P. E. I. RESPONSE TO FOOD CONTROL PLEDGE CARDS

That P. E. I. homes responded well to the food control pledge campaign is shown by the following letters:
Charlottetown, Jan. 28, 1918.
C. H. B. Longworth, Esq.,
Chairman of the Provincial Committee on Food Resources,
Charlottetown, P. E. I.
Dear Sir:—
I have to report the Food Control Pledge Card Campaign as practically completed.
The support given this work on Prince Edward Island has been most enthusiastic. An appeal was made through every active organization in the Province, and without exception the response has been generous. Many districts report 100 per cent. signed, Charlottetown and Summerside have made exceptional records and a pledge card hangs in nearly every window. Reports to hand show that thousands of families are actually saving wheat flour, bacon, and beef for the soldiers.
I cannot direct your attention to any special effort on the part of any one organization, because all have been most diligent in the prosecution of the work. I may say, however, that the women of the whole Province are to be complimented on their patriotic zeal.
The distribution of Pledge Cards in the country was undertaken by the Public Schools, and the success of the work has been an object lesson that has impressed on many minds the possibilities of this branch of our organization as a factor in the public welfare.
I am appending a report compiled by School districts.
I am,
Yours faithfully,
Provincial Committee on Food Resources.
WM. KERR, Secretary.

FOOD PLEDGE CARD CAMPAIGN OCTOBER, 1917.
Canvass was made in Charlottetown, Summerside, and 339 School Districts, and resulted as follows:—
Charlottetown, Pledges signed 1529, 90 per cent.
Summerside, Pledges signed 543, about 95 per cent.
School Districts, Pledges signed 3280, about 75 per cent., making in all 5452 households now pledged to conserve food required by Great Britain and her Allies.

CARD OF THANKS:
Provincial Committee on Food Resources.
Chairman's Office,
Charlottetown, P. E. I.,
January 30, 1918.
I wish to extend thanks on behalf of this Committee to all the ladies on the different Committees throughout P. E. I. Island, who so kindly gave their time to make the Food Pledge Card Campaign such a success. Also to the clergymen of all denominations who gave the work such hearty support from the pulpit; to the members of the Women's Institutes and Red Cross Societies, and lastly to the teachers and scholars and the schools in the Rural Districts who delivered the cards and returned them to Headquarters. Ontario and Prince Edward Island were the first two Provinces to complete this work.
C. H. B. LONGWORTH,
Chairman Provincial Committee on Food Resources.

The pupils were examined by their capable and pains taking teacher, Miss Adele Smith of Georgetown, assisted by Miss Mary Murphy a former pupil and teacher of this school, late teacher at Van guar, Sask., who is home on her vacation, showed by their ready answers that they are making good progress. The ratepayers school officers and visitors present, who included Mrs. Allan McKenzie, Little Pond, King's Co. (Nee Maggie Condon) a former pupil of this school and graduate from Union Commercial College, Charlottetown, spoke very highly of the progress made by the pupils. After some very complimentary remarks to teacher and pupils by Mr. Adar French, Peter Condon, William Jamieson, Mrs. William and Joseph R. McDonald and others. The examination closed by all singing the National Anthem.—Comm.

IN MEMORIAM
PTE. ROBERT EDGAR WHITE
The late Pte. R. E. White, was the son of Mr. and Mrs. John T. White of Cornwall. He was born at Montague in September 29th, thirty eight years ago. In 1903 he left his home at Cornwall and went to Winnipeg and later moved to Edmonton where he had charge of a branch store for Ames, Holden and Company of Montreal. In March 1916 he responded to the call of King and Country and enlisted in the 202nd Battalion. He left Canada for England in November 1916 and went from there to France in May 1917. He was in the trenches and passed through some serious engagements until he met his death at Passchendaele on October 30th. His last field ard, which his parents received after his death, was written on the 28th and mailed on the 29th so that he made the supreme sacrifice the next day. His parents received the sad news on November 20th and have since been expecting to hear something about him, but nothing has yet come. He was a sincere and earnest Christian, and was loved by all who knew him. He was survived by three sisters and two brothers. The sisters are: Mrs. Daniel Stewart of Montague; Mrs. Edward Robertson of Boston; Mrs. W. W. Rosby of Cornwall, P. E. I. One brother, Ethan, also enlisted and is in England expecting when last heard from to leave soon for France. The late Mr. White was a member of the 202nd Battalion, and was a member of the National Anthem.

