WEDDING BELLS—A very interesting event took place at St. Ann's Church, Lot 65, when Miss Gertrude Coady became the bride of Mr. W. J. Hennessey, Charlottetown. The bride, who for many years had resided at her father's home in Emyvale, and lately had entered the Charlottetown Hospital training school for nurses, and in the year 1926 became a graduated nurse. During her training, she was loved by every person, and her kind disposition made many friends. While at the school she was one of the best men and holds a very responsible position. The bridesmaid was Miss Marie Murphy, R. N., whilst the groom was very capably supported by Mr. Walter Coady, brother of the bride. After the ceremony the happy couple motored to the home of the bride's parents, where a very delightful repast was partaken, then later, took the early express for a long and extensive honeymoon. Mr. and Mrs. Hennessey will reside in Charlottetown on their return.

3 Hygienic Worries
Women Formerly Experienced
Uniquely Overcome

By ELLEN J. BUCKLAND
Registered Nurse

OLD-TIME "sanitary pads" are largely being supplanted now. They lacked efficiency in three embarrassing ways: 8 in 10 better-class women now employ a new way called KOTEX.

Kotex ends the fear of light frocks and long hours under the most severe hygienic situation. Filled with Cellucotton wadding, the world's super-absorbent, it is 5 times as absorbent as the ordinary cotton pad.

It ends also another worry—if deodorizes completely as it acts. And it ends forever the embarrassment of disposal. It discards like tissue; no laundry. Get Kotex at any store. 12 in box. Look for name "Kotex" on box. If not there, watch out; it isn't genuine Kotex.
