THE QUEEN'S COUNTY GUARDIAN

Head Offices in New Prowse Block--Charlottetown.

Rev. Dr. McMillan, Cardigan, left yesterday for Montreal. James and Fred Weeks of Tracadie have arrived home from Berlin, N.H.

D. M. Condon of the Boston and Maine Railway is in the City. Mrs. Henry T. Duncan and family, York, leave this week for Okotoks, Alta.

The Y.M.C.A. Gymnastic exhibition will be repeated in the Gymnasium tonight. Rev. S. D. McPhee will preach in St. Andrew's church Orwell, May 10, at 3.30 p.m.

Rev. A. D. Stirling was a passenger yesterday morning to his home in Kensington. Miss Sadie C. McInnis, has returned to her home in New Glasgow, N. S., from Tracadie.

There were fifteen passengers by the Northumberland to Pictou yesterday morning. The Guardian regrets to learn that Miss Hannah Beaton, daughter of Michael Beaton, Bonaventure Point, is seriously ill and her recovery is despaired of.

Duncan Currie, City, has entered the Charlottetown Hospital to undergo treatment. Oswald Wright, for a number of years with Prowse Bros. Ltd., has secured a good position with Galt Bros., wholesale dry goods merchants, Montreal.

Six horses comprised part of the cargo by the Northumberland to Pictou yesterday. Mrs. Duncan McIntyre of Spokane, Wash., is visiting her parents, W.J. and Mrs. Logan, Mt. Stewart.

Mrs. Harold Jenkins, City, has gone to Montreal on a visit. She accompanied as far as Pt. du Chene by Mr. Jenkins. Miss Josie Cairns of this city, has severed her connection with the Telephone Company and leaves this morning for Boston, where she will in future reside. She will be accompanied by her brother Nelson.

Murdoch and Mrs. McLeod who have been visiting in this City returned to Moncton yesterday. Rev. P. D. McGuigan recently examined the Donaldston school and found the scholars well informed on the different branches studied. Miss Bessie Kiely is the efficient teacher.

Dr. Heartz, Halifax, is to preach in the Jubilee Methodist church Sydney next Sunday, in connection with the moral reform movement. On the eve of their departure for Central Royalty, quite a number of the residents of Brookfield and vicinity waited on Andrew and Mrs. McRae and presented them with a Morris chair and an address.

An enquiring subscriber desires The Guardian to say whether postmasters and mail drivers are eligible to be appointed road overseers. The Guardian is of opinion that they are eligible. Mrs. James Webster of Charlottetown Royalty has arrived home from Bamford Falls, in which city she has been nursing for the past eighteen months. Mrs. Webster will return next week to continue her duties.

X.Y.Z., P.O. Box 1230, City, has office work for a girl of good common school education. Applicants should state age and wages desired. A good chance for the right girl. The public are cautioned against depositing dead animals on or near Brighton Shore, as any parties doing so in future will be prosecuted without respect for persons. A sharp watch will be kept on offenders in this respect.

The steamer Trinidad will run from New York to Montreal in the months of July and September and will call at the ports of Halifax, Mulgrave, Pictou and Charlottetown. Capt. James McKenzie, of Pictou, is in command. The funeral of the late Malcolm McLeod took place on May 2nd from his residence 165 East River St., Hyde Park, Mass. to Fair View Cemetery. Mr. McLeod who was a native of this Province leaves to mourn a wife and one daughter.

L. P. Tanton, City captured a prize worth $25 in the Newage Limrick competition which was advertised in the Montreal papers. Miss N. M. Terlizick, received a prize in the same competition hers being a lot of land valued at several dollars. Harold Jenkins gave his very instructive lecture on old fashioned people and old fashioned times in the Y.M.C.A. hall Tuesday evening to a very appreciative audience. W. S. Louson acted as chairman. A vote of thanks was moved by Rev. Edwin Smith of Cardigan and heartily seconded by Rev. G. E. Ross who regretted that a much larger audience had not the privilege of hearing the lecture.

The Wood Islands North was the scene of a quiet marriage recently when Mr. Young's sister Miss Ellen E., was united in marriage to Mark Carver of Kinross. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. A. C. McNeill. The bride was attended by her niece Miss Clara E. Young while Wm. E. Young supported the groom. The happy couple left by the morning train for their future home in Lyndale. Congratulations.

Provided the D. G. S. "Brant's" regular duties will permit it, she will make a trip each Tuesday to Orwell and return, calling at the same wharves as the "City of London" formerly did. On Wednesday she will make the trip to Victoria and return, and on Friday to East River and return. This is the best accommodation that could be obtained until such time as the new steamer "Holland" is placed on the route, which it is expected will be about 1st June. This for accommodation of passengers and freight, for which the usual charges will be made.

The exporters of salt mackerel and canned lobsters from this Province desiring an excellent market for their consignments are asked to write to H. B. Ritchie, commission merchant, 216 State Street, Boston. As the highest prices are always available for first class goods from this Province, the shipper is assured of an always ready market. Mr. Ritchie, whose large experience makes him thoroughly acquainted with the tastes of his customers, solicits consignments from this Province and will answer all enquiries, and send market report on request.

Owing to the state of the country roads, the attendance at the meeting of Liberal-Conservatives of the Second Electoral District of Queen's County Tuesday was not as large. The following delegates were appointed a committee to choose candidates, and to report at a meeting later: John Buntain, South Rustico; Thos. T. Oxenham, Hunter River; Angus A. McDonald, North Wiltshire; P. J. Berrigan, New Haven; Stanislaus Brode, North Rustico; Neil McNeill, Milton; Dougald Currie, Nine Mile Creek; Robert Stead, Wheatley River; George White, North River and Malcolm McNeill, St. Catherines.

"Absolutely all packet teas and most bulk teas show the grocer a larger profit than "Salada," but few of them show as much satisfaction to the consumer.

We Want Your Orders in the house-furnishing dept

WE'RE making it more to your advantage every day to do your buying here. Every day we are improving our range—and profiting by what we learned the day before.

THE BEST makers in every line are represented in our showing. It is one of our plans always to get right back to the maker—saving on the price—adding to the excellence.

WALL PAPER for example—in this line we buy direct from the best makers in Canada—the United States and France. We buy in immense quantity—and are thus able to sell in most cases as low as small dealers can buy. A slight examination of our samples will demonstrate this fully.
