

Important Provincial News of the week for Saturday Subscribers.

At the police court in this city on Saturday the prohibition case against P. J. Doyle, the steward of the Charlottetown Club, was further adjourned for a week.

Recent contributions to the Campbellton Fire Subscribers acknowledged contain the following: Covehead, P. E.I. per Rev Ed McCurdy, $51.00; People of French River, Irisatouan, and vicinity, $31.75. Supplies, Richard Hunt, Summerside, 1 case trousers; W. E. M. Society, Kensington Presbyterian Church, 2 cases clothing.

By a telegram received at this office on Saturday evening, it was learned that Percy Peardon and Geo. Prowse of the Victoria A. A. of this city, had won all the bicycle races in Halifax on that day at the Wanderers' sports. Peardon captured the three mile event and Prowse won the one and five mile distances. No time was given. The boys are to be congratulated on their success.

The Guardian regrets to announce the painful accident which occurred Saturday p. m. at the wholesale house of Geo. G. & Co., when George Vandierstine had the misfortune of having an artery severed in his ankle. Dr. Conroy attended the wound and the patient is now doing as well as might be expected. The employees of both departments look forward to his early recovery.

Many citizens will hear with regret the death of Miss Penelope McNutt of Darnley, aged 88 years. Miss McNutt was an estimable Christian lady and a survivor of that generation who rendered well Dr. John Keir and Dr. Gaudin, the first missionaries of the Presbyterian Church, and delighted to recall and speak about the fine men and women of that time. Hon. Peter McNutt is a brother-in-law and his many friends will be glad to know that he is improving after a serious illness.

A young man, respectably dressed and having a good appearance, yesterday afternoon, entered the bookstore of Gray & Ritchie, King St., and after having made several purchases, tendered the young lady who was waiting on him a $2 bill, bearing the mark of a Prince Edward Island bank. He said he was sure that there was no such bank in existence at present, the bill was not accepted. It was old and well worn, and this was what attracted attention to it, as well as the serial work stamped upon it. It is thought that there are other bills of this description being circulated, and the knowledge should be careful. The young man who proffered the note, said he had received it at the exhibition, St. John Telegraph.

The death occurred in this city yesterday afternoon of Peter R. Happenny, who has been suffering from Bright's disease for the past two and a half years. The deceased was for fifteen years, prior to his illness, in the employ of the Prince Edward Island Railway as brakeman and afterwards became a contractor. He was well and favorably known by all with whom he came in contact and was a general favorite with his fellow workers. He leaves to mourn a widow and four children, two sons and two daughters, also a widowed mother, three sisters and three brothers who reside in the United States. The funeral notice is in another column. The Guardian extends sympathy to the bereaved.

The death took place at the residence of his father-in-law Wm. H. Brown, Summerside, on Saturday last, of Dr Paul T. McKay of Kensington, after an illness of several months. Dr. McKay was the son of the late George B. McKay, Clinton, and was forty-three years of age. At nineteen he graduated from Prince of Wales College taking a first class teachers license and for several years was on the teaching staff of Summerside High School. In 1892 he entered McGill, graduating in 1896, and receiving the degree of M.D., C.M. On his return to this Province he practised for a short time in Summerside afterwards removing to Clinton where he remained about one year, since which time he has carried on a successful practise in Kensington until his last illness. In 1897 he married Miss Lucy, daughter of Wm. H. Brown, Summerside, who with two children Eric and Jane, survive him, also five brothers W. K. in Edmonton, John in Western Canada, Archibald in United States, Wellington in New Brunswick and Hugh at Clinton. Also two sisters Mrs Nicholson of Stanley Bridge and Mrs McEwen, Clinton. The funeral takes place from Kensington.

At Tignish on Saturday last before Stipendiary Wright, on information of Inspector Gough, two Prohibition cases came up for hearing. The case against P. B. Lewis of Alberton was adjourned until Friday next and that against Thomas Lynch of Tignish, was also adjourned until Tuesday next. A. C. Saunders, Summerside, appeared for Lewis and Norman Campbell, Charlottetown for Lynch. Inspector Gough conducting his own cases.

The S. S. Bonnavista arrived here from Montreal Saturday evening at five o'clock with a number of passengers and a large general cargo. She sailed Saturday at midnight for St. John's, Nfld., via Sydney. Her outward cargo from here consisted of 1,300 bags of oats, 130 bags of potatoes, 150 boxes of vegetables, 125 hales of hay, 50 head of cattle, 100 sheep, 100 sheep and sundry other cargo. There were seven outward passengers from Charlottetown to Sydney and St. John's, Nfld.

