GETTING AHEAD OF WHOM.

Our business in life is not to get ahead of other people, but to get ahead of ourselves. To break your own record, to outstrip your yesterday by today, to bear our trials more beautifully than we ever dreamed we could, to whip the tempter inside and out as we never whipped him before, to give as we never have given, to do our work with more force and a finer finish than ever—this is the true idea, to get ahead of ourselves, to beat some one else in a game, or to be beaten, may mean much or little. To beat our own game means a great deal. Whether we win or not, we are playing better than we ever did before, and that's the point after all—to play a better game of life.

"Out of all stress and strife, out of all disappointments, pain, heartache, what deathless profit shall I gain? If sorrow comes, shall it slay? Or shall I bear a song away? When wave and tide against me lift, shall I still cleave my course, or drift? Soul! nerve thyself to such as these Deep problems, sacred destinies! It matters not what fate may give; The best is thine—to nobly live."

IN MISERY FOR YEARS

Mrs. Courtney Tells How She Was Cured by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Oskaloosa, Iowa.—"For years I was simply in misery from a weakness and awful pains—and nothing seemed to do me any good. A friend advised me to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I did so and got relief right away. I can certainly recommend this valuable medicine to other women who suffer, for it has done such good work for me and I know it will help others if they will give it a fair trial."

Why will women drag along from day to day, year in and year out, suffering such misery as did Mrs. Courtney, when such letters as this are continually being published. Every woman who suffers from displacements, irregularities, inflammation, ulceration, backache, nervousness, or who is passing through the Change of Life should give this famous root and herb remedy, Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, a trial. For special advice write Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Mass. The result of its long experience is at your service.

Letters From England

The following letter has been received by Mrs. Beaton, Bonshaw from her son Wendall.

Dear Mother:—I take much pleasure in writing to you tonight as I am safe in dear old Blighty. I came over the other day to have an operation for Hemorrhoids, and am feeling fine at present. I am in a very nice hospital, although things are very hard over here, much more so than in France. Eats seem very scarce, but it is nice to get away from the roar of the guns. They have a few air-raids here, but they are a mere trifle to speak of. When I left the Battalion I did not expect to get further than the Base but here is where I landed. O. K. I would like to have seen poor Archie before I left, but that was a difficult thing to do, for he was in the line while we were out on rest, then when we were in he was out. Oh, say! while I was in the Base Hospital I met Lloyd Wonnacott from Charlottetown. He was there suffering from boils on his leg, but was getting much better. He was the first boy I met from P. E. I. that I knew and I was sure glad to see him. He had grown so that I did not know him, but he recognized me after he seen me a few times, I would like to have seen Bruce, but he is a Corporal in the Heavy, and he is a shell shocked but feeling O. K. again.

It is just one year today since I left here for France and have been lucky to get off with only one wound in that time. Will write you after operation. Love to all. No. 911359 PTE WENDALL BEATON, War Hospital, Warren Road, Guildford Surrey, England.

Another letter of interest reads: France, Feb. 3, 1918. Dear Jim:—Just a few lines to let you know how I am getting along. I have not had any letter from you for a long time. Well Jim I have been sent down to the Base sick but I am alright now and out of the Hospital. I expected to go back to the firing line any day now. Say, I have got some news for you. When I was in the Hospital, there was another fellow lying on a bed right across from mine, and I was wondering where I had seen this chap before but I could not place him at all, so the next day I asked him if he belonged to P. E. I. He said "yes" then I asked him if his name was Beaton and who was it but Wendall himself, well we were glad to see each other. He said that he would never have known me, he has gone over to England now to go under an operation, but he says it is nothing serious. I am all going over in a week or so on furlough and will try and see Wendall again if possible. I suppose he has written home before this and told you all about it himself. Well how is everything going in Bonshaw. Hope I will be home soon and go up to have a while fishing with Alf. H. and you. Bruce is still up at the Battery looking O. K. Write a line to him some time Jim. There is not very much now for me to write about. Be sure and answer soon. Hoping all the family are well. I remain your friend. LLOYD WONNACOTT.

Mr. Root's Letter In his letter regretting his inability through illness to be present at the Congress, Mr. Root said: "Let us be warned by poor Russia's present position. The Bolsheviks were very eloquent about peace, without annexations or indemnities, and they filled the minds of Russian soldiers and workmen with the idea of such an extent that they stopped fighting and making munitions, but when they got to Brest-Litovsk they found that the leaders probably knew all along that Germany had no intention of making any such peace. She wanted the Baltic provinces of Russia and she seized and purposes to keep them and Russia, having stopped fighting in favor of the kind of peace she admired, finds herself in a position where for the present she has nothing whatever to say about the kind of peace there shall be. We must beware of anything in the remotest degree approaching that."

"I beg of you as citizens of this great Republic not to let your minds be carried from the great work we have before us." The object of the Congress is to arouse the morale of the people so that loyal support may be afforded and every effort put forth to accomplish the speedy winning of the war.

GIFT STOCKINGS BRING PLEASURE The following letter which speaks for itself was received by Mrs. (Rev.) J. S. MacKay, Hampton, Canadian Red Cross Society, Broadfield Road, Folkestone, 9-12-17

Shoreline Dept. Mr. H. E. Harcourt Vernon in Charge Dear Mrs. MacKay:—I have no doubt you will hear direct, from the Canadian sick and wounded soldiers made happy by your gifts. Mr. Vernon and I had the happiness of distributing the Canadian Christmas stockings to some hospitals, and I can assure you, we were proud of Canada's gifts. I think I noticed stockings being opened (I wish you could have seen with what pleasure) and I remember certain names—McKinnon, and I think a Mrs. Myers and a Mrs. Patrick. I am sure the men will write—but you know how careful "Tommy" is about posting his letters, that I am writing this little line so that some of the gratitude so keenly felt might filter back to Hampton.

