Cardigan and Vicinity

Miss Marion McWilliams of St. Catherine's, is visiting friends in Cardigan and Cape Traverse.

Cardigan School re-opened Monday after the fall holidays.

His many friends will regret to learn of the illness of Mr. Ernest Deegan of Cardigan.

Mr. and Mrs. Leeman Saunders, Misses Dorothy and Marion Saunders, Allison Saunders and Rev. A. A. E. McKenzie, B.A., of Charlottetown, motored to Cardigan on Saturday where they were the week-end guests of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Muttart.

Her many friends will be glad to learn that Miss Fernie Bell, of Cardigan, who underwent a tonsil and adenoid operation in the Prince County Hospital last week is now convalescing.

Mr. Charles M. Bell, of Cardigan, representative of A. M. Bell and Co., motored home on Saturday from Halifax where he spent the past week in the interests of his firm. He was accompanied by his sister Marion.

His many friends are glad to see Mr. T. B. Gillespie of Cardigan, out around again following his recent illness.

Mr. Jack Annear and Mr. Fred Ferguson, of Montague, motored to Cardigan on Saturday to spend the week-end with friends.

On Sunday evening, Oct. 11th the Young People's Union took charge of the evening service in Cape Traverse United Church, in the absence of the pastor, Rev. Arthur Organ. The president, Eleanor Bell conducted the service and Inez Williams read the Scripture. Mary Muttart sang as a solo "Enlisted for the King," the Young People's Choir joining in the chorus. They also sang a very beautiful selection "Thy Word is Like a Garden, Lord".

PARLOUR SOCIAL

A very pleasant evening was spent at the home of Mr. John L. Mill, Clermont, on Friday evening, Sept. 25th, when upwards of sixty members and friends of the Anglican Young People met for the first social of the season.

At the Prince Edward Island Hospital on Oct. 2nd Mrs. James Hill passed to her eternal rest. Death came as a welcome release from suffering, and though her many friends feel keenly the loss, yet we are satisfied it was for the best. She rests now in peace.

News Briefs From P.W.C. By CHARLES E. MACARTHUR

Mr. Claude Wood, first year student is recovering from his recent painful injury, a broken arm re-crowed when cranking a car.

The members of the students council held a meeting in Prince of Wales College on Saturday when the following officers were elected: President, John Denny; vice-president, Gordon Hyde; secretary, Beatrice Blanchard.

The social held at the Little Theatre on Saturday night was a grand success, the program consisting of dancing, musical entertainment, games, singing and contests.

The regular weekly debate of section B society was held last Thursday. Miss Beatrice Blanchard read the minutes of the previous meeting. The subject was "Resolved that the younger generation is not as romantic as the gay nineties".

Football practice is being held in Victoria Park almost daily. The new football uniforms have arrived and the coach, Prof. MacDonald, wants more students to join up.

Students of Division 7 have accepted Division Six's challenge to a friendly game of football on Victoria Park.

Canadian Girl Guide Week

Thursday and Friday of this week are being observed as Citizenship and Service Days in Canadian Girl Guide Week.

Yesterday afternoon, the Guides of the 3rd Charlottetown Company (St. James Church) and the Brownies of the 2nd Charlottetown Pack (St. Paul's Church) entertained the children of Mount Herbert Orphanage with a variety program.

It is difficult to give the abstract ideal of service to the average girl, but Guiding tries to present concrete examples and by this method encourage the girl in her striving towards the goal.

Program consisted of a reading, "The Origin of Thanksgiving" by Marion Blonden, and "Hallow'en" by Mrs. Sterling MacLean.

Crew Marooned Aboard Vessel

FORT RESOLUTION, N.W.T., Oct. 21—(C.P.)—Caught by the Northland's "in between season", 24 men aboard the motor vessel Silver Queen awaited aerial rescue tonight on Moosedear Island in Great Slave Lake, not far from this Arctic Circle settlement.

A heavy sea yesterday prevented an airplane pilot from landing near the vessel, at rest only three miles from Fort Resolution, 750 miles north of Edmonton. Unless the present unfavorable flying weather clears, allowing planes to land by the motor vessel, the passenger and crew will be forced to stay aboard until after freeze-up when planes can use skills.