Yesterday in St. Peter's Cathedral there was celebrated the Bicentenary of the Church of England in Canada. The ceremonies on this occasion were impressive, the officiating clergymen being Rev. Father W. H. Van Allen, of the church of the Advent, Boston, who occupied the pulpit morning and evening, Canon Vroom, King's College, Windsor, who officiated at the celebration of Holy Communion in the morning, and Canon Simpson. In the morning, at eleven o'clock, Van Allen delivered an excellent discourse touching on the occasion of the celebration by the church. He spoke from Ephesians 3, 20-21. He began by referring to the spirit which moved the apostle Paul to write the words of the text as a message to his people. "Now unto him that is able to do exceeding abundantly above all that we ask or think according to the power that worketh in us, unto him the glory in the church by Christ Jesus throughout all ages," and spoke of the church teaching throughout the gospel. The speaker delivered no more appropriate message to the congregation on the occasion of his first visit to "The Garden of the Gulf" than the words in the text. Proceeding he defined to conception of the churches of today, the Protestant and the Catholic, which, he said, were absolutely inconsistent. There was no way of harmonizing the two, wrong and the other was that of a purely human and voluntary institution, its members agreeing in common preference and taste probably under the leadership of some great man. The Catholic conception was that of the church our Lord built for all time and He will be with that church unto the end of the world and no evil can prevail against it. The conception says the Catholic church is clearly recognizable in all lands and ages with one Lord, one Faith and one Baptism. The visible unity of the Catholic church is marked off by only three divisions: The Oriental, the Roman and the Anglican. The Protestants, established 500 years ago, are divided into hundreds of bodies each called a church. Referring to the selection of a church, he said it was not a matter of choice. The Catholic Church was the mother church and had no more liberty of choice than a child had in choosing its mother. In the church, he said, is the witness of the Church. He referred to the permanency of the Catholic Church. While other denominations rose and fell, this Church remained unshaken with nothing to do. Divisions impaired the strength of Christ's people. He referred to the responsibility of individuals whose lives should reflect the doctrines of Catholic Church. He concluded by exhorting the congregation to be faithful going Catholics in life, faith and prayer. In the evening a solemn Te Deum was sung and at both services special prayers were offered appropriate to the occasion. The Church was very largely attended on both occasions.

Yesterday in St. Peter's Cathedral there was celebrated the Bicentenary of the Church of England in Canada. The ceremonies on this occasion were impressive, the officiating clergymen being Rev. Father W. H. Van Allen, of the church of the Advent, Boston, who occupied the pulpit morning and evening, Canon Vroom, King's College, Windsor, who officiated at the celebration of Holy Communion in the morning, and Canon Simpson. In the morning, at eleven o'clock, Van Allen delivered an excellent discourse touching on the occasion of the celebration by the church. He spoke from Ephesians 3, 20-21. He began by referring to the spirit which moved the apostle Paul to write the words of the text as a message to his people. "Now unto him that is able to do exceeding abundantly above all that we ask or think according to the power that worketh in us, unto him the glory in the church by Christ Jesus throughout all ages," and spoke of the church teaching throughout the gospel. The speaker delivered no more appropriate message to the congregation on the occasion of his first visit to "The Garden of the Gulf" than the words in the text. Proceeding he defined to conception of the churches of today, the Protestant and the Catholic, which, he said, were absolutely inconsistent. There was no way of harmonizing the two, wrong and the other was that of a purely human and voluntary institution, its members agreeing in common preference and taste probably under the leadership of some great man. The Catholic conception was that of the church our Lord built for all time and He will be with that church unto the end of the world and no evil can prevail against it. The conception says the Catholic church is clearly recognizable in all lands and ages with one Lord, one Faith and one Baptism. The visible unity of the Catholic church is marked off by only three divisions: The Oriental, the Roman and the Anglican. The Protestants, established 500 years ago, are divided into hundreds of bodies each called a church. Referring to the selection of a church, he said it was not a matter of choice. The Catholic Church was the mother church and had no more liberty of choice than a child had in choosing its mother. In the church, he said, is the witness of the Church. He referred to the permanency of the Catholic Church. While other denominations rose and fell, this Church remained unshaken with nothing to do. Divisions impaired the strength of Christ's people. He referred to the responsibility of individuals whose lives should reflect the doctrines of Catholic Church. He concluded by exhorting the congregation to be faithful going Catholics in life, faith and prayer. In the evening a solemn Te Deum was sung and at both services special prayers were offered appropriate to the occasion. The Church was very largely attended on both occasions.

The S. S. Bonnavista arrived here from Montreal Saturday evening at five o'clock with a number of passengers and a large general cargo. She sailed Saturday at midnight for St. John's, Nfld., via Sydney. Her outward cargo from here consisted of 1,300 bags of oats, 130 bags of potatoes, 150 boxes of vegetables, 125 hales of hay, 50 head of cattle, 100 sheep, 100 sheep and sundry other cargo. There were seven outward passengers from Charlottetown to Sydney and St. John's, Nfld.

