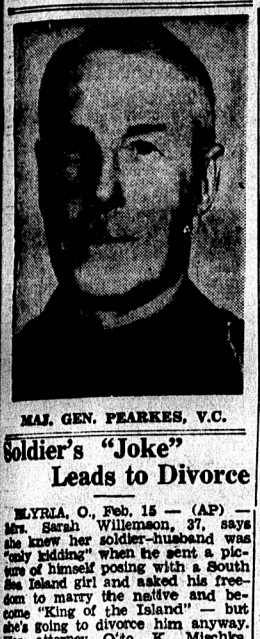
General Pearkes, V. C. Fired By McNaughton



MAJ. GEN. PEARKES, V.C.

VANCOUVER, Feb. 15 — (CP) — Maj.-Gen. G.R. Pearkes, V.C., D.S.O., M.C., General Officer Commanding in Chief of the Pacific Command, in a message to his officers and men today said, "by order from National Defence Headquarters I cease to be General Officer Commanding, Pacific Command today."

(A late report from Vancouver last night said that the Canadian Press had learned that Gen. Pearkes may enter federal politics shortly.)

Gen. Pearkes thanked the men for their support in the 2 1-2 years that he had been in charge in British Columbia.

"On my arrival in British Columbia from overseas this Province was threatened with the possibility of hostile raids," he said. "Although the likelihood of such action by the enemy has diminished owing to the general improvement in the strategic position in the Pacific it has not altogether passed away."

His message said it consequently was "important" that troops be kept on this coast.

Since he became General Officer Commanding, he said 10,000 soldiers this year alone had left this command for duty overseas.

"I regret the circumstances which make it necessary for me to cease to be so intimately associated with the troops I have loved so long," he continued. "But I hope an opportunity will arise in which I can still render some service to you, to the men returning from the services overseas and to the country as a whole."

Gen. Pearkes said he received a telegram from National Defence Headquarters this morning advising him that Brig. D.R. Sargeant would temporarily take command.

"I have no statement to make" concerning the telegram, he said in an interview. "Any statement will have to come from Ottawa."

Ottawa Statement

OTTAWA, Feb. 15 — (CP) — Maj.-Gen. G.R. Pearkes, V.C., has been relieved of his command as General Officer Commanding, Pacific Command, at his own request, Defence Headquarters announced tonight.

Gen. Pearkes is 56, four years under the usual retirement age for home establishment commanders.

The headquarters statement gave no reason for Gen. Pearkes' request. Vancouver dispatches said the resignation was not voluntary, that there apparently had been some differences of opinion regarding command duties.

Gen. Pearkes took over Pacific Command in August, 1942, at the height of the threat of a Japanese invasion of Canada's Pacific Coast, being recalled from the United Kingdom where he had commanded a Canadian infantry division.

He was closely linked with the draftee question and made no attempt to hide the fact he thought the draftee soldiers in his area should go active.

Told McNaughton

Gen. Pearkes came to Ottawa and told his old Chief, Defence Minister McNaughton, that he thought the voluntary method of recruiting had been "milked dry" but he was willing to give it one more chance. It was after that that the government said the voluntary method had failed and conscription for overseas was adopted.

The only Canadian General Officer on active service in this war to wear the Victoria Cross, Gen. Pearkes wears five wound stripes as evidence of his actions during The First Great War.

PRISONERS RECAPTURED

LETHBRIDGE, ALTA., Feb. 15—(CP))—Royal Canadian Mounted Police said here today that Johann Wolthe and Otto Schmidt, two German prisoners-of-war who escaped from a prisoner-of-war camp at Medicine Hat, Alta., last Tuesday, were recaptured last night west of Walsh, Alta.

Soldier's "Joke" Leads to Divorce

ELYRIA, O., Feb. 15 — (AP) — Mrs. Sarah Willemson, 37, says she knew her soldier-husband was "only kidding" when he sent a picture of himself posing with a South Sea Island girl and asked his freedom to marry the native and become "King of the Island" — but she's going to divorce him anyway. Her attorney, Otto K. Mischka, said a letter later from Pte. Leo Willemson, 29, said it was all a joke, that "the native girl was the wife of a commercial photographer who took the picture."

