

The SUMMER SIDE GUARDIAN

AND PRINCE COUNTY CHRONICLE

AGENTS: Mrs. John Pond, 31 Church Street—Phone 289
SUMMER SIDE AND PRINCE COUNTY

News, Subscriptions, Advertising should be left with Mrs. Pond.
The Guardian may be bought daily at any of the following stores in Summerside:
Bookstore, Water Street, Gourlies Drugstore, Water Street, Toronto Bakery, Water Street, Mark Gaudet, 67 Granville Street.
The Guardian will be delivered to any home in Summerside by carrier Boy at 2c per day or 10c per week. Phone 289 for this service or pay order to the boy responsible for deliveries on your route.

—CENTRAL BEDEQUE HALL, Wednesday, November 31st. Baptist Sewing Circle Annual Bazaar and Chicken Supper. 4:00 and 25c. L-149-11-21.

—ST. MARY'S Convent supper and bazaar, Tuesday and Wednesday of this week in St. Paul's Hall. Supper served from 4:30. Tickets 40c. L-149-11-21.

—HALLOWEEN AT S'SIDE—Quite a lively interest was taken in Halloween at Summerside this year and all over the town. Children with weird costumes of every color were seen parading the streets, knocking on door knockers and asking for candy and apples. The children had a real good time and for the most part were at home by nine o'clock. There were the usual pranks, harmless and otherwise, and a few things were broken, including down fences and other deprecations which kept the police busy later in the evening. The police report not so much damage as other years, but in some sections of the town the citizens thought the mischief quite bad enough. It is a good thing Halloween like Christmas comes but once a year and too much of good things is always bad.—S —CONTACT CLUB—The Contact Club of arm's wives are now in the Council Chamber at Town Hall. Mayor Campbell has very kindly consented to let them have this room. Their meeting is now over 30 members and many to meet at the houses. Club is doing excellent work the Red Cross. A donation of ten dollars was made for cigarettes and the Canadian arm's overseas. Club is now working with the Cross in making baby's layettes and things for the bomber. Mrs. Campbell is the president of the club. Mrs. Stevens, president of the club, appreciates the generosity of Mayor Campbell in letting them have this room. The club has 100 members joined in a vote of thanks for Mayor Campbell and the Council. The club is now working with the Red Cross and a busy winter is ahead for them. They are going to Summerside and are finding it difficult to find a place for the Red Cross. The club is now working with the Red Cross and a busy winter is ahead for them. They are going to Summerside and are finding it difficult to find a place for the Red Cross.

—WEDDING BELLS—A very pretty wedding was solemnized on Saturday, October 18, at Trinity Church at 3 o'clock, when Miss Edna, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Delbert Ernest Rayner of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Rayner of Rest. Rev. Mr. Sullivan officiated at the ceremony. The bride was very charming in a teal dress with matching hat and accessories. Her bridesmaid, Miss Norma, wore a dress of airforce blue with matching accessories. Mr. Sam was the best man. The happy young couple left for a honeymoon in the Province. On their return were tendered a reception at home of the groom's parents, the people of Travellers Rest and out in large numbers to the bride's home. The bride was the Miss A. C. Moberg of Detroit was united in the holy bonds of matrimony to Leading Aircraftsman Charles E. Edinger of Ferndale, Mich. The young couple were attended by LAC, Vernon H. Buswell and Mrs. Burtis. The bride arrived in Summerside on Thursday, LAC Edinger and Mrs. Edinger will reside in Summerside. The groom's father is rector of the Anglican church at Ferndale.—S

Soldier injured in accident On highway

Pte. John MacKenzie of French River, P. E. I. is in the Prince County hospital suffering from shock and possibly other injuries which he sustained when struck by a car on the road at Gillespie's Corner, Summerside East. The accident occurred last night about 8 o'clock. Pte. MacKenzie was semi-conscious when brought to the hospital. It is understood that he was standing behind a car that was parked on the road without lights and the driver of the car that ran into him was blinded somewhat by a car coming toward him. In trying to avoid the parked car he ran into the man standing behind. An x-ray will be taken today to ascertain the extent of Mr. MacKenzie's injuries. The hospital report he is resting as well as can be expected. Pte. MacKenzie is a member of the Veterans' Guard of Canada, and is pending a furlough at his home.—S

Airman takes Bride at S'side

A quiet wedding was solemnized in St. Mary's Anglican Church on Saturday evening, when Miss Edna, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Delbert Ernest Rayner of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Rayner of Rest. Rev. Mr. Sullivan officiated at the ceremony. The bride was very charming in a teal dress with matching hat and accessories. Her bridesmaid, Miss Norma, wore a dress of airforce blue with matching accessories. Mr. Sam was the best man. The happy young couple left for a honeymoon in the Province. On their return were tendered a reception at home of the groom's parents, the people of Travellers Rest and out in large numbers to the bride's home. The bride was the Miss A. C. Moberg of Detroit was united in the holy bonds of matrimony to Leading Aircraftsman Charles E. Edinger of Ferndale, Mich. The young couple were attended by LAC, Vernon H. Buswell and Mrs. Burtis. The bride arrived in Summerside on Thursday, LAC Edinger and Mrs. Edinger will reside in Summerside. The groom's father is rector of the Anglican church at Ferndale.—S

Malone-MacAulay Nuptials

A very pretty autumn wedding took place at St. Michael's Church, Corran Bann on Wednesday morning, Oct. 22, when Bridget Nellie MacAulay, daughter of Mrs. John D. MacAulay and the late Mr. MacAulay, became the bride of Leo Patrick Malone, son of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Malone of Charlottetown.