Yesterday in St. Peter's Cathedral there was celebrated the Bicentenary of the Church of England in Canada. The ceremonies on this occasion were impressive, the officiating clergymen being Rev. Father W. H. Van Allen, of the church of the Advent, Boston, who occupied the pulpit morning and evening, Canon Vroom, King's College, Windsor, who officiated at the celebration of Holy Communion in the morning, and Canon Simpson. In the morning, at eleven o'clock, Van Allen delivered an excellent discourse touching on the occasion of the celebration by the church. He spoke from Ephesians 3, 20-21. He began by referring to the spirit which moved the apostle Paul to write the words of the text as a message to his people. "Now unto him that is able to do exceeding abundantly above all that we ask or think according to the power that worketh in us, unto him the glory in the church by Christ Jesus throughout all ages," and spoke of the church teaching throughout the gospel. The speaker delivered no more appropriate message to the congregation on the occasion of his first visit to "The Garden of the Gulf" than the words in the text. Proceeding he defined to conception of the churches of today, the Protestant and the Catholic, which, he said, were absolutely inconsistent. There was no way of harmonizing the two, wrong and the other was that of a purely human and voluntary institution, its members agreeing in common preference and taste probably under the leadership of some great man. The Catholic conception was that of the church our Lord built for all time and He will be with that church unto the end of the world and no evil can prevail against it. The conception says the Catholic church is clearly recognizable in all lands and ages with one Lord, one Faith and one Baptism. The visible unity of the Catholic church is marked off by only three divisions: The Oriental, the Roman and the Anglican. The Protestants, established 500 years ago, are divided into hundreds of bodies each called a church. Referring to the selection of a church, he said it was not a matter of choice. The Catholic Church was the mother church and had no more liberty of choice than a child had in choosing its mother. In the church, he said, is the witness of the Church. He referred to the permanency of the Catholic Church. While other denominations rose and fell, this Church remained unshaken with nothing to do. Divisions impaired the strength of Christ's people. He referred to the responsibility of individuals whose lives should reflect the doctrines of Catholic Church. He concluded by exhorting the congregation to be faithful going Catholics in life, faith and prayer. In the evening a solemn Te Deum was sung and at both services special prayers were offered appropriate to the occasion. The Church was very largely attended on both occasions.

The S. S. Bonnavista arrived here from Montreal Saturday evening at five o'clock with a number of passengers and a large general cargo. She sailed Saturday at midnight for St. John's, Nfld., via Sydney. Her outward cargo from here consisted of 1,300 bags of oats, 130 bags of potatoes, 150 boxes of vegetables, 125 hales of hay, 50 head of cattle, 100 sheep, 100 sheep and sundry other cargo. There were seven outward passengers from Charlottetown to Sydney and St. John's, Nfld.

The S. S. Bonnavista arrived here from Montreal Saturday evening at five o'clock with a number of passengers and a large general cargo. She sailed Saturday at midnight for St. John's, Nfld., via Sydney. Her outward cargo from here consisted of 1,300 bags of oats, 130 bags of potatoes, 150 boxes of vegetables, 125 hales of hay, 50 head of cattle, 100 sheep, 100 sheep and sundry other cargo. There were seven outward passengers from Charlottetown to Sydney and St. John's, Nfld.

The S. S. Bonnavista arrived here from Montreal Saturday evening at five o'clock with a number of passengers and a large general cargo. She sailed Saturday at midnight for St. John's, Nfld., via Sydney. Her outward cargo from here consisted of 1,300 bags of oats, 130 bags of potatoes, 150 boxes of vegetables, 125 hales of hay, 50 head of cattle, 100 sheep, 100 sheep and sundry other cargo. There were seven outward passengers from Charlottetown to Sydney and St. John's, Nfld.

Hood's Sarsaparilla

Acts directly and peculiarly on the blood; purifies, enriches and revitalizes it, and in this way builds up the whole system. Take it.

There is no "just-as-good" medicine. Insist on having Hood's. Get it today.

The marriage of Miss Myrtle Jane, daughter of Elias and Mrs. Coffin, to George Edgar Piggett of Annapolis Valley, N. S., took place Wednesday evening, Sept 7th, at the residence of the bride's parents, Savage Harbor, West. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Murray of Mount Stewart in the presence of the immediate relatives and some intimate friends of the contracting parties. The parlor was very prettily decorated with flowers. Miss Blanch McBeath of Marshfield, cousin of the bride wore a handsome gown of cream silk with applique trimmings and was unattended. The groom's gift to the bride was a cheque and to Miss McBeath a gold brooch set with amethysts. Mr. and Mrs. Piggett left on Thursday on a trip to Boston and New York and other points of interest and will be at home after September 25th at Annapolis Valley, N. S.

The marriage of Miss Myrtle Jane, daughter of Elias and Mrs. Coffin, to George Edgar Piggett of Annapolis Valley, N. S., took place Wednesday evening, Sept 7th, at the residence of the bride's parents, Savage Harbor, West. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Murray of Mount Stewart in the presence of the immediate relatives and some intimate friends of the contracting parties. The parlor was very prettily decorated with flowers. Miss Blanch McBeath of Marshfield, cousin of the bride wore a handsome gown of cream silk with applique trimmings and was unattended. The groom's gift to the bride was a cheque and to Miss McBeath a gold brooch set with amethysts. Mr. and Mrs. Piggett left on Thursday on a trip to Boston and New York and other points of interest and will be at home after September 25th at Annapolis Valley, N. S.

