COKE.—The Schr. Happy-Go-Lucky arrived here yesterday, with a cargo of American coke, to Buntain Bell & Co., 3347.

THE MORWENNA.—The S. S. Morwenna, from Montreal, is due here this morning. She has a full list of passengers and will dock at Buntain Bell & Co's. No. 2 wharf. 3247.

THE EMPRESS.—The Empress arrived at Summerside, on Saturday night at 8.45 o'clock with 100 passengers and about three carloads of freight.

FUNERAL TODAY.—The funeral of the late Miss Hazel B. McKenzie, takes place from the residence of her father, Mr. Ewen J. McKenzie, North River, at 2 o'clock this (Monday) afternoon.

ANTHRACITE.—The Schr. Bessie A. Crooks arrived Saturday evening from New York with a cargo of Anthracite coal in egg, stove, and chestnut sizes, to Buntain Bell & Co., 3347.

ORANGEMEN'S PARADE.—Yesterday the several lodges in Charlottetown of the L. O. A. paraded to divine service at St. James Church. In spite of the inclement weather there was an excellent turnout of the loyal Orangemen, and the parade, headed by the Fourth Regiment Band, was a striking one, which was witnessed by many. At St. James, the Rev. Dr. Fullerton preached an appropriate sermon in his characteristically forceful and eloquent manner.

FUNERAL OF MRS. MATTHEWS.—The funeral of Mrs. George Matthews took place yesterday afternoon from her late residence King's Square. In spite of the unpropitious weather, it was largely attended, and this in addition to the large number of beautiful floral tributes bore undoubted testimony to the great esteem in which the deceased lady was held by a large circle of friends and acquaintances. The pall-bearers were Messrs. Benjamin Brenner, E. H. Beer, Edward Chandler, Samuel Lowe, W. W. Stanley and John Wheat.

Matchless Silver Black Fox Company, Limited.

Here are Some Things You Should Know About the Matchless Company

The ten pairs of pedigreed silver black foxes are all eligible for registration in the herd books of the P. E. I. Fox Breeders Association—which means that they are of the purest blood, and perfect in type and conformation.

These foxes cost YOU but $17,500 per pair—which is your first and last cost connected with them, as the directors are paying all expenses connected with the organization of the Company.

These vulpine aristocrats will be ranged in two of the most successful ranches on the Island at a charge of 5 p. c. of the increase. Next year they will be ranged near Charlottetown at COST.

All money deposited by shareholders will bear savings bank interest up to September first.

Shares can be secured at the head office or from any of the directors at $100 each par, 20 p. c. on application, balance first of September.

PIPE BAND ARRIVES.—The Trenton Band of bagpipes, from New Glasgow, N. S., under Pipe-major Holmes arrived in Charlottetown on the steamer Northumberland on Saturday evening in order to take part in today's huge demonstration by the Orangemen. They afterwards gave a very enjoyable concert in Queen's Square which was listened to appreciatively by large crowds. This band will be one of the attractions at today's celebration.

SPECIAL TRAIN.—Dr. S. R. Jenkins travelled to Rustico by special train yesterday afternoon in order to bring down for admission to the P. E. I. Hospital, a truly patient who had been taken seriously ill with appendicitis. He was accompanied by his son, Dr. "Jack" Jenkins. The train returned to Charlottetown early in the evening and at the station was met by Wright's Ambulance in which the suffering lady was removed to the hospital where an operation was performed shortly afterwards and was attended with successful results.

BOYS CAMP.—Mr. Wesley Steele, Rural Boys Work Secretary, leaves this morning for Alberton to take charge of the Western Boys Camp which will be held near that place beginning next Friday evening and continuing for ten days. It is expected that about fifty boys will be in attendance. All boys going to the camp should be on the train leaving Summerside at noon on Friday. During this period the Boys Work Secretary or any of the boys may be addressed to Western Boys Camp, Alberton, P. E. Island.

CALL FOR VOLUNTEERS.—Good progress is being made with the building of the new bungalow at the Kensington rifle range. The frame is now up awaiting the promised help to have it boarded and shingled. All volunteers for this help are requested to parade at the bungalow this afternoon at two o'clock and to take along with them a saw and a hammer, or both, and a willing pair of hands. The new bungalow will afford the much-needed room. It is 60 feet long and 30 feet wide, with an eight-foot wide verandah on two sides. The new building has been erected thirty feet further to the south than the old building.
