A PASTOR CONDEMNS NE TEMERE DECREE

TORONTO, April 25—In his sermon in Broadway Tabernacle, Rev. Dr. Hincks said:—

"We have a church and state conflict in Canada today as real as in St. Paul's days, the difference being that in Paul's case, it was his life which was in danger, while in Canada's case it is the Christian home, and the Civil rights of every Protestant, who marries a Romanist. There is a very real conflict. Canada is British, and two sets of laws, utterly incompatible with each, are striving to Govern British subjects. A ruler living in Rome, with his Cabinets, has made one set of marriage laws, while rulers living in Canada, with their Cabinets, have made another set of marriage laws. The conflict is between these laws. Which of them shall rule in Canada?

In Quebec the conflict is about over, because the Canon law has won. The for no other reason than that the Hebert case clearly is a case of conflict between Church and State, if for no other reason than that the rights of that Methodist Minister are infringed. That Minister should at least attempt to vindicate his right while acting as a State official with the Lieutenant-Governor's warrant in his hand, authorizing him to do what every Protestant Minister in the Empire can do except in Malta.

A couple were married in the Roman Catholic chapel of St. John's, Quebec. After living together as man and wife, the man discovered his wife was his second cousin. He appealed to the Archbishop of Montreal, and that functionary declared the marriage invalid. That husband has since married another woman.

A citizen of the diocese of Montreal applied for a dispensation to marry his second cousin and obtained it. After he grew tired of his wife, or had stirrings of conscience, he asked to have his marriage annulled on the ground that she was his first cousin.

He had represented her to be his second cousin when he married her, in order to save $100, which is the price of the dispensation, to enable first cousins to marry. His marriage was annulled.

Here again you have the church in conflict with State morality of the whole British Empire, except Malta. This took place in a province over which the British flag waves, and you are asked to allow this gross immorality to continue because if you do not allow these priests to break up homes they may break up the Confederation.

Two young French-Canadians met in Paris, France. They were married in the Church of St. Sulpice, by the Abbe Jobin. They found they were uncongenial. The court of the Archbishop of Montreal declared the marriage ceremony was not binding because neither belonged to the parish in Paris, in which they were married. The marriage was declared void.

Robert Sellar tells of a French-Canadian couple who applied to a Protestant minister in Montreal to be married. They were legally united. Four children were born to them. The husband was secretary to the Lieutenant-Governor. This husband asked the Archbishop to declare his marriage void. The Archbishop did so. The wife was then deserted.

Quebec was never guaranteed the right by the British North America Act, in making the marriage laws of Quebec Province to destroy the rights of every sect but one.

The British North America Act never gave Quebec the right to brand a woman as a concubine, her husband as an adulterer, and her children as illegitimate, because of the creed of the minister who married her.

The British North America Act never intended marriage laws made in Italy to dilute civil liberty out of marriage laws made in Canada.

The British North America Act never dreamed of setting up in Canada two standards of marriage morality. Charles the First dreamed for England what we have in Quebec, and lost his head. James the Second dreamed for England what we have in Quebec, and lost his throne.

But, some one will say, such cases as I have recited can never occur in Ontario.

"Are you sure? You have the decree in force in the Roman Catholic churches in Ontario under which these things have already taken place in Quebec.

"In Ontario suppose two persons leave the Roman Church. After twenty years they want to get married. A Protestant minister marries them. This decree now in force in every Roman Church in Ontario declares their marriage invalid.

"Ontario statutes declare that marriage is valid. Roman Church law declares that marriage is not valid. Here you have a conflict sufficient to break up many a home, conflict between duty to God and duty to the State."

HIRAM CARPENTER'S WONDERFUL CURE OF SKIN DISEASE

After 20 Years of Intense Suffering.

"I have been afflicted for twenty years with an obstinate skin disease, called by some M. D's, psoriasis, and others leprosy, commencing on my scalp; and in spite of all I could do, with the help of the most skilful doctors, it slowly but surely extended until a year ago this winter it covered my entire person in the form of dry scales. For the last three years I have been unable to do any labor, and suffering intensely all the time. Every morning there would be nearly a dustpanful of scales taken from the sheet on my bed, some of them half as large as the envelope containing this letter. In the latter part of winter my skin commenced cracking open. I tried everything, almost, that could be thought of, without any relief. The 12th of June I started West, in hopes I could reach the Hot Springs. I reached Detroit and was so low I thought I should have to go to the hospital, but finally got as far as Lansing, Mich., where I had a sister living. One Dr. —— treated me about two weeks, but did me no good. All thought I had but a short time to live. I earnestly prayed to die. Cracked through the skin all over my back across my ribs, arms, hands, limbs; feet badly swollen; toe-nails came off; finger-nails dead and hard as a bone; hair dead, dry and lifeless as old straw. O my God! how I did suffer.

"My sister, Mrs. E. H. Davis, had a small part of a box of Cuticura in the house. She wouldn't give up; said, 'We will try Cuticura.' Some was applied on one hand and arm Eureka! there was relief; stopped the terrible burning sensation from the word go. They immediately got Cuticura Resolvent, Ointment and Soap. I commenced by taking one tablespoonful of Cuticura Resolvent three times a day after meals; had a bath once a day, water about blood heat; used Cuticura Soap freely; applied Cuticura Ointment morning and evening. Result: returned to my home in just six weeks from the time I left, and my skin as smooth as this sheet of paper. Hiram E. Carpenter, Henderson, N. Y."

"We hereby certify that we are acquainted with the aforesaid Hiram E. Carpenter, and know his condition to have been as stated. We believe his statement to be true in every particular." L. B. Simmons & Son, Merchants; G. A. Thompson, Merchant; A. A. Davis; Millard E. Joiner, Merchant; John Carpenter; A. M. Leffingwell, Attorney and Counselor-at-law, all of Henderson, N. Y.