The marriage of Miss Myrtle Jane, daughter of Elias and Mrs. Coffin, to George Edgar Piggett of Annapolis Valley, N. S., took place Wednesday evening, Sept 7th, at the residence of the bride's parents, Savage Harbor, West. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Murray of Mount Stewart in the presence of the immediate relatives and some intimate friends of the contracting parties. The parlor was very prettily decorated with flowers. Miss Blanch McBeath of Marshfield, cousin of the bride wore a handsome gown of cream silk with applique trimmings and was unattended. The groom's gift to the bride was a cheque and to Miss McBeath a gold brooch set with amethysts. Mr. and Mrs. Piggett left on Thursday on a trip to Boston and New York and other points of interest and will be at home after September 25th at Annapolis Valley, N. S.

The marriage of Miss Myrtle Jane, daughter of Elias and Mrs. Coffin, to George Edgar Piggett of Annapolis Valley, N. S., took place Wednesday evening, Sept 7th, at the residence of the bride's parents, Savage Harbor, West. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Murray of Mount Stewart in the presence of the immediate relatives and some intimate friends of the contracting parties. The parlor was very prettily decorated with flowers. Miss Blanch McBeath of Marshfield, cousin of the bride wore a handsome gown of cream silk with applique trimmings and was unattended. The groom's gift to the bride was a cheque and to Miss McBeath a gold brooch set with amethysts. Mr. and Mrs. Piggett left on Thursday on a trip to Boston and New York and other points of interest and will be at home after September 25th at Annapolis Valley, N. S.

The marriage of Miss Myrtle Jane, daughter of Elias and Mrs. Coffin, to George Edgar Piggett of Annapolis Valley, N. S., took place Wednesday evening, Sept 7th, at the residence of the bride's parents, Savage Harbor, West. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Murray of Mount Stewart in the presence of the immediate relatives and some intimate friends of the contracting parties. The parlor was very prettily decorated with flowers. Miss Blanch McBeath of Marshfield, cousin of the bride wore a handsome gown of cream silk with applique trimmings and was unattended. The groom's gift to the bride was a cheque and to Miss McBeath a gold brooch set with amethysts. Mr. and Mrs. Piggett left on Thursday on a trip to Boston and New York and other points of interest and will be at home after September 25th at Annapolis Valley, N. S.

The marriage of Miss Myrtle Jane, daughter of Elias and Mrs. Coffin, to George Edgar Piggett of Annapolis Valley, N. S., took place Wednesday evening, Sept 7th, at the residence of the bride's parents, Savage Harbor, West. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Murray of Mount Stewart in the presence of the immediate relatives and some intimate friends of the contracting parties. The parlor was very prettily decorated with flowers. Miss Blanch McBeath of Marshfield, cousin of the bride wore a handsome gown of cream silk with applique trimmings and was unattended. The groom's gift to the bride was a cheque and to Miss McBeath a gold brooch set with amethysts. Mr. and Mrs. Piggett left on Thursday on a trip to Boston and New York and other points of interest and will be at home after September 25th at Annapolis Valley, N. S.

The marriage of Miss Myrtle Jane, daughter of Elias and Mrs. Coffin, to George Edgar Piggett of Annapolis Valley, N. S., took place Wednesday evening, Sept 7th, at the residence of the bride's parents, Savage Harbor, West. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Murray of Mount Stewart in the presence of the immediate relatives and some intimate friends of the contracting parties. The parlor was very prettily decorated with flowers. Miss Blanch McBeath of Marshfield, cousin of the bride wore a handsome gown of cream silk with applique trimmings and was unattended. The groom's gift to the bride was a cheque and to Miss McBeath a gold brooch set with amethysts. Mr. and Mrs. Piggett left on Thursday on a trip to Boston and New York and other points of interest and will be at home after September 25th at Annapolis Valley, N. S.

The marriage of Miss Myrtle Jane, daughter of Elias and Mrs. Coffin, to George Edgar Piggett of Annapolis Valley, N. S., took place Wednesday evening, Sept 7th, at the residence of the bride's parents, Savage Harbor, West. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Murray of Mount Stewart in the presence of the immediate relatives and some intimate friends of the contracting parties. The parlor was very prettily decorated with flowers. Miss Blanch McBeath of Marshfield, cousin of the bride wore a handsome gown of cream silk with applique trimmings and was unattended. The groom's gift to the bride was a cheque and to Miss McBeath a gold brooch set with amethysts. Mr. and Mrs. Piggett left on Thursday on a trip to Boston and New York and other points of interest and will be at home after September 25th at Annapolis Valley, N. S.

The marriage of Miss Myrtle Jane, daughter of Elias and Mrs. Coffin, to George Edgar Piggett of Annapolis Valley, N. S., took place Wednesday evening, Sept 7th, at the residence of the bride's parents, Savage Harbor, West. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Murray of Mount Stewart in the presence of the immediate relatives and some intimate friends of the contracting parties. The parlor was very prettily decorated with flowers. Miss Blanch McBeath of Marshfield, cousin of the bride wore a handsome gown of cream silk with applique trimmings and was unattended. The groom's gift to the bride was a cheque and to Miss McBeath a gold brooch set with amethysts. Mr. and Mrs. Piggett left on Thursday on a trip to Boston and New York and other points of interest and will be at home after September 25th at Annapolis Valley, N. S.