The ceremony was performed by Rev. Kenneth McPherson, P.P., who also celebrated the nuptial mass. The church was tastefully decorated for the occasion. The youthful bride was attractively gowned in a street length dress of Royal Blue transparent velvet with matching accessories and maiden hair fern. Mrs. Raymond Dunn, sister of the bride was matron of honor. She wore Air Force blue wool with navy accessories and wore a corsage. Mr. Stephen Malone, brother of the groom, acted as groomsmen.

After the ceremony the bridal party were entertained at a reception at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Malone. The reception was held at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Malone. The reception was held at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Malone.

Persons

Mr. J. Henry Gaudet has returned from a short business trip to Toronto.—S

Mrs. Peter McMahon, Kinkora, recently to spend the winter in Montreal.—S

Mr. Lester Kinch and his sister, Mrs. Shirley Brown of Brookfield, are visiting their old home in Alma.—S

Mrs. W. J. Sullivan is visiting relatives in Boston, Mass.—S

Mrs. Louis Smith of Central Quebec was a visitor to the West-End on Saturday.—S

Miss Andrea Dalton, R. N., who has been nursing staff of the Canadian army spent the weekend at home in Summerside.—S

Mrs. Church who has been visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Malone, Summerside, has returned to her home in Detroit, Michigan.—S

Sale of Yacht

In accordance with instructions from Hyndman & Co. Ltd., Lloyd's Agents, the well known sailing yacht "Zephyr", which stranded in a recent storm and has since been re-floated and hauled out, will be sold by Auction, at Summerside on Thursday, 6th of November, 1941, at 3 p.m.

Sails and equipment will be included with the yacht.

Terms Cash.

HUGH MORRISON
Auctioneer

I AM NO LONGER DEAF

NINE DEAF PEOPLE OF TEN CAN HEAR AGAIN WITH SONOTONE HEARING AIDS

MRS. C. F. SMITH
Our Chief Consultant
Will be Giving
FREE DEMONSTRATIONS at the
QUEEN HOTEL
Summerside
NOVEMBER 2-4
CHARLOTTETOWN HOTEL
Charlottetown
NOVEMBER 5,6-7

MARITIME REPRESENTATIVES

The McMurray Book & Stationery Co. Ltd.
FREDERICTON
NEW BRUNSWICK

Canadian Farm Leader visits Native Maritimes

Walter E. Haskins, for many years a prominent farm leader in British Columbia, has recently been appointed as Secretary of the Canadian Federation of Agriculture, with giving his full time to serving the organized farmers of Canada.

Mr. Haskins, who is known throughout the Dominion as a specialist on producer marketing, was born on a farm in Elgin, Alberta County, N. B. In 1906 he went to Western Canada and studied law at the University of Alberta, Edmonton, B. C., which he has operated personally since 1922. He has been active in the producers' co-operative movement in British Columbia for many years and has been chairman of the British Columbia fruit board since 1934. For many years he has stressed the necessity of a national organization for farmers, and is given credit for a substantial share in the organization of the Canadian Federation of Agriculture in 1935.

Born in the Maritimes and living in British Columbia since 1922, Mr. Haskins has a wide acquaintance with Canadian farmers from coast to coast. Mr. Haskins succeeds Mr. George G. Coote of Alberta, who is a member of the Alberta wheat pool board and a director of the Bank of Canada, found the position he resigned at the annual meeting in Toronto last January, but agreed to act until his successor was appointed. Mr. Coote has been appointed honorary secretary.

Mr. Haskins expects to visit the Maritimes early in November to discuss organization matters with local leaders. He is scheduled to attend the annual meeting of the P. E. I. Federation of Agriculture at Charlottetown on November 7th and on Monday, November 10th will be guest speaker at the regular meeting of the Moncton Rotary Club; other guests will be farmers of the Moncton District who have been members of a Grain Competition sponsored by Moncton Rotarians.

From 1906-1908 Mr. Haskins lived in Moncton, where he attended High School. His father, G. H. Haskins, conducted a retail store on the main street there, which he called a 5 & 10 store, but which was really the Metropolitan stores with some prices above a dime. Many Moncton people would remember the Haskins 5 and 10, because back in 1900, 5 and 10c stores were a great novelty. The store was next door but one to the old market, above which was the Opera House, and the pleasure of many a thrilling drama, such as East Lynne, were not increased on a hot summer night by the mixed aromas from the butcher shop and the vegetables in the Market below.

Mr. Haskins is looking forward to renewing old acquaintances in the Maritimes, after an absence of thirty-five years.

