DON'T BE BALD

Nearly Anyone May Secure a Splendid Growth of Hair.

We have a remedy that has a record of retarding baldness and promoting hair growth in 93 out of every 100 cases where used according to directions for a reasonable length of time. That may seem like a strong statement—it is, and we mean it to be, and no one should doubt it until they have put our claims to an actual test.

We are so certain Rexall '93' Hair Tonic will eradicate dandruff, act to prevent baldness, stimulate the scalp and hair roots arrest premature loss of hair and promote hair growth, that we personally give our positive guarantee to refund every penny paid us for it in every instance where it does not give entire satisfaction to the user.

Rexall '93' Hair Tonic is as pleasant to use as clear spring water. It is delightfully perfumed, and does not grease or gum the hair. Two sizes, 50c and $1.00. With our guarantee back of it, you certainly take no risk. Sold only at our store—The Rexall Store, The MacKinnon Drug Co.

"We have a new perfume called 'Princess Patricia,' and its simply lovely. We had this manufactured specially for our store and will be pleased to give samples of same, for a few days. We know you will like it. 0c, a dram, 75c, per oz. E. A. Foster, Central Drugstore, 10-23Mt.

The death occurred on Wednesday morning, Oct. 16th at North Rustico, of Amund LeClere, aged 52 years. Although it was known for some time that the end was near, still it came as a severe shock to his family and friends. During his long and severe illness he was often visited by his pastor, and he died fortified by the last rites of the United Church. Deceased was an honorable and upright man, loved by a wide circle of friends, and esteemed by all who knew him. His funeral took place on Friday morning to St. Augustine's Church, Rustico, and was largely attended. Deceased was a member of the "Artisan" society and a good number of the members attended his funeral. Besides his bereaved widow, three daughter, Mary, Christie and Angie and four sons, Emmanuel and Simon in the United States who were home during the father's illness, Dolphy and George, are left to mourn the loss of a kind, devoted, and much loved father.

Tonight the Peoples Theatre show the grand three reel Tanhouser production "Jess." This is the story of the Boer War and should fill this popular picture house. When it is known that this feature cost the management considerable extra rental and that the admission price remains unchanged the patrons should appreciate the efforts of the management in always securing the latest and best. This is a story that will interest the old and the young and has a nice love tale running through it. It has filled show houses night after night for weeks at a time in Toronto, Montreal, and other large cities and our people should not miss the opportunity of seeing one of the Tanhouser latest and best productions in "Jess." Remember only tonight and Saturday and five cents admission.

A pretty wedding took place Wednesday evening at the home of Wm. W. Taylor, Granville, when his sister Mary E. became the wife of Edward J. Taylor of Schriber, Ontario. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. J. B. Gough, under an arch of ferns and hawthorn berries. The bride, who was given away by her brother, wore a wedding dress of silk chiffon, with bridal veil and carried a large bouquet of roses. She was attended by her sister Miss Hattie Taylor, while E. W. Taylor of Sydney, C. B., attended the groom. Supper was served to the large number of guests present, and a very enjoyable evening was spent. The groom's present to the bride was a fur coat and muff and to the bride a bracelet. A large number of presents were received testifying to the popularity of the bride. Mr. and Mrs. Taylor left by the next morning's boat on a trip to Sydney, C. B., the bride wearing a travelling suit of blue, with hat to match. Their many friends join in wishing them a very happy married life. They will reside in Ontario.