Claims Federal Baby Bonus Act Unconstitutional

QUEBEC, Feb. 15—(CP) — The province of Quebec cannot sanction the "unconstitutionality" of the federal Family Allowance Act, Premier Duplessis said today in the Quebec Legislative Assembly as the House sat in committee of the whole to discuss the Quebec Family Allowances bill. The bill authorizes the government to make any agreement necessary with the Dominion Government for the redistribution of family allowances.

"Quebec possesses rights, privileges and liberties guaranteed by the British North America Act," said the Union Nationale leader. "It is an inheritance that must be kept . . . if Ottawa continues its encroachments on provincial rights, we shall lose our autonomy won in the blood of our ancestors. The Federal law (Family Allowances) is one step further toward centralization."

Opposition Leader Adelard Godbout said family allowances were for the whole of Canada and not for Quebec alone. The province would pay 30 per cent and receive about 31 per cent.

He said a provincial system of family allowances was an impossibility and would cost the province between $75,000,000 and $80,000,000 annually.

Swiss Gov't Offers Loan to French

BERNE, Feb. 15—(Reuters)—The Swiss Government has offered France a loan of 280,000,000 Swiss francs (about ($66,750,000) to assist in reconstruction, authoritative sources said today.

The Swiss suggest that half this sum be used in placing immediate contracts with Swiss industries. The other half should be spent in placing similar contracts at the convenience of the French Government.

Fox Pelt Sale Opens At Montreal

MONTREAL, Feb. 15 — (Special to the Guardian) — The February fox pelt sale of the Canadian Fur Auction Co. Ltd., opened this morning at 10 o'clock.

The following prices were realized during the day: 1,479 special skins, consisting of white marked, platinums and platinum silvers were sold at an average of $70.82; 1,022 one-half to three-quarter silvers were 64 per cent sold at an average of $27.77. The first and second sections of the regular full silvers were 74 per cent sold at an average of $32.50. Inferiors were 55 per cent sold at an average of $21.50.

Tomorrow's offerings will consist of 1,097 white marked, 1,095 selected fulls and a quantity of regular fulls and inferiors.

(The above information was supplied by Mr. George A. Callbeck, manager of the fur marketing department of the Canadian National Fox Breeders Association. Summerside.)

French Ambassador Arrives In Ottawa

(By The Canadian Press)

OTTAWA, Feb. 15 — Count Jean Marie Francois de Houteclocque, liberated France's first ambassador to Canada, arrived here today with his family and told newspapermen that he felt it a great honor to come to a country such as Canada as a diplomatic representative.

The ambassador was accompanied by his wife and six of their seven daughters.

War Situation Last Night

By KIRKE L. SIMPSON, Associated Press War Analyst

Speeded by effective Allied air support, a Red Army tidal wave of power—the Germans admit—has ripped a 70-mile-wide gap through German inner defences.

It bids fair to become the greatest and most decisive break-through of the war in Europe.

Official Russian confirmation was lacking immediately but from both Berlin and Moscow came broadcasts indicating Marshal Konev's 1st Ukraine Army had stormed its way swiftly through relatively feeble resistance to within 50 miles or less of British, Canadian and American-bombed Dresden on the left of line.

The Russians also enveloped the Neisse River bastion of Furst in the centre, while on the right they established contact with White Russian comrades west of the Oder.

In effect the latest Russian advance gave Soviet armies a virtually straight front more than 160 miles long reaching from Gorlitz, road and rail centre, 45 miles east of Dresden, to the head of the Stettin estuary where the Oder flows into the Baltic.

It is not yet clear whether Marshal Konev's forward sweep between the north flank of the Sudeten mountains and the Oder bend is aimed at Berlin or the beginning of a sweep into the central plain of Germay. His most recent pressure has been northward to iron out a bulge along the Oder on the flank of White Russian armies that have stood for days within 30 miles or less of Berlin.

