THE RETURNING HEROES

To be Presented with a Purse of Gold Subscribed by the Citizens.

$200 ALREADY DONATED BY THE PEOPLE.

The Committee Meeting with Liberal Subscriptions—Souris to the Front.—Summerside is Expected to Respond Today.

The fund for our returning soldiers is being rapidly augmented and has even now assumed respectable proportions. The quality of giving has always been inherent in Islanders and this occasion is but another opportunity for them to display their unequalled generosity. Deeds of heroism never die the record of our Island boys through the sanguine struggles now almost ended is one that will never fade in the memories of loyal Islanders. It is but fitting that we should meet our gallant soldiers with more than a handshake. It is but just that we should add some substantial token of our gratitude. This is why you are asked to subscribe to the purse to be presented to each soldier accompanying which will be a printed list of the donors.

Let us all then unite and throw in whatever we can afford so that creeds, classes, militarism, etc. will be submerged by patriotic impulses.

- NOBLE RESPONSE FROM SOURIS.

Mr. Geo. E. Hughes, President of the Board of Trade.

DEAR SIR,—Your favor to hand. I have as yet been able to see only a few of the citizens of Souris. I feel that the people of Souris are only too willing to enter this list when the matter becomes more public and I trust that I shall be able to send you another contribution shortly. Enclosed find cheque for $30.00.