Yours gratefully, MARY HARCOURT VERNON. P.S.—I remember the names of MacKay on stockings in another hospital I think DeShazo was the Post Office. If they are relatives of yours perhaps you will let them know how much joy the Prince Edward Island gifts gave to the sick and wounded.

Possibly there are cases in which a man's love for a woman never dies—but of course, it is due to the fact that they are too sensible to marry.

I want a large quantity of dressed poultry. Write or call at A. Horne & Co. on Friday, Feb. 22nd, March 1st and 8th, also at St. Peter's Station, on Tuesday, Feb. 26th. M. R. HARDY, 2720-2-25Mmw41 Little York.

Attention is called to the imperative need under the "War Charities Act 1917" of all organizations desiring to take up collections for aiding entertainments in aid of Red Cross, obtaining a permit for such work. Permits can be obtained from the undersigned. D. A. MCKINNON, Honorary Treasurer 2610-2-118Mmwflmo.

No Negotiation For Peace

CHICAGO, February 23.—In a letter read at the Congress of National Service today Ellhu Root, of New York, honorary president of the National Security League, said that the public should be careful not to have its attention distracted from the intense concentration necessary to win the war by the discussion about peace terms that was appearing in some of the papers and at some gatherings. He pointed out that there were not only no negotiations, but no basis for peace negotiations.

ON LEAVE IN PARIS

The following letter has been received from Pte. Gordon J. MacArthur, by Sibyl Boates, Tyne Valley, Pte. MacArthur enlisted with the 105th Highlanders and has been in France over a year and so far has escaped injury.

Somewhere in France, Jan. 14th, 1918.

Dear Friend:

In my last letter to you I said I was getting a pass to Paris, so I am going to try and tell you a little about the city, and how I enjoyed myself while there. I was there for fifteen days, (from the 20th Dec. till the 4th of Jan.) so I was there for both Christmas and New Years. Well Paris is certainly a handsome city, it is far ahead of London for beauty but there is not the business nor the crowds of people on the streets, which are so clean one could eat their meals off them. I was around to see quite a lot of the city, there are English guides who take you around to show you all the places of interest.

I was in Eiffel Tower, and several ancient buildings and churches, was also through a large museum (the Christmas day. It is something like the zoo in London, it shows Napoleon from infancy till the day he died, also a number of ancient relics as well as modern inventions used in the present war. You would not think when you see the people of Paris that there was a war going on at all but you realize it by the high price you pay for everything, why we had to pay two dollars for a meal in some places. Well so much for the French side of the city. Then there is the English side. There are a number of institutions run by both English and Canadians. The Y. M. C. A. and Army and Navy League Club where we can get a good meal for forty cents and every night there is either a concert or dance if one wishes to take them in. There is also the corner of Blighty in Paris for the boys on leave from the front. It is much the same as the Leave Club only they have no dancing. It is run by the High Commissioner's wife. It was great to get away from the noise of the guns and get a good clean bed to sleep in. I had not slept in a bed for nineteen months, in fact not since I had left home.

You asked me if it was true that I was nearly taken prisoner, no there was no truth in it I am glad to say. I will have to close now as my fire is getting low and it is very cold. It is much colder here this winter than last. Bye, bye, GORDON.

MY FREE TRIAL TREATMENT MAY CURE YOU

Dear Mrs. Ladd—I feel so very much better after using the 10 days' treatment of ORANGE LILLY you were kind enough to send, that I will not require any more. In fact, I feel entirely well, and it is now a month since I stopped using the treatment. (Miss) F. W. T. Similar letters to the above are not infrequent, though, of course, such cases are not of long standing. Most women who have suffered for any length of time will require to use ORANGE LILLY longer than the Trial Treatment in order to effect a complete cure, but in every case they will be perceptibly benefited. Further, the benefit will be permanent whether they continue to use ORANGE LILLY or not. It is not taken internally, and does not contain any alcohol or other stimulant. It is an applied treatment, and acts directly on the suffering organs. In all cases of women's disorders, these organs are congested to a greater or less extent, and ORANGE LILLY will relieve and remove this congestion just as positively and certainly as the action of ammonia or soap on soiled linen. It is a simple chemical problem, and the result is always the same, a step toward better health and complete cure.

In order that every suffering woman may prove its good qualities, I will send enough of ORANGE LILLY for 10 days' treatment absolutely free to each lady who will send me her address, enclose 3c stamp to MRS. LYDIA W. LADD, WINDSOR, ONT. Sold by leading druggists every where.

At the cost of a small jar of ordinary cold cream one can prepare a full quarter pint of the most wonderful lemon skin softener and complexion beautifier, by squeezing the juice of two fresh lemons into a bottle containing three ounces of orchard white, care should be taken to strain the juice through a fine cloth so no lemon pulp gets in, then this lotion will keep fresh for months. Every woman knows that lemon juice is used to bleach and remove such blemishes as sallowness, freckles and tan, and is the ideal skin softener, smoothener and beautifier. Just try it! Get three ounces of orchard white at any pharmacy and two lemons from the grocer and make up a quarter pint of this sweetly fragrant lemon lotion and massage it daily into the face, neck, arms and hands. It naturally should help to soften, freshen, bleach and bring out the roses and beauty of any skin. It is wonderful to smoothen rough, red hands.

Praise this Asthma Remedy. A grateful user of Dr. J. D. Kellogg's Asthma Remedy finds it the only remedy that will give relief, though suffering may be prevented by using this wonderful remedy at the first warning of trouble. Its use is simple, its cost is slight and it can be purchased almost anywhere.
