take. All the series so well known, such as Elsie, Pansy, Jessie, Mildred, etc. are only 45c each, along with a choice edition of Henty's Books at 75c. But the bound editions of the poets are most bewildering in their beauty and variety. To mention a few: An edition bound in lizard leather, its exquisite grey and white shades with the monogram of the author in crimson and gold. Others in red, green and black Morocco; an gold; more in Russia leather, each and every one a marvel of beauty. Then there are the undressed leather editions and the Medalion. A very beautiful Birth-day Book are bound in Russia leather, has a tiny spray of Forget-me-nots on the cover, the inside pages being of gold and forget-me-nots. As to the miscellaneous books, their name is legion, as well as the variety and bindings. In leather goods an elegant line of purses, card cases and purses combined, letter cases etc. are shown in real seal and alligator leather, a chic line of small finger purses being shown of pig skin. Also ladies' hand bags in great variety. The show case on the left of the entrance contains a magnificent array of elegant goods for the Christmas shopper, and while one lingers almost fascinated at all the many beauties the spacious lower lip holds, eager hurrying feet to the upstairs portion bids us follow, and we too find ourselves in what is familiarly known as.

WHAT CAME OF A LETTER.
My Dear Aunt Kate:
I must tell you the good news. Right after receiving your letter, the day before New Year's, I started in with new resolutions on the first of the year. I wrote to Dr. R. V. Pierce, at Buffalo, N. Y., as you requested me to do. I gave him all my symptoms, which were that I was tired—no tired—all the time and did not care to go anywhere, depressed and sad, and all feeling long, deep breathing, expanding the lungs. Then for a uterine tonic, Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, coupled with a wash he told me of. I must say that after following his advice for four months I feel perfectly cured and like a new woman.
Yours affectionally,
JEWEL.
Letters like the above are not unusual. Mrs. Kooman, of the Grand Ave., Schenectady, N. Y., says: "I continued with the medicine until I had taken five bottles, also two vials of the Pleasant Pellets, and I was cured. I always recommend Dr. Pierce's medicines to my friends when they are not well."
My daughter is in excellent health, thanks to Dr. Pierce's medicines. My wishes are that all who are afflicted will try them and see what good can be done for the sick," writes Mrs. Elizabeth McConnell, of Rochester, Ind.
Send us one-cent stamps to Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y., for his Common Sense Medical Advertiser, 100¢ pages.

Why Smith's Triple Cure Cures Dyspepsia and Catarrh.

No treatment in the world cures dyspepsia and catarrh so thoroughly and completely as Smith's Triple Cure. The reason for such wonderful results is simple and obvious—because this grand triple cure system fully removes the usual cause of dyspepsia—the catarrh of the stomach. Smith's Triple Cure by its combined action on the blood, nerves and mucous membranes cures catarrh wherever located. It drives the poison out of the system and cleans the mucous membranes so completely that catarrh cannot exist or find lodgment.

Dyspepsia may start with a neglected cold in the head or a sore throat extending down into the stomach and setting up catarrh of the stomach. The catarrhal process may result from too rapid eating, overloading the stomach, using badly cooked food, and indulging too freely in ice drinks and stimulants. Smith's Triple Cure cures any case of this kind because it is a foe to catarrh. When you once recognize the fact that dyspepsia is usually caused by catarrh of the stomach, you can understand why Smith's Triple Cure is invariably successful in curing dyspepsia.

People who eat too fast, too much, and too often, who suffer with dyspepsia, heartburn, indigestion, palpitation and nervous weakness, should use Smith's Triple Cure which gives such sufferers quick and positive help—its use always leads to cures that are lasting. This grand treatment gives new vigor to the overworked and dyspeptic stomach. Begin its use at once. Ask your dealer for Smith's Triple Cure for Catarrh, Dyspepsia and the Blood. A grand new system of four separate remedies, a full two weeks' treatment, curing catarrh in any part of the system, price only 50 cents, the greatest value for the money ever offered. If your druggist won't supply you send 25 two-cent stamps and we will send it postpaid and guarantee safe delivery. Address W. F. Smith Co., 185 St. James St., Montreal.

"SANTA CLAUS' HEADQUARTERS"
The tasteful decoration of this department is a noticeable feature. Chinese lanterns hang from every available portion of the ceiling. Colored paper provides the necessary coloring, while everywhere are seen the toys for which Santa is famous.

On different tables are arranged toys at 5, 15, and 25c; toys in endless variety; big toys, and small toys, but toys that the children delight in every time.

The mechanical toys are simply wonderful; spiders, bugs and mice creep wearily along, real steam engines puff and whistle, Steam Boats, magic lanterns, hot air Motors, merry clowns and dancers, and numberless others. 35 cts buys a good strong toy and one can range in price to almost anything one chooses to pay. Typewriters in two sizes enable the children to write letters in clear, fine print, and help them in their spelling too; music boxes in different varieties, children's dishes, and what not? Of the mechanical toys, it can be truly said that they include the very latest and newest in their line.

And verily "DOLL LAND" in all its beauty is at Carter & Co's. From one cent to six dollars the prices range, and the child in line with the prices. French Dolls, Russian Dolls, Dressed Dolls, Wool Dolls, Rubber Dolls, Kid Dolls, Rag Dolls, and Doll heads, are the infants of Carter & Co's Doll