LECTURE AT CLIFTON, NEW LONDON
A most interesting and instructive lecture on "Seeds and Fruits" was delivered in the New London Hall (Clifton, on Wednesday evening, Jan. 23rd by the Rev. J. C. Martin of Wood Islands.
It was a cold night, but the hall was comfortably filled before the lecturer arrived and the proceeds in the vicinity of $50.00 were very gratifying to the ladies of the Women's Institute under whose auspices the lecture was held. The following excellent program preceded the lecture:
Song..... R. M. Lamour
Reading..... Miss Elsie Brow
Solo..... Mrs. A. C. McGregor
Solo..... Miss Mabel McGregor
Reading..... Geo. G. G. G.
Solo..... Mrs. (Capt.) Alfred McLeod
Song..... R. M. Lamour
Rev. G. W. Irvine presided in his usual happy manner.
Mr. Martin, in introducing his subject, recalled many happy reminiscences of bygone days when as a young man he taught school in the neighborhood of Stanley Bridge. He was glad to see some of the old faces in the audience and congratulated them on staying by the farm and community and making the community life what it is.
By the wording of the subject, the audience were led to expect an address along the line of agriculture but to their satisfaction they found the title to be metaphorical and the speaker to be the seed as George Washington, the German philosopher and the fruit as the university, with all its attendant horrors. The seed of German militarism and craving for world domination and a spot in the Kaiser's fertile brain. It may have been suggested by the custom of a former empress who created a body of 20,000 soldiers each a success five months ago that at the end of the year she had an army of 200,000 bearing arms. In any case, the Kaiser was wise enough to know that this military system and a ready-made character to suit it, could not be made by act of parliament or order-in-council. No. It required at least a quarter of a century. He must operate on the child in the home and in the school so that when he leaves school at fourteen he was a well trained soldier on which the parents had little claim, for now he belonged to the state and was fast becoming an ordinary state-worshipper.
But the Kaiser did not do things by halves. He must make his system complete and so he operates through the church or "kirk" as it is called in Germany. This too was a slow process for it was no easy task to transform the country of Luther-steeped in the gospel principles into a nation of militarists that hated their fellow-nations—especially England with a hellish vehemence. The freedom of the pulpit or the press was not known in Germany for many years before the war. The Emperor and his coterie of advisers formed what might be termed an "idea factory" and the strict censorship was exercised on all outside of what was disseminated by this factory. All the pulpits taught in the higher colleges of the nation, except where American and English students studied, was permeated with the most bitter hatred of England. Finally, when all the people of the nation and all the inhabitants were literally saturated with militarism in all its aspects, the consensus of opinion among the "wise heads" was come in August 1914. So the whole of the long-looked for day had world is eating of the bitter fruit of this bad thought seed.
At the conclusion of the lecture, Mr. Irvine on behalf of the audience and more particularly the ladies of the Women's Institute tendered Mr. Martin a most hearty vote of thanks. He said the instructive lecture threw light on the horrible atrocities that had been committed by the Germans in this war. The meeting closed with the National Anthem.

MEAT CAUSE OF KIDNEY TROUBLE
Take Salts to Flush Kidneys if Back Hurts or Bladder Bothers
If you must have your meat every day, eat it, but flush your kidneys with salts occasionally, says a noted authority who tells us that meat uric acid which almost paralyzes the kidneys in their efforts to excrete it from the blood. They become sluggish and weaken, then you suffer with a dull misery in the kidney region, sharp pains in the back or sick headache, dizziness, your stomach grows sour, tongue is coated and when the weather is bad you have rheumatic twinges, the urine gets cloudy, full of sediment, the channels often get sore and irritated, obliging you to seek relief two or three times during the night.
To neutralize these irritating acids and cleanse the kidneys and flush out the body's urinous waste get four ounces of Jad Salts from any pharmacy here; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to flush and stimulate sluggish kidneys, also to neutralize the acids in urine, so it is never irritating, thus ending bladder weakness.
Jad Salts is inexpensive; cannot injure, and makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink.

JOHN CAMPBELL
On the nineteenth day of December 1917, John Campbell of Park Corner, died at his residence at 1414 St. George Street, after a long illness. He was a sincere and earnest Christian, and was loved by all who knew him. He was survived by three sisters and two brothers. The sisters are: Mrs. Daniel Stewart of Montague; Mrs. Edward Robertson of Boston; Mrs. W. W. Rosby of Cornwall, P. E. I. One brother, Ethan, also enlisted and is in England expecting when last heard from to leave soon for France. The late Mr. White was a member of the 202nd Battalion, and was a member of the National Anthem.

Lens Grinding
Do You Know?
That we operate the only Lens Grinding Plant on P. E. Island?
That we employ a skilled Surface Grinder, and are daily grinding from the rough glass—the most complicated kinds of lenses?
These are facts, which mean a good deal to the Glass wearing public, doing away with the annoying delays caused by sending away for special lenses.
Send your glasses in by mail, you'll get them back promptly and in perfect condition.
Call in and look over our plant.
G. F. Hutcheson
Optometrist and Optician