REVEAL DETAILS

(Continued from page 1)

order-in-council setting forth the prices ceiling regulations was made public but the orders covering the broadening of the power of the board and the extension to all Canadian conditions and terms of sale or prices ceiling regulations all remain as are frozen at current levels—are not yet ready for publication.

Board Can Vary Prices

Mr. Isley in his statement, said the new order gives power to the prices board to vary any maximum price, to prescribe other or additional conditions and terms of sale or exempt any person or goods or services wholly or partly from the regulations.

"The order-in-council, itself, exempts from the price ceiling goods sold for export; the sale of any person of his personal or household effects; isolated sales of goods or services by persons not handling them; bills of exchange, securities, and title deeds; and sales of goods by auction where this procedure is normal practice and is not attempted merely to evade the regulations."

"Prices hereof fixed by the board, or fixed or approved by any other federal, provincial, or other authority with the written concurrence of the board, are also exempted from the regulations."

The ceiling provision does not prevent the sale of goods or the supply of services at prices lower than the maximum. "This order makes no restriction on bargain."

Charges for goods or services which are in excess of the maximum are not enforceable. Any amount paid above the maximum may be recovered by the buyer. Goods bought or sold in violation of the regulations are liable to seizure by the crown, notwithstanding any other penalties which may be imposed and the regulations provide fines up to a maximum of $5,000 and two years' imprisonment or both.

Under Regulations

Eleven services were brought under the board's price ceiling regulations and, the minister said, additional services may be added at the board's discretion. These 11 services were defined as:

1. Supplying of electricity, gas, steam heat and water.
2. Telegraph, wireless and telephone services.
3. Transportation of goods and persons, and the provision of dock, harbor and pier facilities.
4. Warehousing and storage.
5. Undertaking and embalming.
6. Laundering, cleaning, tailoring and dressmaking.
7. Hairdressing and beauty parlor services.
8. Plumbing, heating, painting, decorating, cleaning and renovating.
9. Repairing of all kinds.
10. The supplying of meals, refreshments and beverages.
11. The exhibiting of moving pictures.

In order to police the consumer credit restrictions more effectively, the board's powers are extended to include the "terms and conditions of advertising the sale or supply of goods and services" and the board is given the authority to prohibit transactions or advertising which do not comply with its consumer credit order.

Strike at N. Y. Drydock settled

NEW YORK, Oct. 31.—(AP)—A five-day old strike at the G bins drydock involving 5,800 workers and repair work on 14 British and American ships, was settled today.

CENTRAL GUARDIAN

This column is reserved for news of local interest, but advertising of a new nature may be inserted at a special word, strictly payable in advance.

CONDITION IMPROVED—Miss Gladys Vincent, of Alma, P. E. I., who was injured several weeks ago in an accident on Barrington Street, was reported last night to be showing considerable improvement.—Halifax Chronicle.

ENOYABLE EVENING—A very enjoyable evening was spent Saturday night at the home of Mrs. R. J. MacDonald, Hillsborough Street, the occasion was to bid good-bye to two friends, Mrs. L. J. Murphy and Mrs. Bert Paquette, who leave this week for Montreal and United States. Each was presented with a parting gift. After a delightful game of cards, a dainty lunch was served by Mrs. MacDonald and Misses Hazel and Betty MacDonald.

DIES IN WESTERN CANADA—Mr. George Younker, Irma, Alberta, formerly of North River, F.E.I., passed away at his home in Western Canada on August 2 as the result of injuries received in an auto accident, according to word received in the City recently. He was a well known and respected farmer and was returning from a fishing trip accompanied by members of his family and others when the fatality occurred. Born at North River 60 years ago, he left for the City in 1921 when he moved to the District in Alberta where he and his family remained ever since. He leaves to mourn his wife and seven children, Frederick, Hazel, Milton, Alma, Kathleen, Claude and Irene; two brothers, Frank and Charles, all of Irma, and his aged mother and sister in this province.