With that threat removed and sufficient time to bring up men and supplies, it seems certain that Marshal Zhukov's White Russian forces are about ready to resume their frontal attack from the east. There remain no vulnerable Russian salients of any more than local consequence along the whole Russian main attack front so far as it can be traced.

News Briefs

LONDON, Feb. 15—(Reuters)—The German Transocean Agency claimed tonight that U-boats equipped with a new device, the air snaft, had been known to stay under water for more than 10 weeks without once surfacing.

PARIS, Feb. 15 — (AP) — President Roosevelt is having an investigation made of the reputed failure of American relief for France's civilians to be distributed during the current winter as reported promised to the French Government, reliable persons said today.

LONDON, Feb. 15 — (AP) — That the Nazis are suffering extreme misery and death was reported officially tonight by the Germans who said hat "several millions" of refugees from the east were swarming into the central Reich as the Red Army pushed toward Berlin. The total number of fleeing Germans is growing hourly with many of the travelers perishing in the wintry winds, the German DNB News Agency said.

QUEBEC, Feb. 15 — (CP) — Glenn Bannerman, president of the Canadian Association of Broadcasters, told a service club (Kiwanis) here today "It will take several years before television becomes an integral part of our life."

ROME, Feb. 15 — (AP) — The Germans toiled desperately today to get their battered Balkan Army out of Yugoslavia for use against the Russians after day-long attacks by R. A.F. and United States planes had left the Zagreb-Vienna escape route littered with the wreckage of military trains.

ALLIED SUPREME HEADQUARTERS, PARIS, Feb. 16 — (AP)—The loss of refineries to Allied advances from the east and west, combined with air blows, has cut German motor fuel production by 80 per cent to 103,000 tons a month—hardly enough to keep an average size air force in operation —it was announced officially today.

By AUSTIN BEALMEAR

PARIS, Feb. 15 — (AP) — British and Canadian forces pushed nearly two miles deeper into the Maas-Rhine corridor today in a drive aimed straight at the heart of the enemy's munition industries, seizing two villages at the approaches to the strategic stronghold of Goch.

On the north flank, the Canadians sloshing through the desolate Rhine floodlands, drove into Hurendeich, a village just across the Rhine from the textile centre of Emmerich, five miles northeast of Kleve. The advance gave them control of the left bank for 20 miles east of Nimegen.

(The Canadians wiped out the last force of German paratroopers barring their way to a ferry crossing facing Emerich, Douglas Amaron, Canadian Press War Correspondent, reported.)

Although the German lines guarding the northern approaches to the Ruhr and Rhineland were sagging dangerously, a front dispatch said the enemy was not yet trying to dig new defences.

It attributed this surprising lack of preparation to the paralyzing effect of Field Marshal Montgomery's incessant artillery fire, which crushed six strong counter-blows yesterday and left the enemy in a precarious situation.

For the time being, Gen. Crerar's 1st Canadian Army, strongly reinforced by British troops, was carrying the attack to the enemy along the Western Front.

Task Force Planes Blast Tokyo Area

U.S. PACIFIC FLEET HEADQUARTERS, Guam, Feb. 16 — (Friday) — (AP) —A powerful battleship and aircraft carrier force poured more than 1,200 Hellcats, Helldivers and Avenger planes today at Tokyo while warships and army planes shelled and bombed islands to the south.

More carriers than the United States ever before assembled in a single sea operation are sending raiders in continuous waves against Tokyo's airfields and military defences, tangling in sky battles with the enemy air force.

The carriers, protected literally by thousands of anti-aircraft guns mounted on battleships, cruisers and destroyers, disgorged swarms of bombing, torpedoing and strafing raiders in the first such naval smash of the war at Japan's capital.

The huge and audacious operations, hurling the Navy's might for the first time at Tokyo and posing a challenge to the Japanese Fleet, strongly suggests major developments.

(There was no word from headquarters on the purpose of the large scale attack but a move of such extent suggests the possibility of new amphibious landings within the inner defence ring of Japan's island outguards.)