The marriage of Miss Myrtle Jane, daughter of Elias and Mrs. Coffin, to George Edgar Piggett of Annapolis Valley, N. S., took place Wednesday evening, Sept 7th, at the residence of the bride's parents, Savage Harbor, West. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Murray of Mount Stewart in the presence of the immediate relatives and some intimate friends of the contracting parties. The parlor was very prettily decorated with flowers. Miss Blanch McBeath of Marshfield, cousin of the bride wore a handsome gown of cream silk with applique trimmings and was unattended. The groom's gift to the bride was a cheque and to Miss McBeath a gold brooch set with amethysts. Mr. and Mrs. Piggett left on Thursday on a trip to Boston and New York and other points of interest and will be at home after September 25th at Annapolis Valley, N. S.

At the Police Court in this city yesterday four young men, for indulging in a pastime late one night in which justicuffs was a prominent feature and which has been deemed by the authorities as a disturbance of the peace, appeared. Their case was adjourned until Wednesday morning.

The marriage of Miss Myrtle Jane, daughter of Elias and Mrs. Coffin, to George Edgar Piggett of Annapolis Valley, N. S., took place Wednesday evening, Sept 7th, at the residence of the bride's parents, Savage Harbor, West. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Murray of Mount Stewart in the presence of the immediate relatives and some intimate friends of the contracting parties. The parlor was very prettily decorated with flowers. Miss Blanch McBeath of Marshfield, cousin of the bride wore a handsome gown of cream silk with applique trimmings and was unattended. The groom's gift to the bride was a cheque and to Miss McBeath a gold brooch set with amethysts. Mr. and Mrs. Piggett left on Thursday on a trip to Boston and New York and other points of interest and will be at home after September 25th at Annapolis Valley, N. S.

The marriage of Miss Myrtle Jane, daughter of Elias and Mrs. Coffin, to George Edgar Piggett of Annapolis Valley, N. S., took place Wednesday evening, Sept 7th, at the residence of the bride's parents, Savage Harbor, West. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Murray of Mount Stewart in the presence of the immediate relatives and some intimate friends of the contracting parties. The parlor was very prettily decorated with flowers. Miss Blanch McBeath of Marshfield, cousin of the bride wore a handsome gown of cream silk with applique trimmings and was unattended. The groom's gift to the bride was a cheque and to Miss McBeath a gold brooch set with amethysts. Mr. and Mrs. Piggett left on Thursday on a trip to Boston and New York and other points of interest and will be at home after September 25th at Annapolis Valley, N. S.

The marriage of Miss Myrtle Jane, daughter of Elias and Mrs. Coffin, to George Edgar Piggett of Annapolis Valley, N. S., took place Wednesday evening, Sept 7th, at the residence of the bride's parents, Savage Harbor, West. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Murray of Mount Stewart in the presence of the immediate relatives and some intimate friends of the contracting parties. The parlor was very prettily decorated with flowers. Miss Blanch McBeath of Marshfield, cousin of the bride wore a handsome gown of cream silk with applique trimmings and was unattended. The groom's gift to the bride was a cheque and to Miss McBeath a gold brooch set with amethysts. Mr. and Mrs. Piggett left on Thursday on a trip to Boston and New York and other points of interest and will be at home after September 25th at Annapolis Valley, N. S.

The marriage of Miss Myrtle Jane, daughter of Elias and Mrs. Coffin, to George Edgar Piggett of Annapolis Valley, N. S., took place Wednesday evening, Sept 7th, at the residence of the bride's parents, Savage Harbor, West. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Murray of Mount Stewart in the presence of the immediate relatives and some intimate friends of the contracting parties. The parlor was very prettily decorated with flowers. Miss Blanch McBeath of Marshfield, cousin of the bride wore a handsome gown of cream silk with applique trimmings and was unattended. The groom's gift to the bride was a cheque and to Miss McBeath a gold brooch set with amethysts. Mr. and Mrs. Piggett left on Thursday on a trip to Boston and New York and other points of interest and will be at home after September 25th at Annapolis Valley, N. S.

The marriage of Miss Myrtle Jane, daughter of Elias and Mrs. Coffin, to George Edgar Piggett of Annapolis Valley, N. S., took place Wednesday evening, Sept 7th, at the residence of the bride's parents, Savage Harbor, West. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Murray of Mount Stewart in the presence of the immediate relatives and some intimate friends of the contracting parties. The parlor was very prettily decorated with flowers. Miss Blanch McBeath of Marshfield, cousin of the bride wore a handsome gown of cream silk with applique trimmings and was unattended. The groom's gift to the bride was a cheque and to Miss McBeath a gold brooch set with amethysts. Mr. and Mrs. Piggett left on Thursday on a trip to Boston and New York and other points of interest and will be at home after September 25th at Annapolis Valley, N. S.

