ROMANCE IN LOBSTER CAN.

It is not often one hears of a romance being mixed up with a lobster can, but unless the unforeseen happens, there is going to be a pretty little romantic culmination attached to a lobster can, that was washed ashore at Ingonish Ferry, Victoria County, several months ago. Over in the quaint little country village of Rustico, one of the many beautiful summer resorts in Prince Edward Island, where the major portion of the inhabitants are of French origin, and where thousands of American tourists have in recent years sought and obtained health and rest in its charming surroundings, a maiden in a dainty gown, and after signing her name to the epistle, placed it in a lobster can and had it sealed. Then she threw the little vessel into the sea, and soon forgot all about it. Just twenty-six days afterwards a young man walking alone the seashore at Ingonish noticed a lobster can floating in the surf, and stooping down he picked it up. Realizing there was something odd about the can, judging from its light weight he opened it with a jack-knife. Then he saw the note inside. It was a simple request he read to the effect that the writer would be delighted to have a reply should the little wandering can ever be found. The Ingonish youth, son of one of the most respected men of the place, wrote to the girl in Rustico, and since then many missives have been exchanged, as well as photos. Indeed, it is said, such a warmth has sprung up that in a short time a happy marriage will prove the sequel to the romance attached to the little roving lobster can from the land of foxes and pretty maidens.—North Sydney Herald.

THE SUMMER SERVICE.—With the arrival of the Empress, which left Charlottetown at 5.30 a. m. yesterday and docked in Summerside at 9.30 a. m., navigation in the harbor was officially opened. She left again on the arrival of the morning train from the east about 10.45 a. m., reaching Pt. du Chene at 1.30 p. m. and returning to Summerside again at 8 p. m. with ten passengers, a very large maritime and western mail and about one and a half cars of freight. Her outward cargo consisted of 1,000 bags of oats. The officers report very little ice in the straits between Summerside and Charlottetown, but a large quantity was met with around the entrance to Pt. du Chene harbor. The steamer starts this morning on her regular summer schedule, leaving here on the arrival of the train from Charlottetown with mails and passengers.—J.

Mr. Gordon Pickering, wife and family, of Searletown, leave by the Empress this morning en route to Winnipeg. Mr. Pickering recently sold his farm at Searletown to Henry Callbeck, Central Bedouque.—J.

Suffered From Boils

Constipation And Sick Headache.

There is no more frequent source of illness than that arising from bad blood. When the blood becomes impure the whole system is impure; boils and pimples break out, the bowels become constipated, and the head aches more or less.

Do not neglect to purify the blood on the first appearance of a pimple or boil. Cleanse it thoroughly by the use of Burdock Blood Bitters and thus prevent untold suffering.

Mr. D. M. McBlaine, Niagara Falls, Ont., writes:—"It is with pleasure I testify to the sterling qualities of your Burdock Blood Bitters. After the Boer War, through which I served in the 1st I.L.I., I suffered from boils, constipation, and sick headaches, and tried many preparations, but got relief from none till an old comrade of mine got me to try the old comrade of Burdock Blood Bitters. To say I got relief is to put it mildly. It made me myself again, viz., a man who knows not what it is to be sick, and who has been, and is still, an athlete."

To anyone in want of purified blood and the resultant all round vigorous health can conscientiously recommend B.B.B. Get the 3 1/2. Manufactured only by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.
