Indian River C. W. L. Annual Meeting

The annual meeting of the Catholic Women's League of Indian River and Kensington was held on May 12th. The President, Mrs. J. L. Saunders gave a splendid report of the highlights of the year's activities. Correspondence was read and included a letter from the Diocesan President, one from the convener of Sisters of Service and a letter from Red Cross headquarters acknowledging box of knitted goods. The Secretary gave an extensive report showing much good work done in all branches of league work and Red Cross work such as sewing and knitting. The election of officers resulted as follows: President, Mrs. J. Saunders, 1st Vice President, Mrs. James Pendergast, 2nd Vice President, Mrs. Bert Kelly, 3rd Vice-President, Miss Ellie Gillis, Recording Secretary, Mrs. Wm. McDonald, Treasurer, Mrs. Gervase MacLellan, Corresponding Secretary, Mrs. Alfred Higgins. It was decided that the President would represent this sub-division at the National Convention at St. John.—K.

PRESIDENT'S REPORT

Reverend Father, Officers and Members:—It seems fitting that the annual meeting of St. Mary's Indian River sub-division should be held in May, as it is the month of our Lady of Good Council.

All year long the hearts of Catholics are united to the heart of Mary but May is especially the month of our Lady, whose intercession the Catholic Women's League asks in deliberations to solidify our work for God and Canada.

His Holiness Pope Pius XII, who has bestowed, his blessings and encouragements on the Catholic Womens League, has asked that during the month of May all Catholics throughout the world pray for a just and lasting peace.

Our National Convention this year will be held in St. John, June 23-26th. By a marked coincidence this City was founded by the Loyalists in "May" 1783.

Last year for the first time in history a reigning King and Queen, visited Canada, and it was the month of our Lady of Good Council that they reached Canadian soil. At that time the League reiterated the sentiments of its members: the unswerving loyalty of the Catholic women and the wish that they may be spared long to reign over the destinies of the British Empire, and added their blessings upon their Majesties.

St. Mary's parish Indian River was chosen by our beloved Bishop O'Sullivan for the Eucharistic Congress held last August. It was an honor he bestowed upon us, as we were at the time, chosen from among several he had in mind. Fully realizing the amount of work this would entail, the parish entered it with the spirit His Excellency expected of us, but the success of the Congress was due to our own loved Pastor, Reverend Father MacDonald, whose untiring efforts encouraged us to give of our best, and August 9th will ever remain a memorable day in the minds of the parishioners of St. Mary's.

On the outbreak of war our members responded to the call of voluntary enlisting of Catholic women for War Service and since have been most active in connection with the Red Cross. If the work of the past seven months is indication of your interest, it augurs well for the success of Red Cross endeavours. The truest happiness in life comes from the satisfaction of feeling that one is working for the service of an organization like the Catholic Women's League, whose beautiful and inspiring motto is "For God and Canada." We are very proud to have as a member of the Red Cross executive, our Diocesan President, Mrs. Leslie Ramsay, who is also a member of the executive of this sub-division.

It was with mixed feelings of sorrow and pride that we learned from our beloved pastor, Reverend Father MacDonald of his appointment as Army Chaplain. Since coming to Indian River Father MacDonald has worked zealously for the spiritual and temporal welfare of the parish. He will be sorely missed, but it is a source of gratification to us that he was chosen to administer to the spiritual needs of the brave boys, who have gone overseas. At all times Father MacDonald took a keen interest in the Catholic Women's League and the encouragement and advice he gave were an inspiration in all our undertakings. From the bottom of our hearts we pray God to protect and bless him and deliver him safely back to us.

To the members who have been bereaved of dear ones, we offer them our deepest sympathy and assure them, we are mindful of them in our prayers.

I wish to sincerely thank our Chaplain, Rev. Father MacDonald, Officers and members for their loyal support and cooperation and I assure you your helpful assistance has made my responsibilities a pleasure rather than a task.

We pray that God and our Lady of Good Council will bless and protect this sub-division and grant us success in the coming year.

Respectfully submitted.
Patricia Saunders.

The City Players At Kinkora

Practically every profession in the world has been used by playwrights as the central figures of Dramas and Comedies. Each in turn has come in for glorification at the hands of those who lash on our plays, but no profession offers such interesting and colorful possibilities as the lovable kind and patient "Family Doctor" which, despite the unfavorable weather was played to a large and appreciative audience at Kinkora Hall Friday evening the seventeenth instant. The City Players composed of Fred MacMillan in the title role of "The Family Doctor," Ida Peters, Connie LeClair Howard McInnis, Herbert Oatway, Fred Coady, Dorothy Hughes and Betty Mitchell played the different roles assigned to them in true professional style. The powerful dramatic climaxes and humorous comedy scenes in the play brought forth outbursts of prolonged applause. Specialties between acts by Phyllis Blanchard in her delightful vocal solos, Edith Whitlock in tap dancing that found instant favor, J. Austin Trainor in funny character sketches, Wally Scantlebury with his up to the minute club juggling and torch swinging; all the specialties being encoring many times. Al Blanchard presided at the piano and was most generous playing many selections. Many from the audience came back stage to congratulate the different performers. A delicious buffet lunch was served by a group of Kinkora ladies which was heartily enjoyed by the players and visitors from Charlottetown and Summerside. It is to be hoped the City Players will come this way soon again.

