

Why Cough

Ask your doctor if all coughs are necessary. If not, then why cough? Ask him about Ayer's Cherry Pectoral.

Stop coughing! Coughing rasps and tears. Stop it! Coughing prepares the throat and lungs for more trouble. Stop it! There is nothing so bad for a cough as coughing. Stop it! Ayer's Cherry Pectoral is a regular doctor's medicine for coughs and colds.

The large Prince St. window of Johnson and Johnson's druggstore, City was the centre of attraction last evening when a large speckled trout weighing over 21 lbs was on exhibition. The trout was caught by W. H. Arbing, Kensington Road, City, and will remain in the window this morning until 11 o'clock.

Through the efforts of Hon John McMillan, one of the representatives for the second district of Queen's, a special arrangement has been made whereby the S. S. Harland will make a trip up West River on every alternate Friday, and every alternate Saturday. Last year she went up on Saturday's only, and as the people were requesting a market day trip, Hon Mr. McMillan determined to meet their wishes. She will go to West River next Saturday, and on the following Friday, and so on during the remainder of the season. The Hillsborough will not make a trip up the river, as was reported.

That denominational differences are not insurmountable is well proven by the work of the Canadian Bible Society. On April 15th, for example, Rev. R. J. Bowen, an Anglican clergyman who is the society's secretary for Western Ontario, will accompany Rev. G. M. Campbell, who is secretary for Bristol No. 1, and a well known Methodist, to Newfoundland. There they will remain in the society's interests until the end of May. Mr. Bowen will reach the city by the Montreal train today. Tomorrow morning he will preach in St. John's (Stone) church, and in the evening will be at Rothersey. Rev. Dr. Campbell left last night for New Glasgow, where he will preach on Sunday.—St. John Telegraph 2nd.

D. Lawrence MacLaren is leaving for McAdam Junction today, where he will engage in work. Mr. MacLaren's departure entails a distinct loss to junior sporting circles. He has been prominently identified for some time past in practically every form of athletics indulged in in this city, and gives promise of being no mean exponent of the prowess of St. John in outdoor pastimes. Mr. MacLaren will also be missed in musical circles. He is a finished piper and dancer and has been much in demand by virtue of his accomplishments as an entertainer.—St. John Standard. (Mr. MacLaren is a son of Mr. MacLaren, Inspector of Customs. His skill as a piper and dancer has been demonstrated at the Caledonian gatherings in this province).

The Charlottetown School of Music Orchestra numbering 22 will give a recital in the auditorium at Montague on the 14th inst, a special train will leave the city and will return after program will be over. Rev. D. B. McLeod will deliver a lecture in the Orange Hall, Uigg, on Friday, April 8th, at 7.30 p. m. Admission, 10 cents. 4-621r11.

Eye Strain

is a warning that should be heeded—it is nature's rebellion against ill-usage. If the person is a juvenile it's all the more reason why the case should have prompt attention. Children's eyes are even more delicate and should receive the attention of an expert optician.

We always take particular attention with children's eyes. In fact with our Retinoscopy system of eye examination and lens grinding facilities we offer an unexcelled service. There's no haphazard selection here—every lens is made to suit the individual requirements of every patient.

The program at New Wonderland last night was something worthy of special mention. The lectured film "Nero, or the Burning of Rome" was from the spectacular standpoint, one of the grandest ever seen here, while the historical interest of the story was of itself sufficient to draw the large audience present. The lecture was of itself worth hearing, and the combination splendid. The scenic picture, through the Aude Pass, surpassed any other of the same line that even New Wonderland has shown, and the mingling of good clean comedy in the Lottery Ticket with the real life story told by Comedy and Tragedy completed a program worth many times the price of admission. Bud Carmin in "Red, Red Roses" scored a hit as well as in his specialty. His engagement closes soon and there is only a limited time left to hear the finest boy singer ever sent this way.