The marriage of Miss Myrtle Jane, daughter of Elias and Mrs. Coffin, to George Edgar Piggett of Annapolis Valley, N. S., took place Wednesday evening, Sept 7th, at the residence of the bride's parents, Savage Harbor, West. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Murray of Mount Stewart in the presence of the immediate relatives and some intimate friends of the contracting parties. The parlor was very prettily decorated with flowers. Miss Blanch McBeath of Marshfield, cousin of the bride wore a handsome gown of cream silk with applique trimmings and was unattended. The groom's gift to the bride was a cheque and to Miss McBeath a gold brooch set with amethysts. Mr. and Mrs. Piggett left on Thursday on a trip to Boston and New York and other points of interest and will be at home after September 25th at Annapolis Valley, N. S.

The marriage of Miss Myrtle Jane, daughter of Elias and Mrs. Coffin, to George Edgar Piggett of Annapolis Valley, N. S., took place Wednesday evening, Sept 7th, at the residence of the bride's parents, Savage Harbor, West. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Murray of Mount Stewart in the presence of the immediate relatives and some intimate friends of the contracting parties. The parlor was very prettily decorated with flowers. Miss Blanch McBeath of Marshfield, cousin of the bride wore a handsome gown of cream silk with applique trimmings and was unattended. The groom's gift to the bride was a cheque and to Miss McBeath a gold brooch set with amethysts. Mr. and Mrs. Piggett left on Thursday on a trip to Boston and New York and other points of interest and will be at home after September 25th at Annapolis Valley, N. S.

The marriage of Miss Myrtle Jane, daughter of Elias and Mrs. Coffin, to George Edgar Piggett of Annapolis Valley, N. S., took place Wednesday evening, Sept 7th, at the residence of the bride's parents, Savage Harbor, West. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Murray of Mount Stewart in the presence of the immediate relatives and some intimate friends of the contracting parties. The parlor was very prettily decorated with flowers. Miss Blanch McBeath of Marshfield, cousin of the bride wore a handsome gown of cream silk with applique trimmings and was unattended. The groom's gift to the bride was a cheque and to Miss McBeath a gold brooch set with amethysts. Mr. and Mrs. Piggett left on Thursday on a trip to Boston and New York and other points of interest and will be at home after September 25th at Annapolis Valley, N. S.

The marriage of Miss Myrtle Jane, daughter of Elias and Mrs. Coffin, to George Edgar Piggett of Annapolis Valley, N. S., took place Wednesday evening, Sept 7th, at the residence of the bride's parents, Savage Harbor, West. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Murray of Mount Stewart in the presence of the immediate relatives and some intimate friends of the contracting parties. The parlor was very prettily decorated with flowers. Miss Blanch McBeath of Marshfield, cousin of the bride wore a handsome gown of cream silk with applique trimmings and was unattended. The groom's gift to the bride was a cheque and to Miss McBeath a gold brooch set with amethysts. Mr. and Mrs. Piggett left on Thursday on a trip to Boston and New York and other points of interest and will be at home after September 25th at Annapolis Valley, N. S.

The marriage of Miss Myrtle Jane, daughter of Elias and Mrs. Coffin, to George Edgar Piggett of Annapolis Valley, N. S., took place Wednesday evening, Sept 7th, at the residence of the bride's parents, Savage Harbor, West. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Murray of Mount Stewart in the presence of the immediate relatives and some intimate friends of the contracting parties. The parlor was very prettily decorated with flowers. Miss Blanch McBeath of Marshfield, cousin of the bride wore a handsome gown of cream silk with applique trimmings and was unattended. The groom's gift to the bride was a cheque and to Miss McBeath a gold brooch set with amethysts. Mr. and Mrs. Piggett left on Thursday on a trip to Boston and New York and other points of interest and will be at home after September 25th at Annapolis Valley, N. S.

Abbey's Effervescent Salt. It's often a little thing that puts a deranged digestive system right - if taken in time. 25c and 60c. Sold everywhere.

Prowse and Peardon, who both belong to the same club, planned their campaign well. Peardon took the lead, while Prowse laid back, until the last few hundred yards, when with his great spurting ability he passed the field and finished a close second to Peardon. Time 8.39 2-5. The five mile race was practically the same tactics repeated, altho the whole field altered frequently in the lead, as race setters. In the last lap, Peardon shot to the front, with Prowse coming at him from the rear. The two cleared the pack, and made a race of it between themselves, the latter winning by a close margin, in a well timed sprint. Time 14.27.

At the meeting of the Summerside Town Council held last evening it was decided to lease the market hall to Messrs Silliphant and Gaudet to be used as a moving picture house for this season. The hall is to be reserved for four nights per month for their use. Councillor Holman reported that the new scenery for the hall had arrived and he was instructed to have placed in position at once. A letter from the hospital committee was laid on the table for further consideration. Councillor Gault brought up the matter of the laying of concrete sidewalks on the south side of Water Street from Gourlie's corner to Queen Street but no action was taken on the present, as the appropriation on streets for the present year is about all used up. Regarding the lighting of the streets leading to the exhibition grounds the Council agreed to furnish the same amount of lighting as they furnished last year. A number of extra police were appointed for Friday and Saturday next, Exhibition days.