The above remarkable testimonial was written January 19, 1880, and is republished because of the permanency of the cure. Under date of April 22, 1910, Mr. Carpenter wrote from his present home, 610 Walnut St. So., Lansing, Mich.: "I have never suffered a return of the psoriasis and although many years have passed I have not forgotten the terrible suffering I endured before using the Cuticura Remedies."

Since this cure was made by the Cuticura Remedies, they have made their way to every part of the civilized world. A 32-page booklet describing humors, and affections of the skin will be mailed free to those desiring further information by the Potter Drug & Chemical Corporation, Boston, U. S. A.

SOCIALISTS PLANNING HOT FIGHT

VIENNA, April 25—Of all the groups engaged in preparing for the general election in the seventeen provinces of the Austrian empire on June 13, the Socialists are most sure of improving their position. They had eighty seven seats in the parliament just ended and they hope to run up to a hundred.

Electioneering is proceeding actively but all the organizations compare badly with that of the Socialists. Most of the sport of the contest is seen in Vienna, where the Christian Socialists and the regular Socialist party are in opposition. At present there are twenty Christian Socialists representing the Austrian capital—out of thirty-three seats—and ten Socialists. The latter are moving heaven and earth to reverse this proportion.

The opposition candidates are in something of a dilemma. Because the Czechs had only one representative in the cabinet, instead of the three they claimed they harrassed Premier Bienerth, by obstructing naval and domestic appropriations, till he appealed to the country. Now, though the opposition orators are denouncing all proposals for new taxes should they gain office they will have to resort to them to replenish the exchequer and meet new demands.

Generally speaking the contests are being fought on small local issues, the only clear line of a national character being the opposition of the Czechs and all the parties belonging to the Slav Union of Baron Bienerth because of his alliance with the Germans and his bureaucratic system of government. Wnat the Slav Union aims at in this fight is to secure at least a stronger proportion on the new ministry favorable to Slavs. Bohemia is hostile to the Bienerth cabnet, but the German sections of the country are strongly on the side of the government and rejoice that the election is being managed by pro-Germans—a big advantage in an Austria fight.

CALLS INCOME TAX ENGLAND'S "CURSE"

NEW YORK, April 25—Describing the income tax as "a curse" and asserting that he had "grown to be a protectionist," the Duke of Manchester, accompanied by the duchess, who was Miss Helena Zimmerman, of Cincinnati, Ohio, departed for London yesterday on board the Carmania, of the Cunard line. They came here two months ago and visited in Cuba and Florida. Eugene Zimmerman, father of the duchess, was at the pier to see them off.

"I see that there is being agitated in the United States what has been one of Great Britain's greatest curses, the income tax," the duke said. "There are many phases of the income tax that are injurious, and the people of this country will find them out. It is foolish for the citizens of New York to favor such a tax, for they would pay the greatest proportion of it of any section of the country. I understand that New York would pay one-seventh of the total income tax of the countrv. Oklahoma, of course, would not be hit hard.

"The income tax in England is twenty-six cents on $5 for sums of from $800 to $25,000, and for sums larger than that the tax is forty cents on each $5. The tax gives rise to an inquisition into a man's private affairs, inquiries regarding his bankers, his solicitors and his brokers."

The duke expressed pleasure over the passage of the Canadian reciprocity bill.

"It is not so beneficial to England, of course," he added. "Our loss is the gain of the United States. It is our own fault, however, for we have had nothing to offer Canada. We had no tariff that we could grant to Canada. I have grown to be a protectionist. I believe Great Britain should have a protective tariff. Our colonies are getting to the point where they can help supply any of the needs of the empire. Those who are opposed to a protective tariff have raised the cry that the cost of food would go up, but they conceal from the laboring man the fact that wages also would go up and that thereby the country would have increased prosperity."

MOUNT ALLISON GRADUATING RECITALS

SACKVILLE, April 26.—The crowded state of Bethoven Hall last evening, testified to the popularity of the Mt. Allison Conservatory graduates for 1911. These were Ella Withrow James, Sackville, N. B. (Soprano Vocalist); Susie Kathleen Turner, St. John, N. B. and Elizabeth Augusta Stebbings, Gibson, N. B. (Pianists).

The former displayed a voice of enriching beauty and sweetness and this coupled with a thorough knowledge of her work and charming grace of manner pleased her hearers immensely and reflected great credit on her teacher, Miss Fydell.

The two latter showed both polish and taste in the way they played their various selections and demonstrated that they were the possesors of technique and musical temperament in no small degree. They also reflected great credit on their teacher Prof. Horsfall, Director of the Conservatory.

Each girl was the recipient of several beautiful bouquets.

The graduates were ably assisted by Miss Haidie Kingston, (Reader) and altogether Mount Allison may be congratulated on having such successful students.

Another very successful recital was that given by Miss Eleanor Turner, Beausejour, Manitoba, (Reader),) on Friday evening last. Miss Turner has a fine voice which she used to good advantage and delighted her audience with her various readings which covered a wide range from the tragic to the comic. Miss Turner was assisted by Miss Hughes (Vocalist) and Miss Goodill (Pianist).

LORDS WANT FOUR CHANCES TO BEAT LIBERAL MEASURES

LONDON, April 26.—The only amendment to the parliament bill discussed in the house of commons today was one proposing that a bill rejected thrice by the house of lords should be submitted to a referendum. This led to an interesting duel between Premier Asquith and Mr. Balfour, and finally was rejected by a vote of 286 to 164.
