HOLMAN'S TOYLAND NEWS—Santa Claus finds that he cannot reach Holman's Toyland in Charlottetown till two o'clock today. He will be glad to meet the little kiddies with their parents in Toyland then, and at three o'clock will meet the school children in front of the store. He is coming through in his big Special Island Sleigh which is a novel way for Santa Claus to travel in this territory. He is calling at the different centres along the way and will be at Hunter River at noon. He tells us that the grown folk in Summerside and other places that he has visited are really as much excited over his visits as the children. He will be driving through the principal streets this afternoon and has a letter of Greetings from the Summerside Mayor to deliver to the Mayor of Charlottetown. 9824-12-11

THE FIRST MEETING conducted by Col. W. J. Morehen in the Salvation Army Citadel was well attended last night and created much interest. The Colonel delivered a powerful Bible message on the subject "The Open Door" which might clear the unchangeableness of God. The second meeting of the series will be at 8 o'clock this evening, and all are welcome.

SANTA CLAUS has had to change his plans slightly and will meet the under school age children at Holman's Toyland from two to three o'clock and the school children at three o'clock in front of the store. You'll want to see his big Special Island Sleigh that he's coming through with. He says that he's had a wonderful reception in Summerside, that really the grown folks are as excited as the kiddies. 9824-12-11

CALEDONIA WEDDING BELLS—Once more the Manse of Caledonia was the scene of a beautiful wedding party, when Dec. 3rd, Mr. Robert Albert Whiteway, of Brooklyn, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Albert Whiteway, of Dover and Miss Annie Alexandra McPherson, daughter of the late Mr. Alexander McPherson and Mrs. McPherson of Flat River, were united in marriage by the Rev. Allister Murray, Minister of the Presbyterian Church, Caledonia. The bride party all looked handsome and the bride stood charming in a dress of open blue silk and hat to match. The bride was attended by her sister, Mrs. John McPherson, of Brooklyn, and the groom by his brother David John Whiteway. Mr. John Martin McPherson, brother-in-law of the bride, who motored the party to the Manse was also present at the marriage ceremony. Immediately after the marriage, the party drove to the groom's former home in Dover, for supper and after a merry evening, spent there the happy couple drove to their future home in Brooklyn. That long life and much happiness may be their lot is the sincere wish of their many friends.

It's the real fruit flavor that makes the difference. Packed full of plump, uncrushed Sultanas fresh from the sunny vineyards, Christie's Sultana Biscuits are flavorful, delicious, wholesome—fit for a king.

A woman in the suburbs was chatting over the back fence with her next-door neighbor: "We're going to live in a better neighborhood soon," she said.

"So are we," volunteered Mrs. Nextdoor, confidently.

"What, are you moving too?"

"No, we are staying here."

OUR CHRISTMAS SCOUT LAW

A Scout provides Christmas joy for at least one needy child.

1st BEDEQUE AND FREETOWN TROOP

Rev. A. G. Crowe, S. M. has his troop working hard to pass their tests. He has already asked for eight Tenderfoot badges for Ralph MacFarlane, Iris Lewis and George Lewis of the Otter patrol, Horace MacFarlane, Robert Jardine, and Matland Deacon of the Fox Patrol, Lorne Wright and Carmon Johnson of the Beavers.

This troop has sixteen boys, divided into three patrols, with Maurice Deacon, Patrol Leader and Horace MacFarlane, Second of the Fox Patrol; Lorne Wright, Patrol Leader, and Carmon Johnson, second of the Beaver Patrol; George Lewis, Patrol Leader and Ira Lewis, second of the Otter Patrol. Their regular meeting night is Friday in the Freetown Hall.

This Troop had a hike Saturday, Dec. 6, taking lunch with them. Stalking games were played and tests passed, and all the boys enjoyed themselves. Patrol competition is keen and we foresee a busy winter for the Scout Master.

NEW PROVINCIAL BADGES

The Provincial Secretary of the Boy Scouts has received a number of the new Provincial Badges which is a Black Fox on a sand colored background. This new badge which is an excellent one, was designed by Mr. George Filler, Provincial President. This badge can only be worn by invested scouts and scout officials, and is worn over the right pocket. They cost fifteen cents, and may be purchased from Provincial Headquarters.

MONTAGUE TROOP

Nine Scouts were present. The Fox Patrol won the inspection. Keith MacKinnon was appointed patrol leader of the Bulldog Patrol, with Frank Green second. This troop has sent in an order for Scout diaries, and the Foxes have ordered a Patrol flag. After the meeting the Scouts went for a skate.

IN MEMORIAM

MRS. ISABELLE WARD

Some people not only repeat every thing they hear, but make it a dog-gone sight worse.

I've sometimes flies out of the window without waiting for poverty to come in at the door.

It takes a man years to climb the ladder of fame and success. He can get drunk and fall off it in a second.

family plot in the Elmsdale Cemetery, Bradford District, Haverhill, Haverhill Evening Gazette.

Mrs. Isabelle Ward, wife of Richard E. Ward, died at 11 o'clock Monday morning, Dec. 1st, at her home, 61 Whittier Street, Haverhill, Mass., after several months illness. Mrs. Ward was born in Kinross, P. E. I., 65 years ago, where she spent her childhood days. She was married over 30 years ago. After living in Bradford District for several years, they moved to Orwell, P.E.I., where they lived for 17 years, until the death of Mr. Ward's brother, Lemuel W. Ward, when they and their daughter, L. May, moved back to Haverhill, where they have resided for the past ten years. Mrs. Ward and family are members of the First Presbyterian Church, and active in the Ladies' Aid Society of the Parish.

Besides her husband, she is survived by a daughter, L. May Ward, two sisters, Mrs. Frank Leavill, Haverhill; Mrs. A. M. McLeod, Oakland, California; three brothers, L. J. McLeod, Bradford District; Angus, Northampton, Mass., and Archibald, in Spokane, Wash.; besides a number of nieces and nephews.

The funeral, which was largely attended by relatives and friends, was held at the home on Wednesday, Dec. 3rd, at 11 a. m., Rev. J. F. Polley, Pastor, officiating. Mrs. Jessie Chase sang two favorite selections, "Safe in the Arms of Jesus," and "Just As I Am." The pall bearers were: Mr. James Finlayson, Chester Angus, James Cantello and Bert Merrill. There was a profusion of flowers, showing the esteem by her many friends. Burial was in the

Livestock Market

(Canadian Press)

MONTREAL, Que., Dec. 10.—There were 38 cattle, 56 calves, 162 hogs and 313 sheep and lambs for sale on the two Montreal livestock markets today.

Rheumatism So Bad Could Hardly Walk

Mrs. Wm. Kniesz, B.R. No. 5, Guelph, Ont., writes:—"For years I suffered with rheumatism, and my hands and feet used to swell so, at times, I could hardly walk, and could not sleep or rest for the pain. I used different kinds of medicine, but got nothing to do me any good until a friend told me to take Burdock Blood Bitters. Now I have no more pains and the rheumatism is all gone."
