

No Alcohol!

Is alcohol a tonic? No! Does it make the blood pure? No! Does it strengthen the nerves? No! Is Ayer's Sarsaparilla a tonic? Yes! Does it make the blood pure? Yes! Does it strengthen the nerves? Yes! Is it entirely free from alcohol? Yes!

Ask your doctor if a family medicine, like Ayer's Sarsaparilla, is not vastly better without alcohol than with it.

While an officer of the Police force was walking along Queen Street early yesterday morning he observed a brown felt hat and an angular package in one of the doorways of Prowse Bros Store. On investigation he found the package to be three bottles of beer, of unknown strength, with the labels carefully scraped off, evidently to disguise the true nature of the contents. The hat is of Boston manufacture and is size seven. The articles were taken in charge and are now at the station.

The Peoples Church was well filled last evening at the Union Prayer service. Rev Mr McLean gave an earnest address on people resting upon the finished work of Christ, for their salvation, and that if God was to use them in Christian work, that there must be much in prayer and the reading of God's word. Besides Mr McLean, on the platform were the Rev Messrs Ross and Harrison. The singing was most hearty and a number of prayers were offered for the out-pouring of the Holy Spirit upon the approaching evangelistic mission, which opens here next Thursday by Dr Elliot.

The home of Frederick L. Gwynn, Dorchester, Mass, was the scene of a more than ordinary interesting event, Saturday evening, Oct. 16th, at 7 o'clock, when Mrs Gwynn's sister, Miss Prudence Catherine Wood, was united in the holy bonds of matrimony to Charles K. Brehaut of Westboro, Mass. The marriage ceremony was performed by the Rev Edward Braislin, pastor of the Dorchester Baptist Temple, in the presence of a few intimate friends. The bride looked charming in a gown of white silk and carried a bouquet of white chrysanthemums. Their many friends extend their sincere best wishes. Mr and Mrs Brehaut left for their future home in Westboro, Mass.