GRAIN STILL OUT—Farmers in this province are still battling bad weather conditions in an endeavour to complete harvesting operations before the freeze-up. Hard frost may come almost any day now, although it may be delayed several weeks. In one 20-mile drive yesterday at least 15 fields were cut with the grain in stocks. At the same time several fields of potatoes were observed still to be dug while dozens of fields of turnips were unharvested. It was reported to see men cutting the last of their grain. Veteran farmers said they believed the year was a record for late harvesting operations. It was "most unusual" they said, to see grain in stocks. At the same time several fields of potatoes were observed still to be dug while dozens of fields of turnips were unharvested. It was reported to see men cutting the last of their grain. Veteran farmers said they believed the year was a record for late harvesting operations. It was "most unusual" they said, to see grain in stocks. At the same time several fields of potatoes were observed still to be dug while dozens of fields of turnips were unharvested. It was reported to see men cutting the last of their grain. Veteran farmers said they believed the year was a record for late harvesting operations. It was "most unusual" they said, to see grain in stocks. At the same time several fields of potatoes were observed still to be dug while dozens of fields of turnips were unharvested. It was reported to see men cutting the last of their grain. Veteran farmers said they believed the year was a record for late harvesting operations. It was "most unusual" they said, to see grain in stocks. At the same time several fields of potatoes were observed still to be dug while dozens of fields of turnips were unharvested. It was reported to see men cutting the last of their grain. Veteran farmers said they believed the year was a record for late harvesting operations. It was "most unusual" they said, to see grain in stocks. At the same time several fields of potatoes were observed still to be dug while dozens of fields of turnips were unharvested. It was reported to see men cutting the last of their grain. Veteran farmers said they believed the year was a record for late harvesting operations. It was "most unusual" they said, to see grain in stocks. At the same time several fields of potatoes were observed still to be dug while dozens of fields of turnips were unharvested. It was reported to see men cutting the last of their grain. Veteran farmers said they believed the year was a record for late harvesting operations. It was "most unusual" they said, to see grain in stocks. At the same time several fields of potatoes were observed still to be dug while dozens of fields of turnips were unharvested. It was reported to see men cutting the last of their grain. Veteran farmers said they believed the year was a record for late harvesting operations. It was "most unusual" they said, to see grain in stocks. At the same time several fields of potatoes were observed still to be dug while dozens of fields of turnips were unharvested. It was reported to see men cutting the last of their grain. Veteran farmers said they believed the year was a record for late harvesting operations. It was "most unusual" they said, to see grain in stocks. At the same time several fields of potatoes were observed still to be dug while dozens of fields of turnips were unharvested. It was reported to see men cutting the last of their grain. Veteran farmers said they believed the year was a record for late harvesting operations. It was "most unusual" they said, to see grain in stocks. At the same time several fields of potatoes were observed still to be dug while dozens of fields of turnips were unharvested. It was reported to see men cutting the last of their grain. Veteran farmers said they believed the year was a record for late harvesting operations. It was "most unusual" they said, to see grain in stocks. At the same time several fields of potatoes were observed still to be dug while dozens of fields of turnips were unharvested. It was reported to see men cutting the last of their grain. Veteran farmers said they believed the year was a record for late harvesting operations. It was "most unusual" they said, to see grain in stocks. At the same time several fields of potatoes were observed still to be dug while dozens of fields of turnips were unharvested. It was reported to see men cutting the last of their grain. Veteran farmers said they believed the year was a record for late harvesting operations. It was "most unusual" they said, to see grain in stocks. At the same time several fields of potatoes were observed still to be dug while dozens of fields of turnips were unharvested. It was reported to see men cutting the last of their grain. Veteran farmers said they believed the year was a record for late harvesting operations. It was "most unusual" they said, to see grain in stocks. At the same time several fields of potatoes were observed still to be dug while dozens of fields of turnips were unharvested. It was reported to see men cutting the last of their grain. Veteran farmers said they believed the year was a record for late harvesting operations. It was "most unusual" they said, to see grain in stocks. At the same time several fields of potatoes were observed still to be dug while dozens of fields of turnips were unharvested. It was reported to see men cutting the last of their grain. Veteran farmers said they believed the year was a record for late harvesting operations. It was "most unusual" they said, to see grain in stocks. At the same time several fields of potatoes were observed still to be dug while dozens of fields of turnips were unharvested. It was reported to see men cutting the last of their grain. Veteran farmers said they believed the year was a record for late harvesting operations. It was "most unusual" they said, to see grain in stocks. At the same time several fields of potatoes were observed still to be dug while dozens of fields of turnips were unharvested. It was reported to see men cutting the last of their grain. Veteran farmers said they believed the year was a record for late harvesting operations. It was "most unusual" they said, to see grain in stocks. At the same time several fields of potatoes were observed still to be dug while dozens of fields of turnips were unharvested. It was reported to see men cutting the last of their grain. Veteran farmers said they believed the year was a record for late harvesting operations. It was "most unusual" they said, to see grain in stocks. At the same time several fields of potatoes were observed still to be dug while dozens of fields of turnips were unharvested. It was reported to see men cutting the last of their grain. Veteran farmers said they believed the year was a record for late harvesting operations. It was "most unusual" they said, to see grain in stocks. At the same time several fields of potatoes were observed still to be dug while dozens of fields of turnips were unharvested. It was reported to see men cutting the last of their grain. Veteran farmers said they believed the year was a record