A Dramatic and Thrilling Photo-Drama of Mother Love

Once you have seen what it means to break

The Forgotten Law

you can never forget it—not want to.

The most forceful photo-drama of a decade

Produced under the personal supervision of Max Graf

Adapted by Joseph Franklin Poland from Caroline Abbott Stanley's novel.

Directed by James W. Herrick

What was "The Forgotten Law" that separated mother and child, when the head of the house died? The love of the mother for her child was great, indeed, yet the law sanctioned their separation. Don't miss this powerful dramatic photoplay of mother love.

Special Added Attraction

MAN VERSUS BEAST

The most thrilling motion picture ever brought out of the Jungles of darkest Africa. Personal encounters with nature's most savage beasts are shown in close up for the first time on any screen.

Palm and olive oils —nothing else—give nature's green color to Palmolive Soap

69 B. C.—1923 A. D.

Cleopatra may seem a far-off, misty figure in looking backward nearly 2000 years. But she kept her youthful complexion in the same simple, easy way women do today.

She used the same rare oils, that are blended in Palmolive today. The Palm and Olive oils which give this famous facial soap its lotion-like, cosmetic qualities.