A communique today reported carrier planes were fighting Japanese planes, cratering airfields and smashing other military targets "in and around Tokyo." The targets of the bombarding warships included Iwo Jima.

Tokyo confirmed the assault, saying it was being met by the Japanese air force.

Vice Admiral Marc A. Mitscher, victor over the Japanese Fleet off the Marianas in June 1944, in the battle of the Philippines Sea, commanded the operation which "fulfills the deeply cherished desire of every officer and man of the Pacific Fleet", Admiral Chester W. Nimitz announced.

Admiral Nimitz, who only recently moved his base of operations to Guam, within 1,500 miles of Tokyo, said the operation "has long been planned."

It was regarded as a blunt challenge to the Japanese Fleet, out of action since last October in the battle of Leyte Gulf, to come out and fight.

Tokyo was first attacked April 18, 1942 by Army bombers of the then Lt.-Col. (now Lt.-Gen.) Jimmy Doolittle, flying from the aircraft carrier Hornet, but today's job was the first full-scale Navy operation against the Japanese capital or homeland.

(Webley Edwards, of the Columbia Broadcasting Company, reported from Guam that "at this minute waves of the carrier planes are sweeping over Tokyo."

(After recalling the Doolittle raid. Edwards reported:

("This one is different. This is the one we've been waiting for. This is by many carriers. The warships include battlewagons."

(Edwards said Nimitz is carrying the attack to Japan's "front yard and front steps and into the living rooms."

(Art Graham, of Mutual, estimated in a Guam broadcast that the American warships must be riding the seas within 300 miles of the coastline of Honshu, on which Tokyo, Yokohama, Nagoya, Osaki and other centres are situated).

Reds Smash Central Oder Defence Line

LONDON, Feb. 15 — (AP) — The Russian Army has smashed the Germans' Central Oder River defences with a powerful 30-mile break-through which toppled three of the enemy's largest strongholds southeast of Berlin, Premier Marshal Stalin announced tonight.

Steadily outflanking the Nazi Fuerstenberg - Frankfurt - Kuestrin line due east of the imperilled Reich Capital, Marshal Ivan S. Konev's 1st Ukraine Army captured Sommerfeld, only 67 miles southeast of greater Berlin, Sorau, 13 miles to the southeast, and Gruneberg, 26 miles northeast of Sommerfeld, an order of the day said.

Front despatches said Konev's lower wing also had slashed to within 46 miles of Dresden, Capital of Saxony, after reaching the Neisse River in the area of Goerlitz, 74 miles northeast of Prague, Czecholovak Capital.

The fall of the three "important junctions of communications and mighty strongpoints of German defences" southeast of Berlin was aided by a United States heavy bomber attack on Cottbus, strategic rail junction only 27 miles west of captured Sommerfeld.

Girl Loses Life In St. John's Blaze

ST. JOHN'S, Nfld., Feb. 15 — (CP CABLE) — One girl perished and another was injured while jumping from a third story window when fire broke out here today.

Starting in the residence of Mrs. H. Thomas, it spread to adjoining houses but it was controlled before causing serious damage. Nellie Bailey, 25, a worker at the Red Triangle Hostel, was asphyxiated in bed by smoke from the blaze. Iris Beck, an employee of the Newfoundland Hotel, was injured. Cause of the fire was not known.

Bracken On Visit To Western Canada

(By The Canadian Press)

WINNIPEG, Feb. 15—John Bracken, national leader of the Progressive Conservative party, said in an interview here today he would not discuss political or any other issues during his present visit to Western Canada.

He said he was primarily in the west to visit the federal constituency of Neepawa where he has been nominated for the next federal election by his party.

Mr. Bracken refused to comment on a statement made earlier today in Ottawa by Defence Minister McNaughton. Gen. McNaughton said a statement made recently by the Progressive Conservative leader on the deportment of home defence troops was a "diabolical untruth."