Grain Prices Pegged On Chicago Mart

CHICAGO, May 19—(AP)—The Chicago board of trade today pegged grain prices to halt the plunge that sent wheat down about 50 cents in six days. Prices were pegged at Saturday's closing levels.

In an emergency move with few precedents in modern history, the market acted at the government's request to stop the precipitate fall, which has reduced the potential market value of this year's wheat crop by around $200,000,000 at present figures.

Directors voted to prohibit trading in grain futures at prices below closing levels Saturday, when wheat tumbled 10 cents a bushel. The session was the third within a week that wheat dropped the full 10-cent limit.

Fred Clutton, Secretary of the Board of Trade, announced the action in a formal statement which said:—

"The directors at a special meeting today, in compliance with the request of Henry A. Wallace, Secretary of Agriculture, ordered that beginning at the opening of trading, Monday morning, May 20, and effective until further notice, there shall be no future trading in wheat, corn, oats, rye or soy beans on any day at prices below the following minimums:—

"Wheat—May 70, July 78 1-2, Sept 78 1-4, Dec 79 1-4.

"Corn—May 59 3-4, July 59, Sept. 58 1-2, Dec. 57 3-4.

"Oats—May 37 1-2, July 33 1-4 Sept. 31.

"Rye—May 43 1-2, July 44 1-2, Sept. 46 1-2.

"Soy Beans—May 91 3-4, July 89 1-2, Oct. 77."

Market officials said other grain exchanges were expected to follow the board of trade's action.

Secretary Wallace, in his telegraphed request to all grain futures markets in the country Saturday, termed such action "a temporary protective measure against further price disturbance from current war developments."

Aldershot Visited By Turkish Delegates

By Edwin Johnson
Canadian Press Staff Writer

ALDERSHOT, May 17—(CP Cable)— A graphic panorama depicting the latent might of Britain was unfolded today before the eyes of a distinguished Turkish military and political delegation during an eight hour tour of the Aldershot area as guests of Major-General A. G. L. McNaughton, general officer commanding the Canadian 1st division who is temporarily in command of the area.

From morning until dusk the delegation motored and trekked over 50 miles amid an army in the making.

Every phase of army training, armament and equipment was on parade. Thousands of bronzed Canadians and imperial warriors marched in review, went through full-dress tactical exercises or displayed their prowess on the ranges. It was the most imposing demonstration staged in the area since the outbreak of war and left a deep impression on the visitors.

"We have always had the greatest admiration for our British Allies and what we have seen today has redoubled that admiration," said Bay Yalcin, member of the Turkish parliament and leader of the delegation.

"It has also given us particular pleasure to have seen your fine Canadian soldiers."

Played Prominent Part

In the day's crowded program, Canadians played a prominent part, the crack Edmonton regiment started the "show" with a display of mortar practice. Under the command of Major H. F. Seymour, the ...pany of the Royal Canadian Engineers, Montreal, gave a realistic demonstration of bridge building, fording streams and well drilling.

Lieut.-Colonel J. E. Sessor's Royal Montreal regiment was singled out for inspection and later marched in review past the delegation. Gunners of the 1st anti-tank regiment from Ottawa, Montreal, Quebec and Fredericton hauled their guns into position and had them in action 25 seconds after the command was given by Lieut.-Colonel G. W. F. Johnston.

Finally, as the party was strolling through a field of entrenchments, the entire Canadian 2nd infantry brigade hove into sight on a route march Brigadier G. R. Pearkes, Calgary, broke away from the column and took up his position with the visitors along the dusty roads seasoned men of the Princess Patricia's Canadian Light Infantry, the Seaforth Highlanders headed by kilted pipers, and the Edmonton regiment marched along in full battle kit.

THE DOG

Love for dogs is European
He's an unclean beast to Jew and Asian.
By nature the dog is very social,
To him that loves him he is docile
He seeks companionship of man
Unless you place on him a ban,
Like Jews and Turks who dogs detest,
Whose towns the curs unclean protest.
His master he will never forsake
Though he be a cruel rake.
A dog's love you should not despise
Perchance in it a treasure lies.
And then perchance you've seen the affliction.
Caused to a dog for his affection
For his master whom he served
Whose master's love he well deserved.
Low lies his dog disconsolate
Prone on his grave most desolate.
Sorrowful moanings wring his breas
For his lost master he's distrest.
A dog's intelligent and brave
He'll risk his life a friend to save.
Look in his eyes and you shall see
Both intelligence and loyalty.
The wise Ulysses in disguise
His hound was first to recognise,
The illused dog, diseased, half dead
Alert was to his master's tread.
His strength was gone, his eyes were dim
He half arose to welcome him.
From this scene a thought we form
That Homer's love for dogs was warm.