tribute of respect to one who had long been a good neighbor and a kind and faithful friend. The Rev. Mr. Irvine conducted the funeral service and interment was made in the old cemetery by the Geddie memorial church.
The late Mr. Campbell was the son of James Campbell and Elizabeth Montgomery of Park Corner, where he was born in 1834. Of his many brothers and sisters only one survives him. Mrs. Donald Montgomery of Summerside, P. E. Island. He was married to Annie Laura MacNeil, daughter of the late Alexander MacNeil of Cavendish, who survives him with four children—Mrs. Fred Wilson and Miss Stella Campbell of Los Angeles, California, Mrs. Cameron MacFarlane of MacDonald College, Quebec, and George, the only son, at home.
The late Mr. Campbell was a man of sterling integrity and uprightness, of warm affections and unwavering loyalty. No one ever looked to him in vain for sympathy and assistance. He was noted for his hospitality and none who were guests in his home will ever forget his genial welcome and his hearty handshake. Almost to the last he retained the heart of youth under gray hairs and old and young alike found in him a comrade.
About two years ago Mr. Campbell's robust health finally failed him and during the past year his sufferings were so great that death came as a friend to release him from bondage. He leaves behind him a memory which will always be tenderly cherished in the hearts of those who loved him.
"We cannot say and we will not say that he is dead—he is just away. With a cheery smile and a wave of the hand
He has wandered into a fairer land And you, oh, you who the deepest yearn
For the old-time step and the glad return.
Think of him just the same I say, He is not dead—he is just away."
MRS. HIBBERT HUGHES

Many hearts were touched with grief when it was known on Jan. 21st that Mrs. Hibbert Hughes of West Covehead had succumbed to serious illness leaving a husband and family of three small children to suffer an irreparable loss. Less than two months ago, her parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Duck, of Pleasant Grove were called upon to mourn the loss of another dear daughter, Mrs. Raymond Carr of Stanhope, and this is to them a double portion of sorrow. There are also left two sisters, Mrs. Edmund McMillan and Mrs. George Kelly both of Cavendish. All that loving care and careful nursing could do, was done, but her illness was the very serious one of pneumonia and earthly power could not avail to save "Fanny" as she was known to so many, was a generous faithful friend and a loyal earnest helper in every good work. All who knew her both trusted and loved her. She was a sincere and earnest Christian with deepest faith in her Heavenly Father's care and we think with what strong confidence and joy her freed spirit will enter into the fuller richer life now given her. The funeral was very largely attended by friends from all parts. The pastor Rev. J. L. Dawson was absent through illness but Rev. G. G. Fulton of Charlottetown and Rev. W. Wilson of Winslow were present and took part in the services at both house and grave services. Thou art gone to the grave but we will not deplore thee
Whose God was thy ransom thy guardian and guide
He gave thee He took thee and He will restore thee
And death hath no sting for the Saviour hath died.
THOMAS H. DAVEY

On Monday evening, January 21st 1918 the earthly life of Thomas H. Davey of Guernsey Cove, P. E. I. came to a close after a sojourn in the midst of mundane surroundings, of ninety two years and nine months. Mr. Davey was born at Guernsey Cove and of the age of fourteen he went to Murray Harbor North where he entered the employ of Mr. Clow, prosperous merchant, farmer and ship-builder. In this place Mr. Davey spent some twenty years part of which time he was foreman in Mr. Clow's shipyard. His strong physique, industrious habits and trustworthiness could not fail to eventually make him a prosperous man when he later returned to Guernsey Cove and secured a farm which he gradually made one of the best in that well-to-do community. In March 1877 Mr. Davey married Miss Louisa Richards of Vernon River. To this union there came four children—Fred on the homestead, John of Guernsey Cove, Mrs. Arthur Guild, Attleboro, Mass., and Lovell of Wolfe Point, Montana.
His family with the widow survived to cherish the memory of a kind father and devoted husband. The deceased showed remarkable interest in poor children left orphans, for during forty years of his life he cared for no less than nine such children and when they were grown up he permitted them to shift for themselves. His house was spoken of on some occasions as "the orphan's home."
For more than three years the departed was confined to his room through a partial stroke of paralysis, but during all this time he was most patient and bore his illness without murmur or complaint. He greatly appreciated the visits of his pastor and to those most intimate with him he spoke of his approaching dissolution without fear or regret. The funeral service was held on Thursday evening, January 24th, at 7 o'clock. The pall bearers were: Wm. Beck, Hon. A. P. Prowse, John Winslow, David White, Isaac Stewart and Percy LeLacheur. Interment was made in the Murray Harbor Cemetery (Patriot please copy.)
JAMES D. MACEWEN.

St. Peter's Bay and Mrs. Annie Davison of St. Peter's Harbour, P. E. I.; James D. MacEwen one of the oldest and best known business men of New England died at his home in Natick, January 7th, in his 70th year. He was the son of William and Harriett Anderson MacEwen. He received his education in his native schools coming to the United States in early manhood. He made his home in Arlington and Boston, learning carriage and wagon building in every department. In 1870 he came to Natick and established the business which he has successfully carried on until the present time. He was associated with the late Leonard Morse for 20 years in both a business and a friendly way. Upright and just in his dealings with his customers, they were his friends as well. Many of the present ones are grandchildren of his first customers. He was a lovable man who always had a cheerful, happy word and smile for every one. He was always greatly interested in young men and seven capable men of the world owe their start in life to him.