for late harvesting operations. It was "most unusual" they said, to see grain in stocks. At the same time several fields of potatoes were observed still to be dug while dozens of fields of turnips were unharvested. It was reported to see men cutting the last of their grain. Veteran farmers said they believed the year was a record for late harvesting operations. It was "most unusual" they said, to see grain in stocks. At the same time several fields of potatoes were observed still to be dug while dozens of fields of turnips were unharvested. It was reported to see men cutting the last of their grain. Veteran farmers said they believed the year was a record for late harvesting operations. It was "most unusual" they said, to see grain in stocks. At the same time several fields of potatoes were observed still to be dug while dozens of fields of turnips were unharvested. It was reported to see men cutting the last of their grain. Veteran farmers said they believed the year was a record for late harvesting operations. It was "most unusual" they said, to see grain in stocks. At the same time several fields of potatoes were observed still to be dug while dozens of fields of turnips were unharvested. It was reported to see men cutting the last of their grain. Veteran farmers said they believed the year was a record for late harvesting operations. It was "most unusual" they said, to see grain in stocks. At the same time several fields of potatoes were observed still to be dug while dozens of fields of turnips were unharvested. It was reported to see men cutting the last of their grain. Veteran farmers said they believed the year was a record for late harvesting operations. It was "most unusual" they said, to see grain in stocks. At the same time several fields of potatoes were observed still to be dug while dozens of fields of turnips were unharvested. It was reported to see men cutting the last of their grain. Veteran farmers said they believed the year was a record for late harvesting operations. It was "most unusual" they said, to see grain in stocks. At the same time several fields of potatoes were observed still to be dug while dozens of fields of turnips were unharvested. It was reported to see men cutting the last of their grain. Veteran farmers said they believed the year was a record for late harvesting operations. It was "most unusual" they said, to see grain in stocks. At the same time several fields of potatoes were observed still to be dug while dozens of fields of turnips were unharvested. It was reported to see men cutting the last of their grain. Veteran farmers said they believed the year was a record for late harvesting operations. It was "most unusual" they said, to see grain in stocks. At the same time several fields of potatoes were observed still to be dug while dozens of fields of turnips were unharvested. It was reported to see men cutting the last of their grain. Veteran farmers said they believed the year was a record for late harvesting operations. It was "most unusual" they said, to see grain in stocks. At the same time several fields of potatoes were observed still to be dug while dozens of fields of turnips were unharvested. It was reported to see men cutting the last of their grain. Veteran farmers said they believed the year was a record for late harvesting operations. It was "most unusual" they said, to see grain in stocks. At the same time several fields of potatoes were observed still to be dug while dozens of fields of turnips were unharvested. It was reported to see men cutting the last of their grain. Veteran farmers said they believed the year was a record for late harvesting operations. It was "most unusual" they said, to see grain in stocks. At the same time several fields of potatoes were observed still to be dug while dozens of fields of turnips were unharvested. It was reported to see men cutting the last of their grain. Veteran farmers said they believed the year was a record for late harvesting operations. It was "most unusual" they said, to see grain in stocks. At the same time several fields of potatoes were observed still to be dug while dozens of fields of turnips were unharvested. It was reported to see men cutting the last of their grain. Veteran farmers said they believed the year was a record for late harvesting operations. It was "most unusual" they said, to see grain in stocks. At the same time several fields of potatoes were observed still to be dug while dozens of fields of turnips were unharvested. It was reported to see men cutting the last of their grain. Veteran farmers said they believed the year was a record for late harvesting operations. It was "most unusual" they said, to see grain in stocks. At the same time several fields of potatoes were observed still to be dug while dozens of fields of turnips were unharvested. It was reported to see men cutting the last of their grain. Veteran farmers said they believed the year was a record for late harvesting operations. It was "most unusual" they said, to see grain in stocks. At the same time several fields of potatoes were observed still to be dug while dozens of fields of turnips were unharvested. It was reported to see men cutting the last of their grain. Veteran farmers said they believed the year was a record for late harvesting operations. It was "most unusual" they said, to see grain in stocks. At the same time several fields of potatoes were observed still to be dug while dozens of fields of turnips were unharvested. It was reported to see men cutting the last of their grain. Veteran farmers said they believed the year was a record for late harvesting operations. It was "most unusual" they said, to see grain in stocks. At the same time several fields of potatoes were observed still to be dug while dozens of fields of turnips were unharvested. It was reported to see men cutting the last of their grain. Veteran farmers said they believed the year was a record for late harvesting operations. It was "most unusual" they said, to see grain in stocks. At the same time several fields of potatoes were observed still to be dug while dozens of fields of turnips were unharvested. It was reported to see men cutting the last of their grain. Veteran farmers said they believed the year was a record for late harvesting operations. It was "most unusual" they said, to see grain in stocks. At the same time several fields of potatoes were observed still to be dug while dozens of fields of turnips were unharvested. It was reported to see men cutting the last of their grain. Veteran farmers said they believed the year was a record for late harvesting operations. It was "most unusual" they said, to see grain in stocks. At the same time several fields of potatoes were observed still to be dug while dozens of fields of turnips were unharvested. It was reported to see men cutting the last of their grain. Veteran farmers said they believed the year was a record for late harvesting operations. It was "most unusual" they said, to see grain in stocks. At the same time several fields of potatoes were observed still to be dug while dozens of fields of turnips were unharvested. It was reported