"Down Mexico Way" MESQUITEERS
Tops Every Other Autry Hit

Blazing guns, fast getaway action, comely gal, hit tunes, and public Gene Autry, the Gene Autry, is the neat cinematic package which under the title of "Down Mexico Way" will open a three day run today at the Empire Theatre.

Tom Tyler joins Bob Steele and Rufé Davis in the trio, replacing Bob Livingston, who has portrayed the character of "Stony Brooke" for several years.

The Mesquiteers, according to the script are aided by their superior officer, Captain Timothy Sheldon, who will not permit them to cross the border into the Cherokee Strip after their every day, the Rangers overstep their authority and capture the bandit. He is brought to trial, condemned and executed. However, in order to bring about a verdict of "guilty" Captain Sheldon had to guarantee safety to the jurors who had been threatened by Pete's brother, an outlaw king named Val.

Val, hot for vengeance, embarks on open warfare with the Rangers, seeking the amnesty of the Cherokee Strip after every day, the Rangers overstep their authority and capture the bandit. He is brought to trial, condemned and executed. However, in order to bring about a verdict of "guilty" Captain Sheldon had to guarantee safety to the jurors who had been threatened by Pete's brother, an outlaw king named Val.

PARWELL PARTY

Scene time ago the New Haven Women's Institute sponsored a farewell party for Sgt. Al Leonard and Mrs. Frank McElroy. A large crowd from his native and neighboring districts assembled to do him honor in his departure for the front line in defense of our country. The gathering was called to order by Mr. W. R. Shaw who called upon Mr. Leonard to give a parting address, and Mr. Thomas Devereaux who presented the guest of honor with a very substantial sum of money, to which Mr. Leonard responded by a fitting reply. Mr. Shaw then addressed the gathering in his usual genial manner in which he has seen fit to take his place in the front line in defense of our country. The remainder of the evening was pleasantly spent in conversation and singing. Mr. Leonard has lately arrived in England and is attached to the R. A. F.