The S. S. Arnfrid arrived in port Saturday afternoon from Liverpool and a general cargo of merchandise for Carvell Bros. The Arnfrid is a splendid freight steamer, is 245 feet in length, 36 feet in breadth and has a carrying capacity of 2,000 tons (Board of Trade). She has a speed of nine knots and is electrically lighted and fitted throughout. Something unusual in a freight steamer becomes apparent to even the veriest land-lubber on the occasion of a walk around on the deck of this ocean-going freighter and that is the modern-yes, luxurious-fittings of her apartments for the officer and crew. Located on the upper deck and the bridge deck, and include the captain's quarters, dining sitting, state and chart rooms, etc. Captain Peter Gundersen, when seen by the Guardian representative yesterday, expressed a pardonable pride in his vessel and his courtesy and genial manner was marked. Like the remainder of the crew, the captain is a Norwegian and possesses a good command of the English language. He related a narrative in connection with his vessel which recalls the Russo-Japanese war of the V. A. A. City returned last night from Halifax where they competed in the Wanderers' sports in Halifax. The Herald speaking of the events said: "The Wanderer's 20th annual sports came off on Saturday afternoon. The weather was ideal. The sun shone from a cloudless sky and the time of early autumn was in the air. For twenty-nine years now has this influential athletic organization held its annual field day, and of these 29 perhaps Saturday's were the most successful. The entry list was a good one, and altho no records were broken some fast time was made. Fritz Schaefer did the long in 10 seconds that, equalling his own and the maritime record. He also came close to the 220 yards and 440 yard marks in the final for the mile bicycle. Prowse and Peardon of Charlottetown, Smith of St. Peter's and Ward of the Wanderers qualified. Prowse won with a second, but useless and ridiculous jockeying which caused the race to be rode over, as the time exceeded the limit of 2:32 by 32 seconds, which was unnecessary. The crowd of some 1,800 people howled and the referee made them race again. Prowse and Peardon started along. Prowse won in 2:37, which was five seconds over the limit set by the referee after holding his decision for a time, awarded the race to Prowse. In the three mile bicycle,

The S. S. Arnfrid arrived in port Saturday afternoon from Liverpool and a general cargo of merchandise for Carvell Bros. The Arnfrid is a splendid freight steamer, is 245 feet in length, 36 feet in breadth and has a carrying capacity of 2,000 tons (Board of Trade). She has a speed of nine knots and is electrically lighted and fitted throughout. Something unusual in a freight steamer becomes apparent to even the veriest land-lubber on the occasion of a walk around on the deck of this ocean-going freighter and that is the modern-yes, luxurious-fittings of her apartments for the officer and crew. Located on the upper deck and the bridge deck, and include the captain's quarters, dining sitting, state and chart rooms, etc. Captain Peter Gundersen, when seen by the Guardian representative yesterday, expressed a pardonable pride in his vessel and his courtesy and genial manner was marked. Like the remainder of the crew, the captain is a Norwegian and possesses a good command of the English language. He related a narrative in connection with his vessel which recalls the Russo-Japanese war of the V. A. A. City returned last night from Halifax where they competed in the Wanderers' sports in Halifax. The Herald speaking of the events said: "The Wanderer's 20th annual sports came off on Saturday afternoon. The weather was ideal. The sun shone from a cloudless sky and the time of early autumn was in the air. For twenty-nine years now has this influential athletic organization held its annual field day, and of these 29 perhaps Saturday's were the most successful. The entry list was a good one, and altho no records were broken some fast time was made. Fritz Schaefer did the long in 10 seconds that, equalling his own and the maritime record. He also came close to the 220 yards and 440 yard marks in the final for the mile bicycle. Prowse and Peardon of Charlottetown, Smith of St. Peter's and Ward of the Wanderers qualified. Prowse won with a second, but useless and ridiculous jockeying which caused the race to be rode over, as the time exceeded the limit of 2:32 by 32 seconds, which was unnecessary. The crowd of some 1,800 people howled and the referee made them race again. Prowse and Peardon started along. Prowse won in 2:37, which was five seconds over the limit set by the referee after holding his decision for a time, awarded the race to Prowse. In the three mile bicycle,