to see men cutting the last of their grain. Veteran farmers said they believed the year was a record for late harvesting operations. It was "most unusual" they said, to see grain in stocks. At the same time several fields of potatoes were observed still to be dug while dozens of fields of turnips were unharvested. It was reported to see men cutting the last of their grain. Veteran farmers said they believed the year was a record for late harvesting operations. It was "most unusual" they said, to see grain in stocks. At the same time several fields of potatoes were observed still to be dug while dozens of fields of turnips were unharvested. It was reported to see men cutting the last of their grain. Veteran farmers said they believed the year was a record for late harvesting operations. It was "most unusual" they said, to see grain in stocks. At the same time several fields of potatoes were observed still to be dug while dozens of fields of turnips were unharvested. It was reported to see men cutting the last of their grain. Veteran farmers said they believed the year was a record for late harvesting operations. It was "most unusual" they said, to see grain in stocks. At the same time several fields of potatoes were observed still to be dug while dozens of fields of turnips were unharvested. It was reported to see men cutting the last of their grain. Veteran farmers said they believed the year was a record for late harvesting operations. It was "most unusual" they said, to see grain in stocks. At the same time several fields of potatoes were observed still to be dug while dozens of fields of turnips were unharvested. It was reported to see men cutting the last of their grain. Veteran farmers said they believed the year was a record for late harvesting operations. It was "most unusual" they said, to see grain in stocks. At the same time several fields of potatoes were observed still to be dug while dozens of fields of turnips were unharvested. It was reported to see men cutting the last of their grain. Veteran farmers said they believed the year was a record for late harvesting operations. It was "most unusual" they said, to see grain in stocks. At the same time several fields of potatoes were observed still to be dug while dozens of fields of turnips were unharvested. It was reported to see men cutting the last of their grain. Veteran farmers said they believed the year was a record for late harvesting operations. It was "most unusual" they said, to see grain in stocks. At the same time several fields of potatoes were observed still to be dug while dozens of fields of turnips were unharvested. It was reported to see men cutting the last of their grain. Veteran farmers said they believed the year was a record for late harvesting operations. It was "most unusual" they said, to see grain in stocks. At the same time several fields of potatoes were observed still to be dug while dozens of fields of turnips were unharvested. It was reported to see men cutting the last of their grain. Veteran farmers said they believed the year was a record for late harvesting operations. It was "most unusual" they said, to see grain in stocks. At the same time several fields of potatoes were observed still to be dug while dozens of fields of turnips were unharvested. It was reported to see men cutting the last of their grain. Veteran farmers said they believed the year was a record for late harvesting operations. It was "most unusual" they said, to see grain in stocks. At the same time several fields of potatoes were observed still to be dug while dozens of fields of turnips were unharvested. It was reported to see men cutting the last of their grain. Veteran farmers said they believed the year was a record for late harvesting operations. It was "most unusual" they said, to see grain in stocks. At the same time several fields of potatoes were observed still to be dug while dozens of fields of turnips were unharvested. It was reported to see men cutting the last of their grain. Veteran farmers said they believed the year was a record for late harvesting operations. It was "most unusual" they said, to see grain in stocks. At the same time several fields of potatoes were observed still to be dug while dozens of fields of turnips were unharvested. It was reported to see men cutting the last of their grain. Veteran farmers said they believed the year was a record for late harvesting operations. It was "most unusual" they said, to see grain in stocks. At the same time several fields of potatoes were observed still to be dug while dozens of fields of turnips were unharvested. It was reported to see men cutting the last of their grain. Veteran farmers said they believed the year was a record for late harvesting operations. It was "most unusual" they said, to see grain in stocks. At the same time several fields of potatoes were observed still to be dug while dozens of fields of turnips were unharvested. It was reported to see men cutting the last of their grain. Veteran farmers said they believed the year was a record for late harvesting operations. It was "most unusual" they said, to see grain in stocks. At the same time several fields of potatoes were observed still to be dug while dozens of fields of turnips were unharvested. It was reported to see men cutting the last of their grain. Veteran farmers said they believed the year was a record for late harvesting operations. It was "most unusual" they said, to see grain in stocks. At the same time several fields of potatoes were observed still to be dug while dozens of fields of turnips were unharvested. It was reported to see men cutting the last of their grain. Veteran farmers said they believed the year was a record for late harvesting operations. It was "most unusual" they said, to see grain in stocks. At the same time several fields of potatoes were observed still to be dug while dozens of fields of turnips were unharvested. It was reported to see men cutting the last of their grain. Veteran farmers said they believed the year was a record for late harvesting operations. It was "most unusual" they said, to see grain in stocks. At the same time several fields of potatoes were observed still to be dug while dozens of fields of turnips were unharvested. It was reported to see men cutting the last of their grain. Veteran farmers said they believed the year was a record for late harvesting operations. It was "most unusual" they said, to see grain in stocks. At the same time several fields of potatoes were observed still to be dug while dozens of fields of turnips were unharvested. It was reported to see men cutting the last of their grain. Veteran farmers said they believed the year was a record for late harvesting operations. It was "most unusual" they said, to see grain in stocks. At the same time several fields of potatoes were observed still to be dug while dozens of fields of turnips were unharvested. It was reported to see men cutting the last of their grain. Veteran farmers said they believed the year was a record for late harvesting operations. It was "most unusual" they said, to see grain in stocks. At the same time several fields of