

SUMMERSIDE MAN WILL RUN AUTO

Mr. Frank Tuplin, of Summerside, P. E. I., while in Moncton last week placed an order for a high powered seven passenger touring automobile, says a Moncton exchange. Mr. Tuplin's new car will be a Pierce Arrow, six cylinder, model 66, and was purchased through the company's maritime agent, Mr. E. W. Givan, and will be delivered here in the near future. This will be the largest car in the province. Mr. Tuplin does not propose to be deprived of the pleasure of having an auto, notwithstanding the vote cast against autos in the plebiscite recently held under the auspices of the P. E. I. School Board.—B. Roy Holman has the agency for P. E. Island.

OPTIMISTIC ADDRESS BY DUKE OF CONNAUGHT

LONDON, July 2.—Lord Strathcona presided at the Dominion Day dinner last night. The Duke of Connaught was the chief guest. The latter spoke confidently of the future of Canada. The depression of the moment was something which happens every country but Canada is on a sound basis and he had every reason to look forward to a steady advance in prosperity and population.

DAILY SELECTIONS FOR GUARDIAN READERS

Furnished by W. S. Louson

NOT THE ONLY THING.

Selfishness is innate in humanity, and every little circumstance brings it out. Sometimes it is a feast to Russian peasants, sometimes a frantic rush to uninhabitable regions where gold dust atones for the dearth of sunbeams. The sin of the race is greed—greed of gain, greed of pleasure, greed of fame. There is no reason why men should not honorably strive for success, but where everything is thrown aside in the race, and it becomes a mad stampede for first place, there are plenty of men who are as bent upon their own selfish purposes and aims as the hog, who gets in body and bones into the trough. The man who can corner the market, squeeze the most out of his creditors or employees, is the successful man. But there is a wealth beyond riches and a name that is better than fame. It was this thought that led the wise man to say "Wisdom is the principal thing, therefore get wisdom; and with all thy getting get understanding." True wisdom makes a right use of the things of life, right understanding puts a man in accord with his fellows.

Two Women Saved From Operations

By Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound—Their Own Stories Here Told.

Beatrice, Neb.—"Just after my marriage my left side began to pain me and the pain got so severe at times that I suffered terribly with it. I visited three doctors and each one wanted to operate on me but I would not consent to an operation. I heard of the good Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound was doing for others and I used several bottles of it with the result that I haven't been bothered with my side since then. I am in good health and I have two little girls."—Mrs. R. B. Child, Beatrice, Neb.

The Other Case.

Cary, Maine.—"I feel it a duty I owe to all suffering women to tell what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound did for me. One year ago I found myself a terrible sufferer. I had pains in both sides and such a soreness I could scarcely straighten up at times. My back ached, I had no appetite and was so nervous I could not sleep, then I would be so tired mornings that I could scarcely get around. It seemed almost impossible to move or do a bit of work and I thought I never would be any better until I submitted to an operation, but my husband thought I had better write to you and I did so, stating my symptoms. I commenced taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and soon felt like a new woman. I had no pains, slept well, had good appetite and could do almost all my own work for a family of four. I shall always feel that I owe my good health to your Vegetable Compound."—Mrs. HAYWARD SOWERS, Cary, Maine.

FUNNIOSITIES

To-Days Great Thought.

Advice is a commodity peddled by your lawyer and given away by your mother-in-law, but impossible to dispose of yourself. Famous as the one thing which it is "more blessed to give than receive." Good advice!—something old men give young men when they can no longer give them a bad example.

There was a young lady named Golda;
"I love you," the fellows all tolda.
They'd come every night
And turn down the light
And holda, and holda, and holda.

Why the Paper was Late.

An amusing incident occurred in one of the tenebric establishments of the city the other day.
A customer entered the barber shop, which is on Queen Street.
"How soon can you cut my hair?" he asked of the proprietor, who was seated in an easy chair, perusing the pages of a dime novel.
"Bill," said the barber, addressing his errand boy, "run over to Victoria Row and tell the editor that I'd like my scissors, if he's got done editin' the paper. Gentlemen waitin' for a hair cut."

Good Crop of Small Potatoes.

The Guardian last week had the pleasure of seeing the largest crop of small potatoes ever grown in Charlottetown, and certainly thinks it highly creditable to those responsible for its cultivation, in view of the difficulties under which they labor. Particulars of this interesting crop are given below.
REBUILDING CATHEDRAL.—Arrangements have been made with the John S. Metcalfe Co. of Montreal, Chicago and Manchester, England, to reconstruct St. Dunstan's Cathedral. It is expected that the work may be so far advanced as to permit the use of the basement by the first of December next.—Guardian, June 25.

The Examiner is authorized to state that no contract has yet been executed for the rebuilding of St. Dunstan's Cathedral and that the item which appears in this morning's Guardian to that effect was premature.—Examiner, June 25.

Tramp (to the elderly spinster): "Gimme a pair o' boots, lidy."
Spinster: "I haven't any to give away."
Tramp: "Then ars't yer 'usbun' if 'e ain't got an ole pair o' trowsers to spare."
Spinster (not wishing to betray her unwedded state): "My husband—er—never wears such things."

GILLETT'S LYE EATS DIRT

had been lecturing his men on "the duties of a soldier," and he thought it was time to see how much they had understood of his discourse. Casting his eyes round the room he fixed on Private Jones as his first victim. "Private Jones," he asked, "why should a soldier be ready to die for his country?" Private Jones scratched his head for a moment, and a smile of enlightenment crossed his face. "Sure, captain," he said pleasantly, "you're right. Why should he?"

A Slight Mistake.

Neatly dressed young lady enters a grocer's shop along Sunnyside. "Give me a dozen bananas, please," she said to the shopman, "but I don't like the look of that little one."

Shopman—"That ain't a banana, miss; that's my thumb."

How to Mail a Letter.

After writing it, place it in a square or oblong envelope—round ones are no longer fashionable—seal it on the back and write a legible address on the front, then take a two-cent stamp, give it a good licking and retire it to the corner—the upper, right-hand corner, on the outside—never inside, as the postmaster is not a clairvoyant. Drop it in a letter-box, and trust to luck. If it's a love letter, it will probably reach her all right, for Cupid is a faithful postman and carries a stout pair of wings. If it's a bill, by all means have it registered; otherwise, your debtor will swear he never got it. If it's cash for your tailor, heed the post-office warning, "Don't send money through the mails." Wait until you happen to meet him on the street. If he sees you first, you lose.
