MR. R. R. HOWLETT is Guadian representative in Montague. THE ANNUAL MEETING of the Branch of the O. L. Lodge, will be held on Tuesday January 9th, 1917, at two o'clock p. m. sharp at the Orange Hall, Dundas, King's County, 3763-1-4 M21.

RECEPTION TO SOLDIERS.—Lieutenant Johnson, of Kensington, and Gunner Stephen Doiron were given a rousing reception Tuesday evening by the people of Souris. A large number of ladies and gentlemen gathered in the B. I. S. Hall, where a number of addresses were given to the returned heroes. His worship the Mayor occupied the chair and with him on the platform were members of the Siege Artillery Detachment at Souris. The young men replied fittingly to the kind words addressed to them and were heartily cheered by the audience. Lt. Johnson is a son of Rev. Mr. Johnson of Kensington, and had resided in Souris some years ago. Gunner Doiron was also a resident of Souris some time ago. Both had made warm friends while there and have not been forgotten by them.

WEDDING BELLS.—Miss Gladys Agnes David, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph David of Georgetown, P. E. I., and Edward L. Cormier were married at 7 o'clock Christmas night at the rectory of the Sacred Heart church by Rev. Victor Choquette. They were attended by Miss Nora Riordan and Francis Stackpole. The bride wore a gown of white satin with trimmings of venetian and gold lace and pearls and carried a bouquet of bride's roses. The bridesmaid wore pink crepe de chine with hat to match and carried pink roses. After the ceremony more than 100 guests were entertained at a reception held at the home of the groom's parents. Guests were present from Maribon, Boston, New Hampshire and surrounding towns. The house was prettily decorated. The bride's gift to her maid was a pearl rosary and the maid presented the bride with a similar gift. The groom's gift to the bride was a gold stick pin. The young couple left today for a short wedding trip and on their return will reside for the present at 8 Taber Avenue. Mr. Douglas is a mechanic at the W. L. Douglas Shoe Co., plant and is a member of La Jeunesse Council, St. Jean Baptiste d'Amerique and Club National. The bride has been employed at an office clerk by Dr. C. I. Granstein. At the reception a luncheon was served by Mrs. Joseph Cormier, Miss Rena David and Dora Cormier. (Examinatee please copy.)

GUERNSEY COVE CONCERT.—At Guernsey Cove on Dec. 20th, a very pleasant evening was spent when Miss Stella Welsh with her scholars gave a very enjoyable concert. The school house was tastefully decorated with flags, spruce, and various other trimmings which were arranged and blended so as to produce a very pleasing effect. The crowd assembled at an early hour and while waiting, violin music was given by Messrs Charles and Harris Jordan with harp and organ accompaniments. Miss Celia Senebaugh organist. When the hour arrived for opening, Mr. John Winslow called the meeting to order with a few well chosen remarks after which a large attentive audience listened with pleasure to a long and well prepared programme consisting of Songs, Solos, Readings, Recitations, Dialogues, Tableaux, Military Drill and a set of lancers by the children who were dressed in old fashioned costumes such as bonnets, beaver hats etc., and this along with choice and suitable music greatly added to the enjoyment of all present. A vote of thanks was given to the teacher for the good work she had done in the school and for her untiring efforts in teaching her pupils to perform their parts so well. Old Santa then appeared on the scene in his usual and amusing costume, who soon relieved the burdened tree of its numerous and pretty gifts and presented them to the happy recipients, after which the meeting closed by singing God Save the King. Upon request the above concert will be repeated at Murray Harbor on Saturday, Jan. 6th inst., the proceeds to be given to the Red Cross Fund.—Com.

AT ANNANDALE.—A pleasant evening was spent in Annandale on Thursday, Dec. 21st when the children of the village celebrated the Christmas season by a Christmas tree and entertainment. Mr. Savell kindly acted as chairman and the following programme was rendered. Opening Chorus "Good Luck to the Boys of the Allies." Speech, Master Fred Morrow; Speech, Master Willie Main; Recitation, "Lulu's Complaint" Miss Mary Howlett; Recitation "A Tolerable Tolerable" Master Dingwell Morrow; Chorus "Dear Santa Claus" School; Recitation "The New Brother"; Miss Janie Giles; Recitation "A Mortifying Mistake," Miss Lovica Main; Recitation "Papa's Letter," Miss Marguerite Jenkins; Flag Drill and Chorus; School; Recitation "When Pa Rapped the Parlor" Miss Mary Jenkinson; Recitation "The Little Christ"; Ruth Howlett; Chorus "Our Christmas tree"; School; Recitation "A Gluttonous Duck"; Master Max Norton; Recitation "A Christmas Carol"; Miss Beatrice Morrow; Chorus "Jolly Old Santa Claus" School; Recitation, "Somebody's Darling" Miss Mary Clark; Recitation "A Gentle Hint," Miss Druss Main; Recitation, "Ask Mamma" Miss Lucy Norton; Recitation "The Burial of Sir John Moore"; Grades V and VI; Dialogue "Matrimonial Sweets" Master Dingwell, Morrow and Miss Mary Jenkins; Chorus "Old Santa Claus is Coming" School. While singing the closing chorus the children were pleasantly surprised by the arrival of "Santa." He soon stripped the well laden tree and each child received a generous supply of gifts. Several of the "Good Grown-Ups" were also remembered. The National Anthem brought the evening to a close. Thanks are due to Miss Mary E. McFarlane organist and to all others who helped to make our Tree a success.

MISSIONARY SERVICE.—There will be a missionary programme of readings, recitations, special songs, etc. given in the Christian Church, Montague, on Friday evening Jan. 7th at 7 o'clock.

NEW ZEALAND SCHOOL.—The semi-annual examination of New Zealand School was held Friday, Dec. 22nd, when a large number of parents and visitors assembled to do honour to the occasion. The school room was nicely decorated for the occasion with spruce and red, white and blue colours and a beautiful Xmas tree presented a very pretty picture to the large number present, about forty in all. The pupils were examined in the various subjects by Mr. Peter Conway assisted by their teacher Miss B. Hughes and showed by their quick response to the various questions that they had been carefully instructed. Then followed a program of songs, recitations, etc. Following was the most important part of the proceedings especially for the pupils, when Santa Claus appeared on the scene with a large bundle of toys for all the pupils. The people were then treated to home made candy by the teacher and a very enjoyable time was spent and all started for home feeling that a very profitable and enjoyable evening was passed in the school house.