potatoes were observed still to be dug while dozens of fields of turnips were unharvested. It was reported to see men cutting the last of their grain. Veteran farmers said they believed the year was a record for late harvesting operations. It was "most unusual" they said, to see grain in stocks. At the same time several fields of potatoes were observed still to be dug while dozens of fields of turnips were unharvested. It was reported to see men cutting the last of their grain. Veteran farmers said they believed the year was a record for late harvesting operations. It was "most unusual" they said, to see grain in stocks. At the same time several fields of potatoes were observed still to be dug while dozens of fields of turnips were unharvested. It was reported to see men cutting the last of their grain. Veteran farmers said they believed the year was a record for late harvesting operations. It was "most unusual" they said, to see grain in stocks. At the same time several fields of potatoes were observed still to be dug while dozens of fields of turnips were unharvested. It was reported to see men cutting the last of their grain. Veteran farmers said they believed the year was a record for late harvesting operations. It was "most unusual" they said, to see grain in stocks. At the same time several fields of potatoes were observed still to be dug while dozens of fields of turnips were unharvested. It was reported to see men cutting the last of their grain. Veteran farmers said they believed the year was a record for late harvesting operations. It was "most unusual" they said, to see grain in stocks. At the same time several fields of potatoes were observed still to be dug while dozens of fields of turnips were unharvested. It was reported to see men cutting the last of their grain. Veteran farmers said they believed the year was a record for late harvesting operations. It was "most unusual" they said, to see grain in stocks. At the same time several fields of potatoes were observed still to be dug while dozens of fields of turnips were unharvested. It was reported to see men cutting the last of their grain. Veteran farmers said they believed the year was a record for late harvesting operations. It was "most unusual" they said, to see grain in stocks. At the same time several fields of potatoes were observed still to be dug while dozens of fields of turnips were unharvested. It was reported to see men cutting the last of their grain. Veteran farmers said they believed the year was a record for late harvesting operations. It was "most unusual" they said, to see grain in stocks. At the same time several fields of potatoes were observed still to be dug while dozens of fields of turnips were unharvested. It was reported to see men cutting the last of their grain. Veteran farmers said they believed the year was a record for late harvesting operations. It was "most unusual" they said, to see grain in stocks. At the same time several fields of potatoes were observed still to be dug while dozens of fields of turnips were unharvested. It was reported to see men cutting the last of their grain. Veteran farmers said they believed the year was a record for late harvesting operations. It was "most unusual" they said, to see grain in stocks. At the same time several fields of potatoes were observed still to be dug while dozens of fields of turnips were unharvested. It was reported to see men cutting the last of their grain. Veteran farmers said they believed the year was a record for late harvesting operations. It was "most unusual" they said, to see grain in stocks. At the same time several fields of potatoes were observed still to be dug while dozens of fields of turnips were unharvested. It was reported to see men cutting the last of their grain. Veteran farmers said they believed the year was a record for late harvesting operations. It was "most unusual" they said, to see grain in stocks. At the same time several fields of potatoes were observed still to be dug while dozens of fields of turnips were unharvested. It was reported to see men cutting the last of their grain. Veteran farmers said they believed the year was a record for late harvesting operations. It was "most unusual" they said, to see grain in stocks. At the same time several fields of potatoes were observed still to be dug while dozens of fields of turnips were unharvested. It was reported to see men cutting the last of their grain. Veteran farmers said they believed the year was a record for late harvesting operations. It was "most unusual" they said, to see grain in stocks. At the same time several fields of potatoes were observed still to be dug while dozens of fields of turnips were unharvested. It was reported to see men cutting the last of their grain. Veteran farmers said they believed the year was a record for late harvesting operations. It was "most unusual" they said, to see grain in stocks. At the same time several fields of potatoes were observed still to be dug while dozens of fields of turnips were unharvested. It was reported to see men cutting the last of their grain. Veteran farmers said they believed the year was a record for late harvesting operations. It was "most unusual" they said, to see grain in stocks. At the same time several fields of potatoes were observed still to be dug while dozens of fields of turnips were unharvested. It was reported to see men cutting the last of their grain. Veteran farmers said they believed the year was a record for late harvesting operations. It was "most unusual" they said, to see grain in stocks. At the same time several fields of potatoes were observed still to be dug while dozens of fields of turnips were unharvested. It was reported to see men cutting the last of their grain. Veteran farmers said they believed the year was a record for late harvesting operations. It was "most unusual" they said, to see grain in stocks. At the same time several fields of potatoes were observed still to be dug while dozens of fields of turnips were unharvested. It was reported to see men cutting the last of their grain. Veteran farmers said they believed the year was a record for late harvesting operations. It was "most unusual" they said, to see grain in stocks. At the same time several fields of potatoes were observed still to be dug while dozens of fields of turnips were unharvested. It was reported to see men cutting the last of their grain. Veteran farmers said they believed the year was a record for late harvesting operations. It was "most unusual" they said, to see grain in stocks. At the same time several fields of potatoes were observed still to be dug while dozens of fields of turnips were unharvested. It was reported to see men cutting the last of their grain. Veteran farmers said they believed the year was a record for late harvesting operations. It was "most unusual" they said, to see grain in stocks. At the same time several fields of potatoes were observed still to be dug while dozens of fields of turnips were unharvested. It was reported to see men cutting the last of their grain. Veteran farmers said they believed the year was a record for late harvesting