WEDDING BELLS—Miss Persis Isabelle Dixon, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Dixon of Sackville, and Mr. Roy Thornton Ward, were united in marriage at Port Elgin on Oct. 10th. Rev. Theodore Ross officiating. Mr. and Mrs. Ward have returned from a short honeymoon trip on P. E. Island, and are leaving at the end of this week for Halifax where they will reside.—Sackville Post.

WEDDING BELLS—A very pretty wedding took place at the Zion Church, Charlottetown, on Sept. 28th, when Miss Annie MacNeil of Village Green became the bride of Mr. Clarence Wood, a prosperous young farmer of Vernon River. The marriage was performed by Rev. Mr. Fulton. The bride looked charming in a gown of Gobelins Blue flat crepe, with large picture hat to match and silver shoes and stockings. She carried in her hand an exquisite bouquet of bridal rose and maiden hair fern. After the ceremony the happy couple drove to the home of the bride, where a dainty supper was served, after which they drove to their future home in Vernon River. They were the recipients of many beautiful and costly gifts, which testified the esteem in which they were held. Their many friends wish Mr. and Mrs. Wood a long and happy wedded life.

WALKER-SHANAHAN WEDDING—St. Andrew's Church, Gloucester, on Oct. 17th, Margaret Shanahan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Shanahan, became the bride of Gerald Walker, of Halifax. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Father McAdam. The bride, given in marriage by her father, entered the church to the strains of Lohengrin's wedding march, played by Miss Amelia Boudreau. She wore a gown of orchid georgette with chentle trimmings, and with a large picture hat of black satin and velvet, and carried a bouquet of roses, carnations, and lilies of the valley. The bridesmaid, Miss Catherine Shanahan, sister of the bride, wore a powder blue-georgette dress, with large black picture hat, and carried a bouquet of roses. Mr. Harry Hufley, of Halifax, attended the room. Immediately after the ceremony a wedding breakfast was served at the home of the bride's parents to a large number of relatives and friends. The presents were numerous. The groom's gift to the bride was a cheque, to the bridesmaid a ring, and to the bridesmaid a travelling bag. Mr. and Mrs. Walker left on the morning's express for Prince Edward Island, where they will spend their honeymoon, the bride travelling in a del blue coat of needle point cloth with gray fur trimmings.—Halifax Chronicle.

ARE PARENTS PEOPLE?

ARTICLE 5

1. Does the present-day parent compare favorably or unfavorably with the parent of past generations? 2. To what extent can parents be blamed for juvenile delinquency? And in what respects? 3. Can a parent, by controlling environment and companionship, mould the character of the child as desired? 4. Do you believe in the principle of parent education? If so, what should it include? 5. At what age do you think parent education should start? Should it be before or after marriage? 6. Do you think the inclusion of health as a major topic in a parent education scheme might do much to increase the physical well-being of the country?

By Judge J. F. McKinley, Judge of Juvenile Court, Ottawa.

1. Yes. Parents have always been neglectful. The children of today have a great many more temptations than those of yesterday. This makes the parents' responsibility all the greater—which responsibility they do not, apparently, realize.

2. Ninety per cent. of the delinquency which has come before me has been occasional as a result of the disease, ignorance or neglect of parents.

3. Absolutely.

4. Everything.

5. Twelve years of age.

6. Yes.

By Professor Peter Sandiford, Ontario College of Education

1. In many ways more favorably. There is an awakened sense of responsibility, but parents of today do not know how to meet their problems. In the past the task was easy. The children simply were repressed.

2. The changing social situation is chiefly responsible for juvenile delinquency. We do not fit in to the rapidly changing environment as freely as we ought. Parents, if trained, could help the matter. If they can't help, then nobody can.

3. To a great extent, yes. But there are rights of the child as well as the rights of parents. The problem is to develop the child to fit society without infringing on the inalienable rights of childhood.

4. Yes, strongly. Children inherit traits and capacities. Parents should know about this and how traits and capacities are unfolded by education and training. Every parent should be a child psychologist.

5. Before, if possible. Seventy years ago Spencer pointed out that we trained people as if they were never to be the parents of children. The whole subject has been taboo, simply because sex was taboo.

6. Yes, the child must first be a healthy animal, but health is only one of the many topics that should be dealt with. In many ways physical health is much easier to secure than mental health, yet the latter is just as important.

ISLAND LADY WEDS.—On Saturday afternoon (Oct. 15) at the parsonage of the Calvary M. E. Church, Taunton, Mass., Miss Minnie M. Lane of 19 Kilfox St., daughter of Mrs. Edward Lane of Dunster staffage, P. E. I., was united in marriage to Harold Lee Hall, son of Mrs. E. M. Hall of Raynham, Mass., the Rev. Maurice Barrett, officiating. The double ring service was used. The bride was attractively gowned in blue velvet and georgette and carried a bouquet of butterfly roses and lilies of the valley. The couple were unattended, only the immediate relatives of the contracting parties being present. After the ceremony, Mr. and Mrs. Hall left for their new home in Raynham, where Mr. Hall is in business. They will be at home after November 1st.

Face Disfigured With Large Pimples Cuticura Healed

"My face broke out with small pimples which gradually became large, red and very hard. They festered and scalded over which made them very sore, and itched, causing me to scratch, and they soon spread to my chest and back. My face was disfigured and I was ashamed to go any place. I could not sleep on account of the irritation. I sent for a free sample of Cuticura Soap and Ointment and inside of a week there was quite a change. I purchased more and after using two cakes of Cuticura Soap I was healed." (Signed) Nicol Stark, R. R. 1, Glenelm, Que.
