S. S. LESSON

LESSON 11.—DECEMBER 17. FRUITS OF RIGHT AND WRONG DOING. GOLDEN TEXT.

Whatever a man soweth, that shall he also reap.—Gal. 6 7.

OUTLINE.

1. A Stern Arrangement, v. 13-15.
2. A Precious Promise, v. 16-18.
3. The Refusing Fire, v. 1.
4. The Sun of Righteousness, v. 2-5. Time.—About B. C. 432. Place.—Jerusalem.

LESSON HELPS.

"Your words"—The words of infidels and scoffers, who denied that there was profit in serving God, for the wicked man, they affirmed, was the prosperous one. "What have we spoken so much against thee"—A strange question for such to ask. They would either deny or defend their conduct.

"It is vain to serve God"—They thought and taught that piety did not pay. "What profit is it"—A question too many ask in their hearts to-day; nevertheless "godliness is profitable unto all things." "Walked mournfully"—in the pathway of repentance.

Tears of contrition do not add to one's wealth, they thought. Perhaps not, but is money everything? Is character nothing? Is goodness nothing? Is not the triumph over evil a triumph worth attaining?

The practical infidel speaks. Her is an old objection to the divine administration. Some men deride, some are puzzled by what they see in society, but Christian faith exclaims, "God is just, God is good, and time will vindicate both his justice and goodness." "We walk by faith, not by sight."

16. Mark the contrast. Good men were found among many evil men, as grains of salt to prevent the utter decay of social life. Even so are they now. "They that feared the Lord"—A holy fear, not a Jewish one, and it led them to forsake evil.

"Spake"—In memory of God and his commandments, for they "thought upon his name." Speaking should be the expression of thought. "A book of remembrance" An allusion to the record kept by kings of such as had performed honorable service and should be rewarded. See Esth. 6. 1.

17. "My jewels"—Rather, my treasures. A day will come, the day of judgement, when these shall all be safely gathered. "I will spare them"—Take care of them as a father takes care of his children.

Not now, but "then shall ye discern" Why not discern now the difference between "the righteous and the wicked?" Be wise! Wait not for the revelations of the judgement.

"Behold, the day cometh"—The day of divine punishment. "All the proud"—Spoken of in chap. 3. 15 "Neither root nor branch"—A proverbial expression for complete destruction. Neither man, woman, nor child was to be spared.

"The Sun of Righteousness"—Even Jesus, the Messiah, the hope of Israel. "In his wings"—poetic expression for beams or rays. "As calves of the stall"—With health and vigour. A promise fulfilled in many ways—especially in vigorous development of the Christian church.

3. "Ye shall tread down the wicked"—What will the infidel, whose utterance is in chap. 3. 15 now say?

4. "The law of Moses"—Which predicted these things. "In Horeb"—Deut. 4. 10.

5. "Elijah the prophet"—John the Baptist is here meant, in whose spirit and power he came. See the allusion in the New Testament. This brief chapter contains three wonderful predictions:

- (1) The coming of John the Baptist;
- (2) The coming of Christ;
- (3) The destruction of Jerusalem.

BE CURED OF CATARRH.

It is quite easy to cure yourself of Catarrh or Asthma, if you use Catarrhazone, the medicated sir treatment for all diseases of the nasal and respiratory organs caused by germ life. Catarrhazone will cure—absolutely cure—Catarrh, and is a very pleasant remedy that can be used without any danger or risk whatever. When inhaled it rapidly volatilizes and finds its way to the very seat of the disease, where it kills the microbic life that causes catarrh and at the same time restores all irritated membranes of their normal condition, effecting a permanent cure. You simply breathe the; Catarrhazone does the rest. One trial will demonstrate its worth. For sale at all drug-gists or by mail, price $1.00. For trial outfit send 10c in stamps to N. C. POLSON & CO., Box 539 Kingston, Ont.