operations. It was "most unusual" they said, to see grain in stocks. At the same time several fields of potatoes were observed still to be dug while dozens of fields of turnips were unharvested. It was reported to see men cutting the last of their grain. Veteran farmers said they believed the year was a record for late harvesting operations. It was "most unusual" they said, to see grain in stocks. At the same time several fields of potatoes were observed still to be dug while dozens of fields of turnips were unharvested. It was reported to see men cutting the last of their grain. Veteran farmers said they believed the year was a record for late harvesting operations. It was "most unusual" they said, to see grain in stocks. At the same time several fields of potatoes were observed still to be dug while dozens of fields of turnips were unharvested. It was reported to see men cutting the last of their grain. Veteran farmers said they believed the year was a record for late harvesting operations. It was "most unusual" they said, to see grain in stocks. At the same time several fields of potatoes were observed still to be dug while dozens of fields of turnips were unharvested. It was reported to see men cutting the last of their grain. Veteran farmers said they believed the year was a record for late harvesting operations. It was "most unusual" they said, to see grain in stocks. At the same time several fields of potatoes were observed still to be dug while dozens of fields of turnips were unharvested. It was reported to see men cutting the last of their grain. Veteran farmers said they believed the year was a record for late harvesting operations. It was "most unusual" they said, to see grain in stocks. At the same time several fields of potatoes were observed still to be dug while dozens of fields of turnips were unharvested. It was reported to see men cutting the last of their grain. Veteran farmers said they believed the year was a record for late harvesting operations. It was "most unusual" they said, to see grain in stocks. At the same time several fields of potatoes were observed still to be dug while dozens of fields of turnips were unharvested. It was reported to see men cutting the last of their grain. Veteran farmers said they believed the year was a record for late harvesting operations. It was "most unusual" they said, to see grain in stocks. At the same time several fields of potatoes were observed still to be dug while dozens of fields of turnips were unharvested. It was reported to see men cutting the last of their grain. Veteran farmers said they believed the year was a record for late harvesting operations. It was "most unusual" they said, to see grain in stocks. At the same time several fields of potatoes were observed still to be dug while dozens of fields of turnips were unharvested. It was reported to see men cutting the last of their grain. Veteran farmers said they believed the year was a record for late harvesting operations. It was "most unusual" they said, to see grain in stocks. At the same time several fields of potatoes were observed still to be dug while dozens of fields of turnips were unharvested. It was reported to see men cutting the last of their grain. Veteran farmers said they believed the year was a record for late harvesting operations. It was "most unusual" they said, to see grain in stocks. At the same time several fields of potatoes were observed still to be dug while dozens of fields of turnips were unharvested. It was reported to see men cutting the last of their grain. Veteran farmers said they believed the year was a record for late harvesting operations. It was "most unusual" they said, to see grain in stocks. At the same time several fields of potatoes were observed still to be dug while dozens of fields of turnips were unharvested. It was reported to see men cutting the last of their grain. Veteran farmers said they believed the year was a record for late harvesting operations. It was "most unusual" they said, to see grain in stocks. At the same time several fields of potatoes were observed still to be dug while dozens of fields of turnips were unharvested. It was reported to see men cutting the last of their grain. Veteran farmers said they believed the year was a record for late harvesting operations. It was "most unusual" they said, to see grain in stocks. At the same time several fields of potatoes were observed still to be dug while dozens of fields of turnips were unharvested. It was reported to see men cutting the last of their grain. Veteran farmers said they believed the year was a record for late harvesting operations. It was "most unusual" they said, to see grain in stocks. At the same time several fields of potatoes were observed still to be dug while dozens of fields of turnips were unharvested. It was reported to see men cutting the last of their grain. Veteran farmers said they believed the year was a record for late harvesting operations. It was "most unusual" they said, to see grain in stocks. At the same time several fields of potatoes were observed still to be dug while dozens of fields of turnips were unharvested. It was reported to see men cutting the last of their grain. Veteran farmers said they believed the year was a record for late harvesting operations. It was "most unusual" they said, to see grain in stocks. At the same time several fields of potatoes were observed still to be dug while dozens of fields of turnips were unharvested. It was reported to see men cutting the last of their grain. Veteran farmers said they believed the year was a record for late harvesting operations. It was "most unusual" they said, to see grain in stocks. At the same time several fields of potatoes were observed still to be dug while dozens of fields of turnips were unharvested. It was reported to see men cutting the last of their grain. Veteran farmers said they believed the year was a record for late harvesting operations. It was "most unusual" they said, to see grain in stocks. At the same time several fields of potatoes were observed still to be dug while dozens of fields of turnips were unharvested. It was reported to see men cutting the last of their grain. Veteran farmers said they believed the year was a record for late harvesting operations. It was "most unusual" they said, to see grain in stocks. At the same time several fields of potatoes were observed still to be dug while dozens of fields of turnips were unharvested. It was reported to see men cutting the last of their grain. Veteran farmers said they believed the year was a record for late harvesting operations. It was "most unusual" they said, to see grain in stocks. At the same time several fields of potatoes were observed still to be dug while dozens of fields of turnips were unharvested. It was reported to see men cutting the last of their grain. Veteran farmers said they believed the year was a record for late harvesting operations. It was "most unusual" they said, to see grain in stocks. At the same time several fields of potatoes were observed still to be dug while dozens of fields of turnips were unharvested. It was reported to see men cutting the