LONDON, Feb. 15 — (AP) — More than 1,100 American heavy bombers escorted by 450 fighters, carrying the greatest non-stop air attack of the war into its second day, threw their main weight of destruction today against clogged rail yards at Cottbus, only 12 miles in front of the onsweeping Russian Army.

Burning Dresden also was hit again.

Fifteen bombers and six fighters of the 8th Air Force were missing from the Thursday's assault, but some were believed to have landed in friendly territory. It was announced tonight that figures on the eight's losses Wednesday, when 1,360 bombers and 900 fighters took part, still were not available.

Wednesday night two waves of R.A.F. and R.C.A.F. heavies rained 730,000 incendiaries and hundreds of explosives bombs on Chemnitz, 36 miles southwest of Dresden, in a follow-up to a daylight blow by 450 Flying Fortresses. Other targets were Berlin, Duisburg, Mains, Nuernburg, Dessau and an oil plant south of Leipzig.

NEW YORK, Feb. 15 — (AP) —A B-29 Superfortress crashed in Flushing Bay today and exploded. Five persons were rescued by launches. The plane caught fire after striking the water.

China Makes Plans For All-Out Offensive

Will Be Timed With Allied Landings On China Coast.

CHUNGKING, Feb. 15 — (AP)—Japan's once-powerful position on the mainland is deteriorating rapidly, the United States commander in China declared today as plans were announced for conscription of 500,000 Chinese for an all-out offensive in concert with coming Allied landings on the coast.

"Japan's over-all position is unfavorable," declared Lt.-Gen. Albert C. Wedemeyer, commander of American forces in the China theatre, in one of the most optimistic statements yet made on the war in the east.

"I don't believe the Japanese people realize that, but I am confident the Japanese High Command is deeply concerned. They must be."

Gen. Lu Chung-Liu, Conscription Minister, announced that 500,000 new men would be drafted before the end of March, "to meet the demand for the all-out Chinese counter-offensive in conjunction with the coming landing of American forces on the China coast."

(Similar optimism was expressed by Gen Sir Claude Auchenleck, commander-in-chief in India, who told the Indian Legislature at New Delhi that the enemy was "on the run" in Burma and that Japan faced reserves in the interior of China).

Wedemeyer said the Japanese had lost considerable shipping; and now American air power was planted in the Philippines, where it could further restrict the flow of raw materials to the enemy's war factories. At the same time, he said, bombs are falling on Japan proper.

Wedemeyer described Gen. Ho Ying-Chin, China's chief of staff and commander of new field headquarters at Kunming, as "the Gen. Eisenhower of this theatre."

Canada's Civil Defence Committee Is Disbanded

OTTAWA, Feb. 15 — (CP) — Canada's Civil Defence Committee, formed five years ago to serve in case of enemy air attacks upon the Dominion or in other emergencies, has been disbanded, it was disclosed today.

The disclosure was made in the current issue of the Civil Defence Bulletin, published monthly by the office of the Director of Civil Defence. It carried an announcement over the signature of Brig. Alex Ross, director of civil defence, saying that the government, on the advice of military advisers, had decided to disband civil defence organizations throughout the country.

The Bulletin also carried a message from Veterans Minister Mackenzie thanking the civil defence workers for their "loyal, volunteer efforts," on behalf of the Dominion.

Civil defence officials declined to comment on the announcement. It was learned, however, that Brig. Ross has returned to his peacetime post as a Saskatchewan judge.

Civil defence organizations in Ontario and parts of Quebec were allowed to disband more than a year ago, but those in coastal and other areas considered vulnerable were asked to continue their vigilance.

In his announcement, Brig. Ross said that a re-assessment of the danger of enemy air attacks on Canada was made recently and it was found that the danger "now is very slight."

"It will be noted that risk of attack is not completely excluded and there will be those who think that so long as there is any risk the organization should be maintained. To a certain extent they are right, but, on the other hand, we must remember that to be of any real use for defence against the only form of attack deemed possible, it is necessary that the organization should be maintained in a state of constant readiness..

"A precautionary organization, a nucleus organization or an organ-
