A. H. Notman, assistant passenger agent of the C. P. R. who has been transferred from the lower provinces to Toronto, left for the West yesterday afternoon. Previous to his departure Mr. Notman was presented by the staff in the passenger department here with a magnificent dress-suit case with all the fittings imaginable. On the proper place was a silver plate bearing the following inscription: "Presented to A. H. Notman by the employees of the passenger department of the Maritime provinces, June, 1899." The presentation was made by Mr. Heath, who succeeds Mr. Notman in this district. Mr. Notman made a feeling reply, in which he expressed his deep regret at leaving this city and province. The staff here, he stated, had always performed their work in an eminently satisfactory manner and he was sorry to leave them.—St. John Sun.

SENTNER McLEOD & Co.

There will be an excursion from Pictou and New Glasgow today of the C. M. B. A. Society on the S. S. Lunenburg.

Messrs. Bruce Stewart & Co were busy moving the boiler to the SS Brant yesterday. The woodwork of the steamer will be completed in a few days.

ALLEY & Co. have already earned a name for artistically dressed windows but their present efforts surpasses all others. The designs for either windows have been excellently executed. The firm deserve great credit for their enterprise in this regard. The windows are worthy a visit from those who have an eye for the beautiful.

The Campana arrived in port at six o'clock yesterday evening and sailed shortly after 10 o'clock with a general cargo and the following passengers: Dr. and Mrs. Laurent, R. V. W. A. Trail, Mr. F. C. Sazag, Miss Shehyn, Mr. and Mrs. Adams, Mr. and Mrs. T. R. Almond, Mr. Von Broesen and party (5), Mr. Chas. King, Miss King, Mrs. Thomas, Misses Thomas (2), Miss Ferguson, Miss Cassidy (2), Mr. Geo. Burnham, Jr., Mr. Baird Domick, Mr. Francis Leggett, Mrs. John Davies, Mr. A. H. Holan.

We most heartily congratulate our young friend Mr. Trevelyan H. Taylor, son of Dr. Taylor of this city, on his receiving the diploma of the P. E. I. Commercial College, after a thorough business course at that institution. At a searching examination Mr. Taylor received 96 marks in book keeping and 100 in arithmetic. His answers to questions on commercial law were highly satisfactory. He is a good penman, is highly popular with his teacher and fellow-students and we believe he will be equally popular in the position which he now takes in one of our City Banks. He has our best wishes for greatest success.

The Masonic Grand Lodge of P. E. Island met in the Masonic Temple, Charlottetown, yesterday afternoon about forty delegates were in attendance from various parts of the Island. The desirability of a Mason's ward in the P. E. I. Hospital was discussed at some length and a committee was appointed to collect information. The lodge adjourned about midnight. The following officers were elected and installed by P. G. M. Morris assisted by P. G. M. D. Dorrach: J. A. Messervy, Grand Master; R. MacMillan, Deputy Grand Master; G. A. Aitken, S. Warden; P. S. McNutt, J. Warden; A. Murray, Treasurer; N. K. Rogers, Lecturer; Rev. T. B. Reagh, Chaplain; J. W. Brown, S. Deacon; John Muirhead, J. Deacon; S. W. Crabbe, Marshal; R. Y. McCoubrey, Sword Bearer; N. McLaren, Standard Bearer; B. S. Dye, G. S. Steward; Donald McLean, J. Steward; C. H. Sterns, Pursivant; J. Hobbs, Tyler.

A good audience greeted C. P. Flockton's Comedy and Vaudeville Co., in the Opera House last night. Mr. Flockton is a well-known New York Actor, who has for some years, summered at Bay Fortune. Mr. Flockton has this season gathered about him a company of artists and is now touring the Island. The performance of last night was well received, many numbers of the program being most heartily enjoyed. The mirth-provoking farce "B. F. S." was the opening number. The dances by Miss Martell, Miss Livingstone, and Mr. Lanigan were much appreciated. The cornet solos by Edward Casey, and the violin selections by Mr. Patty were musical gems. Mr. Batty's imitation of a church organ being particularly realistic. Bright, catchy songs were given by Misses Montell and Livingstone, and Messrs. Parr and Walters. The drama "An Honest Rogue" was pathetically acted by Mr. Flockton and Miss D'Arcy. The entertainment is comparatively a novelty to Charlottetown theatregoers, being composed of a series of specialties, and was thus pleasing to a great variety of tastes. The company is deserving of a bumper house this evening.

A Lady is Judged

By the task displayed in the choice of a perfume as much as in her choice of dress.

If a loud, offensive, cheap odor is used. You at once put the person down as possessing the same characteristics.

While if a choice French odor such as Vera Violette, Cedrela, Giroflee, Royal Heliotrope or French Carnation Pink, is used, you at once class the user as a modest lady of the upper class. We sell all the odors mentioned above.

DRUGGISTS

A Tempting Shirt Waist Offer.

We've just been going through our stock. We've picked out two three odd lines. Some of them are last year's goods. Some of them are a little crushed, and somewhat soiled, and some of them were marked as high as $2.25. As a special for to-day they go on sale at

45c each

No matter how crushed or soiled—the poorest in the lot is a decided snap at the price. But you'll need to come early.