The S. S. Arnfrid arrived in port Saturday afternoon from Liverpool and a general cargo of merchandise for Carvell Bros. The Arnfrid is a splendid freight steamer, is 245 feet in length, 36 feet in breadth and has a carrying capacity of 2,000 tons (Board of Trade). She has a speed of nine knots and is electrically lighted and fitted throughout. Something unusual in a freight steamer becomes apparent to even the veriest land-lubber on the occasion of a walk around on the deck of this ocean-going freighter and that is the modern-yes, luxurious-fittings of her apartments for the officer and crew. Located on the upper deck and the bridge deck, and include the captain's quarters, dining sitting, state and chart rooms, etc. Captain Peter Gundersen, when seen by the Guardian representative yesterday, expressed a pardonable pride in his vessel and his courtesy and genial manner was marked. Like the remainder of the crew, the captain is a Norwegian and possesses a good command of the English language. He related a narrative in connection with his vessel which recalls the Russo-Japanese war of the V. A. A. City returned last night from Halifax where they competed in the Wanderers' sports in Halifax. The Herald speaking of the events said: "The Wanderer's 20th annual sports came off on Saturday afternoon. The weather was ideal. The sun shone from a cloudless sky and the time of early autumn was in the air. For twenty-nine years now has this influential athletic organization held its annual field day, and of these 29 perhaps Saturday's were the most successful. The entry list was a good one, and altho no records were broken some fast time was made. Fritz Schaefer did the long in 10 seconds that, equalling his own and the maritime record. He also came close to the 220 yards and 440 yard marks in the final for the mile bicycle. Prowse and Peardon of Charlottetown, Smith of St. Peter's and Ward of the Wanderers qualified. Prowse won with a second, but useless and ridiculous jockeying which caused the race to be rode over, as the time exceeded the limit of 2:32 by 32 seconds, which was unnecessary. The crowd of some 1,800 people howled and the referee made them race again. Prowse and Peardon started along. Prowse won in 2:37, which was five seconds over the limit set by the referee after holding his decision for a time, awarded the race to Prowse. In the three mile bicycle,

The S. S. Arnfrid arrived in port Saturday afternoon from Liverpool and a general cargo of merchandise for Carvell Bros. The Arnfrid is a splendid freight steamer, is 245 feet in length, 36 feet in breadth and has a carrying capacity of 2,000 tons (Board of Trade). She has a speed of nine knots and is electrically lighted and fitted throughout. Something unusual in a freight steamer becomes apparent to even the veriest land-lubber on the occasion of a walk around on the deck of this ocean-going freighter and that is the modern-yes, luxurious-fittings of her apartments for the officer and crew. Located on the upper deck and the bridge deck, and include the captain's quarters, dining sitting, state and chart rooms, etc. Captain Peter Gundersen, when seen by the Guardian representative yesterday, expressed a pardonable pride in his vessel and his courtesy and genial manner was marked. Like the remainder of the crew, the captain is a Norwegian and possesses a good command of the English language. He related a narrative in connection with his vessel which recalls the Russo-Japanese war of the V. A. A. City returned last night from Halifax where they competed in the Wanderers' sports in Halifax. The Herald speaking of the events said: "The Wanderer's 20th annual sports came off on Saturday afternoon. The weather was ideal. The sun shone from a cloudless sky and the time of early autumn was in the air. For twenty-nine years now has this influential athletic organization held its annual field day, and of these 29 perhaps Saturday's were the most successful. The entry list was a good one, and altho no records were broken some fast time was made. Fritz Schaefer did the long in 10 seconds that, equalling his own and the maritime record. He also came close to the 220 yards and 440 yard marks in the final for the mile bicycle. Prowse and Peardon of Charlottetown, Smith of St. Peter's and Ward of the Wanderers qualified. Prowse won with a second, but useless and ridiculous jockeying which caused the race to be rode over, as the time exceeded the limit of 2:32 by 32 seconds, which was unnecessary. The crowd of some 1,800 people howled and the referee made them race again. Prowse and Peardon started along. Prowse won in 2:37, which was five seconds over the limit set by the referee after holding his decision for a time, awarded the race to Prowse. In the three mile bicycle,

The S. S. Arnfrid arrived in port Saturday afternoon from Liverpool and a general cargo of merchandise for Carvell Bros. The Arnfrid is a splendid freight steamer, is 245 feet in length, 36 feet in breadth and has a carrying capacity of 2,000 tons (Board of Trade). She has a speed of nine knots and is electrically lighted and fitted throughout. Something unusual in a freight steamer becomes apparent to even the veriest land-lubber on the occasion of a walk around on the deck of this ocean-going freighter and that is the modern-yes, luxurious-fittings of her apartments for the officer and crew. Located on the upper deck and the bridge deck, and include the captain's quarters, dining sitting, state and chart rooms, etc. Captain Peter Gundersen, when seen by the Guardian representative yesterday, expressed a pardonable pride in his vessel and his courtesy and genial manner was marked. Like the remainder of the crew, the captain is a Norwegian and possesses a good command of the English language. He related a narrative in connection with his vessel which recalls the Russo-Japanese war of the V. A. A. City returned last night from Halifax where they competed in the Wanderers' sports in Halifax. The Herald speaking of the events said: "The Wanderer's 20th annual sports came off on Saturday afternoon. The weather was ideal. The sun shone from a cloudless sky and the time of early autumn was in the air. For twenty-nine years now has this influential athletic organization held its annual field day, and of these 29 perhaps Saturday's were the most successful. The entry list was a good one, and altho no records were broken some fast time was made. Fritz Schaefer did the long in 10 seconds that, equalling his own and the maritime record. He also came close to the 220 yards and 440 yard marks in the final for the mile bicycle. Prowse and Peardon of Charlottetown, Smith of St.