Lamb Among The Bargains

Lamb is one of the moderate-priced meats right now. The price of beef has been greatly enhanced owing to exports to the United States.

Lamb is an all Canada meat and never in the history of Canada has the market been more adequately supplied with lamb of choicest quality.

Among the Anglo-Saxons, Norsemen and other Teutonic races, the feast of Eostre or Ostara, the Anglo-Saxon goddess of spring, was celebrated in April, which was named Eosturmonath or Easter month.

The world over as the best. People of more moderate means may purchase, at a very reasonable price, prairie-grown, fresh-killed, feedlot lambs, which are generally recognized as one of Canada's most outstanding meats.

LAMB DINNER MENU Fruit Cocktail Roast Leg or Rolled Shoulder of Lamb Parsley, Potatoes, Butter Peas, Rolls, Spiced Currants, Lettuce and Tomato Salad, Lemon Tart, Coffee.

To make brown gravy remove all the fat liquid from the pan except 2 tablespoons. In this brown an equal amount of flour, add one and half cups of water, stir constantly until it thickens.

STUDENTS OF BERBECK COLLEGE DIS-LAY AFFECTIONS FOR JOHN BUCHAN

John Buchan, Canada's new gov-ernor-general, has represented the Scottish universities in the British Parliament for eight years, and his popularity among undergraduates is revealed in this enthusiastic some upon his arrival at Berbeck College, when he was sent by the King to Scotland in 1931 as his representative at the Church of Scotland general assembly. His ar-rival at the famous old college was the occasion of widespread enthusi-asm. Students raised him on their shoulders and carried him trium-phantly across the campus. Can-ada's governor-general, Lord Buxton, then high commis-sioner to South Africa. He was on the headquarters staff of the British army in France from 1916 to 1917, and in 1918 acted as director of information under Premier Lloyd George.
