The Bison feature Picture will be given at the People's Theatre tonight, all the stirring, martial splendor of a military fortress. The young lieutenant who is under fire for the first time, runs away. His father mourns him as dead, and when he returns in the night his young wife turns from him, but guards his secret. Later he redeems the honor of the family in a sensational scene, in which the soldiers and Indians engage in a desperate struggle. There are two full reels in all.

The home of George H. and Mrs. Holbrook, 11 King Square, Charlottetown, will be the scene of an interesting event this morning at 6.45 o'clock when Laurel Beatrice, their youngest daughter, becomes the bride of Wilfred P. Taylor, son of George H. Taylor, Jeweler, Charlottetown. Rev. J. Heaney, B. A., Pastor of the First Methodist Church, will perform the marriage ceremony, only the immediate relatives of the families being present. The home is simply and tastefully decorated for the occasion. The bride will be unattended and will be attired in a dainty gown of white silk, carrying a bouquet of roses and maiden hair fern. The wedding march will be rendered by Master Harold, brother of the bride, and after the wedding breakfast the young couple will leave on the express for a tour of the Maritime Provinces. The bride's going away gown is a tailored suit of Copenhagen blue with hat to match. The bride is a general favorite among a wide circle of friends, all of whom are greatly pleased on account of the fact that her future home will be in the city. Mr. Taylor is a valued and trusted clerk in the employ of G. E. Hughes, Druggist, Charlottetown. The wedding gifts were numerous and beautiful, including a very handsome chair from the choir of the First Methodist Church of which they are both members, and presents from Willing Circle of King's Daughters and Mission Circle of which the bride is an active member. On their return they will take up their residence in the groom's new home at Brighton. The Guardian, along with their host of friends, extends best wishes to the newly wedded couple.

"If you don't feel good—if it's stormy—if you can't leave the children, or, if for any other reason you can't come out or don't want to come out—just telephone. Your wants will be attended to just as promptly and carefully as though you came in person. Whether it's rubber goods, candy, a prescription—no matter what—just telephone 219, The McKinnon Drug Co., corner Gt. George and Kent Sts. MEtf.

Men's Handsome Sweater Coats in From England

Charlottetown's Greatest Showing of new Autumnal Models in Ladies' Coats

YOU ARE MOST CORDIALLY INVITED TO inspect to-day the largest collection of autumn coats that this store has ever placed before you.

We want you to come in—look round—examine the garments—criticise the showing as severely as you can—make a comparison with any such line shown anywhere by anyone.

The coats this fall are distinctly different from any past season. Warmth, and comfort in every garment have been the points aimed at. But in addition to these there never has been so much smartness and style in fall coats since we remember.

Soft, heavy, "wooly" tweeds are very much used—many handsome reversible tweeds—cut loose and full length. Some very effective coats show a belt of leather or cloth.

But there is no use talking to any greater length about them—one visit will do more for you than all the descriptions that we could write in a month.

Will you come—today
